American Legion Auxiliary To Sponsor Tacky Party

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor a community tacky party for adults on February 17 at the Sylva Community house. Proceeds from the party will be used for the building of the Memorial Fountain.

Miss Alice Benton and Miss Helen Hartshorn, members of the physical education department at Western Carolina Teachers College, will be in charge of the recreation and Rev. Mark Osborne, Jr., will give several readings. Several interesting features have been planned for the evening and light refreshments will be served.

Prizes will be given the tackiest man and woman present. Admission to the party will be fifty cents and members of the Legion Auxiliary will be selling tickets this week.

Mrs. Stovall Hostess To Members Of Bridge Club

Mrs. Philip Stovall was hostess at her home Friday night to members of her bridge club. Two tables were made up for play, and at the conclusion of the game Mrs. E. L. McKee held high score and Mrs. Keith Hinds, second high.

In addition to Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Hinds, others attending were Edith Sutton, Eddie Marie Sutton, Margaret Wise, Daisy Wilkes, Edith Hall, and Wilma Jones.

The hostess served a desert course.

MISS BUCHANAN BECOMES BRIDE OF JAMES SWAGGERTY

Miss Nan Louise Buchanan, daughter of Mrs. Florence Buchanan of Webster, was married to James Swaggerty of Cincinnati, Ohio, on Saturday evening, January 25, in the Mount Vernon Baptist church, Arlington, Va. The Rev. Willard Pierce, pastor, performed the candlelight service, using the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with palms, white gladioli, and snapdragons with candelabra holding lighted tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by the church organist, and the traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride wore a light blue gaberdine suit with black accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Miss Elizabeth Allman of Webster served as maid of honor. She wore a bittersweet suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was of talisman roses.

John Odell of Washington, D. C., served as Mr. Swaggerty's best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. G. Henry, of Arlington, Va., for members of the family, close friends and out of town guests.

After the reception the couple left by motor for a wedding trip to Cincinnati and points south. Upon their return they will be at home at 1761 Park Road, N. W., Washington, D. C.

The bride is a graduate of Webster high school, attended Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee, and Temple College in Washington, D. C. For the past five years she has been employed with the Surgeon General's office in Washington.

The bridegroom attended Cincinnati schools and at present is a chief petty officer in the U. S. navy.

Mrs. Corbin Hostess To U. D. C. Meeting

On Thursday evening Mrs. J. F. Corbin was hostess for the February meeting of the B. H. Cathey chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, at her home on College Hill. In the absence of both the president and vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Wilson presided.

The meeting was opened by a responsive reading of the chapter ritual. A number of important business matters were discussed and acted upon.

Miss Bertha Cunningham reported on the Lee-Jackson Day program held at the Sylva elementary school.

Mrs. W. L. Jones presented H. E. Monteith, guest speaker for the meeting. He spoke on "The Boy and the Girl," pointing out the negligence of the people toward these youth of today and urging us to rededicate ourselves to this, the most important task of our time.

The hostess served an ice course which carried out the Valentine motif in both the cakes and ices.

The March meeting will be with Mrs. Mary R. Cowan.

Young Adult Class Met Monday Evening

The Young Adult Class of the Methodist Sunday school had its regular business meeting and party Monday evening in Allison Chapel. Mrs. Dennis Barkley and Mrs. Jake Bales, the hostesses, had planned for an informal recreational hour, after which they served a salad course to the twenty members present.

Following this a short business session was held, presided over by the vice-president, Mrs. Raymon Stovall, in the absence of the president, T. N. Massie. The class is already supporting a child at the Methodist orphanage and voted to provide funds to care for another one of these children.

This class is one of the most active in the Sunday school. It has two evening meetings each month. During the absence of the teacher, Dan Tompkins, various members of the class are being asked to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Sutton Hostess For S. S. Class Meet

Mrs. R. U. Sutton entertained on Monday evening the Inez Cathey Sunday School class of the Methodist church. Mrs. Sutton is president and presided over the business hour.

The members voted to sponsor a movement to secure a full-time worker for the young people.
