SPORT BRIEFS

From Here and There

The Sylva V.F.W. basketball team will enter the Asheville Y.M.C.A. basketball tournament, which will begin February 24th and continue through March 1. The tournament will consist of 20 or more teams throughout Western North Carolina. Pairings have not yet been made.

The local high school must have had quite a few tough breaks Saturday night when Cullowhee beat them 21 points on the Cullowhee court. We all know Sylva High has a much better team than the one that was defeated. The Hurricanes were a little over-confident.

After 7 straight victories, the V.F.W. dropped a thriller Saturday night to the Robbinsville American Legion quint.

Robbinsville led the Sylva team 30-11 at the intermission but the final score ended 44-39.

There is never a basketball game played in or around Sylva that you can't hear our "drug store coaches," (people who know little about the game and most likely didn't see it), downing the coaches or the players. If these people are really interested, why don't they get behind the teams and push instead of holding them back and throwing a punch below the belt every chance they get.

The Webster All-Stars will play Dayton Rubber Company Thursday night on the Waynesville high school court.

Sylva High took a good rebound from their upset by Cullowhee by downing the Webster boys Tuesday night.

Ashville Bombers Win From W.C.T.C.

Western Carolina Catamounts suffered two defeats last Thursday night when the Asheville Bombers walloped the varsity 71-43 and the Sylva V.F.W. quint downed the junior varsity, 32-20.

"Big" Jim Dowtin led the Bomber team with 25 points, while Barnhorst played a good floor game for W.C.T.C.

In the preliminary it looked as though the Phillips brothers of the V.F.W. got most of the credit for their victory. The fast break which the Catamounts specialize in was completely stopped by Robert Phillips who kept the W.C.T.C. forwards at a stand-still for 4 quarters. Bill Phillips did his usual work by hitting the hoop for 15 of his team's 32 points.

The lineups:
W.C.T.C. (43) Bombers (71)
F—Gudger (9) Dowtin (25)—F
F—Olson (4) Patton (10)—F
C—Barnhorst (2) McCrary (18)—C
G—Lane (6) Harris (5)—G
G—Tate (13) Story (9)—G
Subs: W.C.T.C.—Loy 3, McGinn 8. Bombers—Boone 4.

Cats Bow To High Point In Close Tilt

The Purple Panthers of High Point moved into a first place tie in the North State conference with Appalachian Monday night by downing W.C.T.C., 59-53.

Gudger of W.C.T.C. took the night's scoring honors with 26 points.

The lineups:
H. Point (59) W.C.T.C. (53)

Faculty And Students Of WCTC Honor Prof. Madison On Birthday

Professor R. L. Madison, president emeritus and founder of Western Carolina Teachers College, was guest of honor at a birthday dinner given by faculty members and the student body of the college last Monday night in the dining room of the college canteen. It was Professor Madison's 80th birthday anniversary.

A banquet table had been arranged in the dining room, which was lighted throughout with candles, and the table was decorated with cut flowers.

Seated with the honoree at the birthday table were Mrs. Monroe Madison and Mrs. Bannister Madison, daughters-in-law; Virginia and Louise Madison, granddaughters; W. C. Norton, only surviving member of the original board of trustees of the college; Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Hunter, Dean and Mrs. W. E. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Buchanan, Mrs. Wm. Reeves, Miss Anne Albright, Miss Alice Benton, Miss Fannie Goodman, Rev. M. S. Ritchie, and Miss Martha Lou Hunter.

The remaining faculty and student body were seated at other tables in the dining room.

Dean W. E. Bird introduced the guests at Professor Madison's table and Thelma Joyce Finch, president of the student body, presented him with a revised copy of the New Testament on behalf of the students. Mr. Madison made a brief talk, expressing his gratitude and pleasure at being greeted by the assembly.

Guests retired to the drawing rooms where a large birthday cake had been placed on a table. Miss Fannie Goodman and Mrs. C. C. Buchanan cut the cake and guests were served by Miss Virginia and Louise Madison. Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Bird presided at the coffee

TOMPKINS EXPLAINS PROPOSED SCHOOL FUNDS FOR JACKSON

Superintendent of Jackson county public schools, A. C. Moses, has had a reply from Representative Dan Tompkins in answer to a request for information on how the State fund of $200,000 for school buildings in Jackson was arrived at. A paragraph in Mr. Tompkins' reply reads as follows: "The formula was worked out by a commission appointed by the Governor following the last session of the General Assembly, and $200,000 would seem to be a fair apportionment to our county in view of the limited amount that we believe we stand a chance of getting the General Assembly to approve at this session."

Mr. Tompkins stated further that if the general funds continue to grow during the next biennium Jackson county would receive much more than $200,000.

Mr. Tompkins is a co-sponsor of the bill setting up the funds for the various schools of the state.

When the figures for Jackson county were released a few weeks ago many people considered the $200,000 far short of the actual needs for the county, and out of line with proposed sums for other counties, thinking that the local school board had made the request for this amount. But this isn't the case, as stated by Mr. Tompkins. They were arrived at by the special state-wide commission.

table, after which Professor Madison was presented a large table of gifts from friends, faculty, and members of the family.

An informal hour of greetings and conversation followed.
