W. C. Allisons Observe 50th Wedding Anniversary

A large number of friends and relatives called to greet Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allison on Sunday afternoon when their sons and daughters entertained with a tea, honoring them on their Golden Wedding anniversary.

The house was decorated with yellow gladioli and jonquils and potted plants. Tea guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. F. M. Williams, who also had charge of the guest register.

Mrs. Robert Fisher, a daughter, presented them to the receiving line, in which were Mr. and Mrs. Allison and Mr. Allison's three sisters, Mrs. U. A. Hyatt, Bryson City, Mrs. S. E. Varner, Brevard, and Mrs. Ben S. Forkner, Atlanta, and his step-mother, Mrs. S. C. Allison.

Mrs. Nelson Shepherd, another daughter, invited the guests into the dining room where the tea table was arranged. Covered with a lace cloth, it had for a central decoration a large wedding cake with trimmings suitable for the occasion. Around this was a wreath of yellow acacia and green foliage. This was flanked on either side by white and yellow candles in crystal holders, entwined with ivy streamers. Napkins engraved with the honorees' names, Teenie and Carey, were used.

The tea service was placed at the end. Pouring during the first hour was Mrs. Burch Allison, with Mrs. Paul Sutton, Mrs. Charles Ensley, and Mrs. J. L. Hooper pouring during the remainder of the afternoon.

Assisting in entertaining were Miss Thelma Moody, niece of Mrs. Allison, and Peggie Jo Sutton and Sarah Jean Allison, granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison received a large number of beautiful gifts, as did Mrs. Hyatt, who was also celebrating both her birthday and her wedding anniversary. They also received a number of cards and greetings from friends who could not be present.

One daughter, Mrs. L. S. Sutton, and one son, G. S. Sutton, Allison, who is still in Puerto Rico, were unable to be present.

Out of town guests who were present on the occasion were Mrs. Allison and children of New York, Mrs. Nelson Shepherd, Mrs. Thelma Moody, Mrs. Allison, and Mrs. Varner, Brevard, Mrs. Bryson City, Mr. and Mrs. Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. ...

HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL READY FOR THE PRESS

The first dummy of the Sylva high school annual has been completed and will be sent to Miller Printing Company of Asheville this week, where work will be begun on the publishing of the annual, according to an announcement made by Kent Coward, editor-in-chief, and members of the staff.

The work on the annual has moved to such a rapid completion that Miller Printing Company has assured the senior class, sponsoring group for the project, that copies will be ready for sale the latter part of April or the first of May.

This is the first attempt made by students of the high school to publish an annual and faculty advisors stated that much enthusiasm and hard work of the staff and contributing students have made it a very successful enterprise.

Logan Carnes Honored On 84th Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greene entertained with a birthday dinner at their home in Waynesville on Sunday, February 2, in honor of Mr. Greene's grandfather, Mr. Logan Carnes of Dillsboro.

"Uncle Log" as he is known by his many friends, was celebrating his 84th birthday.

Two of his daughters, Mrs. Claude Greene of Dillsboro and Mrs. L. H. Gates of Sylva, and six of his grandchildren and their families were present.

A delicious turkey dinner was served and in the afternoon pictures were taken of the group. Those attending from Sylva were Mr. and Mrs. Olin Ensley, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Walker and son, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gates, Miss Bobbie Nell Ensley, and Miss Doris Love Middleton.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cardnes Green of Canton and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Greene.
