A group of friends and relatives gathered Tuesday, February 25, at the home of "Aunt" Cindy Lou Love (colored) in the Riverview section of Dillsboro, to pay respects to her on the anniversary of her 101st year.

"Aunt" Cindy, a native and life long resident of Jackson county, was born February 25, 1836 and was sold at the age of four to Col. Thaddeus Bryson, with whom she made her home until the time of her marriage in November, 1865, to Joe Marion Love. They enjoyed the distinction of being the first colored couple to be legally married.

ried after the emancipation.

"Aunt" Cindy received cards and many lovely presents from the hosts of friends she has made in more than a century of life. Perhaps the most prized gift she received on her birthday was a photograph of her great great grand children, who are now making their home in Charlottesville, Va.

She was the mother of five children, of which only one, Rosa Lee, survives. "Aunt" Cindy lives with her daughter and is in remarkably good health. She is not confined to her bed and while her vision is dim, it still permits her to get about. Her memory is quite keen and she loves to tell tales of the past.
