Weekly SERMONET

A NEW DAY

Something new was born today—a NEW DAY. Other days may have been like this one, but this day has never been before. All of the ugly things that made their marks upon the record of yesterday have not touched the record of today. As the sun rises over the eastern plains, showing us the day that is born, we realize that what this day becomes in history depends upon what you and I write in the record by our actions today. "Life is like a leaf of paper white, upon which each of us may write."

The Holy Scripture refers to the New Life. Just as surely as the new day may not be besmirched with the evil of yesterday, so you and I have the opportunity of breaking away from the evil that held us yesterday. In Christ Jesus all things become new. Old things are passed away. The message of the Christian Gospel is that men are not condemned for their past mistakes. There is forgiveness of sin. The repentant soul may hear the words, "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

"As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us." More than 1900 years ago the enemies of Jesus Christ thought they had made an end of His life. They had crucified Him and laid Him away in a tomb. It seemed final. But on that first Easter Christ arose and His promise is, "He that liveth and believeth in Me shall never die."

A new day—A new life! "Behold I make all things new."

Alfred H. Coggins With 24th Division In Japan

WITH THE 8TH ARMY IN JAPAN, March 7—Private Alfred H. Coggins, son of Mr. Ennis Coggins of Speedwell, was recently assigned to the 19th Infantry Regiment, a unit of the 24th Infantry Division. The 24th Division, known as the "Victory" Division, is occupying the Island of Kyushu, southernmost of the Japanese home islands. Coggins entered the Army in August, 1946 at Richmond, Virginia. After taking basic training at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, he was transferred to Camp Stoneman, California for assignment to duty in Japan.

Upon his arrival at the 24th Division, Coggins found many improvements under construction. In an effort to make life overseas equal to that of soldiers stationed in the United States, the "Victory" Division has furnished its men with modern living quarters and the best recreational facilities available.

Temporary grazing crops in Wayne county got off to a good start in the early fall, but recent cold weather has completely stopped with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Allison. Miss Allison is a member of the senior class of the high school division of the college.

Joe Evans, a student of N. C. State college, Raleigh, spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Evans.

BILL WOULD BAR POLLUTION OF TUCKASEEGEE RIVER

Elmore Of Swain Seeks To Clear River Of Waste From Plants Here

Legislation to prohibit the pollution of the Tuckasegee river has been introduced in the lower house by Rep. Bruce Elmore of Swain county.

Under its provision, it would be unlawful after January 1, 1950 for any person, firm, or corporation to discharge into Tuckasegee river or any of its tributaries any odoriferous waste materials harmful to fish life.

The Elmore bill reads:

Whereas, the Tuckasegee river, which feeds the Fontana dam in Western North Carolina, constitutes an area of scenic beauty which attracts many visitors; and

Whereas, said river and its tributaries normally abound in fish life; and

Whereas, the discharge of odoriferous and other waste materials into said river and its tributaries has resulted in the killing of fish, discoloration of water, and has otherwise impaired the value of said river as a natural resource and place of beauty; and

Whereas, it is in the best interests of the people of this state that we conserve our natural resources and regions of scenic beauty of which we are so justly proud:

Section 1. After the first day of January, 1950, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to discharge or cause to be discharged into the Tuckasegee river or any of its tributaries any odoriferous waste materials, waste materials which are harmful to fish life, materials which discolor the water, or any other materials which may otherwise pollute the said river or any of its tributaries.

Section 2. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.
