Legion Auxiliary Has Party For Children

On Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock the American Legion auxiliary sponsored a party and egg hunt for the children, including pre-school children through the third grade. Several features of entertainment had been planned.

In the egg hunt John David Stovall found the prize egg in the pre-school group, and Ben Cathey was the lucky finder in the school age group. Both were given baskets filled with bunnies and eggs.

A puppet show, "The Three Wishes," was presented by a group of older children who were Audrey Jane Jones, Gail Webber, Jimmy Stovall, Kenneth Gillis, and Robert Allison. Kenneth Sutton manipulated a monkey which furnished much amusement for the little folk.

The children vied for rides on Edward Sumner's pony so that Mrs. Harry Ferguson and Tommy Ferguson brought out their horses and joined in the fun by letting them ride the horses.

Other boys helping were Pat Montague, Dicky Wilson, Herrin Cabe, and a number of the boy scouts.

Light refreshments were served the children.

A sum of $23.50 was raised to be added to the fountain fund.

Town and Country

Suit

Navy and yellow belero costume

By VERA WINSTON

NAVY and yellow, a beautiful color combination that is in high style, is used for this nice belero costume, good for town or country wear. The fabric is pure linen in a soft shade of yellow, and the navy blue appears for the patent leather belt on the dress, and the ball buttons for the bolero. The dress is utterly plain with deep-un-back, sleeveless, and with a round neckline. The draped patch pockets of the skirt are the focal point of the costume. The crisp little bolero that gives the casual dress a civilized look, has a rolled collar, and the short sleeves are pointed up by buttoned-down turn-back curved flaps.

WEIGHT DOWN TO 90 LBS.; REGAINS 25 ON RETONGA

Was Forced To Live On Soft Foods And Could Scarcely Walk A Block, Declares Mr. Stevens. Retonga "Did A Grand Job," He States

"Almost a year ago Retonga brought me wonderful relief when I was forced to live on soft food. My weight was down to ninety pounds and I could hardly walk a block. I still feel I need Retonga as always my stand-by," gratefully states Mr. John H. Stevens, well-known resident of 32 Hoyt St., S. W. Atlanta, Ga.

"I don't see how anyone could suffer more from nervous indigestion," continued Mr. Stevens. "Even after eating soft foods I often felt bloated as tight as a drum and was pressed against my chest."

"I could hardly breathe. I was so high-strung restful sleep was almost impossible. My weight kept dropping and I had to take a strong purgative almost every night, but still I felt chock full of toxic poisons and often every muscle in my body seemed to ache."

"Retonga gave me almost unbelievable relief. I soon ate anything I wanted, regained twenty-five pounds and felt stronger than I was expected to feel. I still feel like a different man. Retonga did a grand job in my case."

Retonga is a purely herbal stomach medicine combined with liberal quantities of Vitamin B-1 and is able to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Sylva Pharmacy.—Adv.
