Mr. and Mrs. Parris Given Surprise Anniversary Party

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Parris were honored on their forty-second wedding anniversary at a surprise party at their home in Addie, Wednesday, April 23, by Mrs. Jimmy Morris, Mrs. Isaac Brooks, and Mrs. T. J. Mermillo.

Mr. Parris, away at his regular employment, Mrs. Parris was purposely called to a neighbor's house. When she returned home about thirty minutes later, she found to her surprise the hostesses and invited guests assembled in the living room. She was then presented a number of lovely and useful gifts.

Mrs. Parris and friends were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table, covered with an imported linen cloth, had for its centerpiece a two-tiered wedding cake decorated in pink and green with the words, "42nd Anniversary, Eva and John." With the cake were served congealed fruits, punch, and nuts.

Enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Parris were, Mrs. Georgia Mae Cogdill, Mrs. Mollie Fisher, Mrs. Gladys Henson, Mrs. Hattie Morris, Mrs. Bob Holden, Mrs. Birdell Terrell, Mrs. Rachel Jones, Mrs. Bessie Jones, Mrs. Helen Brown, Mrs. Sara Sue Robinson, Mrs. Mae Bryson, Miss Ollie Snyder, Mrs. Delois Snyder, Mrs. Emma Bryson, Mrs. Essie Mull, Mrs. Virginia Mull, Mrs. Martha Bryson, Mrs. Ruth Newton, Mrs. Beulah Bennett, Mrs. Willie Fisher, Mrs. Edna Lowe, Mrs. Lucy Green, Mrs. Audrey Springer, Mrs. Edna Crawford, Mrs. Lettie Parris, Mrs. Edith Jones, Mrs. Wilma McDuffie, Miss Florence Parris, Miss Betty McClure, Miss Ruby McClure, Mrs. Helen Brooks, Mrs. Lucille Allman, and Mrs. Mermillo, Mrs. Brooks, and Mrs. Morris.

Mrs. Cope Entertains For Daughter

On her seventh birthday anniversary Betty Ann Cope was given a birthday party by her mother, Mrs. Bart Cope, Monday afternoon at which time members of her class at school were guests. Mrs. Emily Tompkins supervised the playing of several games. In a guessing game Betty Ann's youngest brother, Kenneth, kept the children guessing longer than any one else.

At the conclusion Mrs. Cope served the class ice cream, cookies, and candy. Every one had a good time.

Mrs. Elizabeth Davis Is Honoree At Shower

Mrs. Frances Bradley entertained with a shower for Mrs. Elizabeth Clayton Davis at the home of Mrs. James T. Davis Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Games were played and later a salad course was served by the hostess. Mrs. Davis received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Whitted Entertains HDC Group

Mrs. Gordia Whitted entertained the Glenville Home Demonstration Club at her home on Monday afternoon, with eighteen members present. Miss Helen Sossamon, home agent, gave a demonstration on roll making. Following the demonstration a social hour was held. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Bessta Bryson Celebrates Birthday

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Jennings Bryson entertained a number of girls honoring her daughter, Bessta, on her eleventh birthday.

Included in the entertainment of the guests were a relay race, fortune telling, and a number of other games and contests. The seven girls on the winning side in the relay race were given prizes. Others winning prizes were Shirley Hartmann and Earlene Hurst.

The children were invited to the dining room where a color scheme of pink and white had been carried out. The birthday cake formed the centerpiece.

The cake was served with ice cream which further emphasized the color note.

Girls making up the guest list were Mary Mason, Leah Sutton, Janice Holden, Audrey Jane Jones, Linda Moody, Carolyn Moore, Edith Moore, Wanda Blanton, Anne Cathey, Sarah Lou Cagle, Shirley Hartmann, Rachel Karp and Earlene Hurst.

Savannah PTA Has Annual Study Course

The Savannah Parent-Teacher association held its annual study course in an all-day meeting at the school house Friday, April 24, beginning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. R. U. Sutton and Mrs. W. Q. Grigg were in charge of the study. The association and leaders were delighted with the attendance of twenty-five members present. Mrs. Roger Dillard was chairman in charge of the meeting.

Following the study course officers for the association for the school year 1947-48 were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Frank Cagle; vice-president, Mrs. James Brogden; secretary, Mrs. Joan Barrett; treasurer, Mrs. Bragg Allison.

At the conclusion of the meeting parents of the children to take part in the program of the school to be given Tuesday, May 13, were given detailed instructions on the making of the costumes.

Lunch was served in the school lunch room.

Savannah 4-H Members Observe Breakfast Demon.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Savannah 4-H club meeting Miss Helen Sossamon, county leader of the group, discussed and prepared a typical balanced breakfast of the lesson with the girls of the organization. Mr. Snipes, farm agent in charge of the work with the boys, held an open forum on the farm work engaged in by them.

Prior to the demonstration and forum the group repeated the club pledge and motto, and then the program committee presented a short play on Vitamin C.
