

16 Cents Is Penalty Rate For Burley Grown In Acreage Excess

The official penalty rate per pound for Burley tobacco grown in excess of actual farm acreage allotment for 1947 is 16c per pound, according to information received by D. C. Higdon, chairman of Jackson County AAA. Any farmer growing tobacco who does not have an allotment should report to the County office so that his acreage can be measured and turned in to the State office. All acreage must be measured before a marketing card can be issued. All Burley tobacco acreage measuring will be done in this county within thirty days, if possible.

W. C. ALLISON TAKEN BY DEATH SUNDAY

Ute Hyatt, Bryson City; one brother, C. L. Allison, Sylva; one half brother, Fred Allison, Waynesville; one half sister, Mrs. Wallace McCracken, Soda Springs, Idaho; his stepmother, Mrs. Blanche M. Allison; nine grandchildren and one great grandson. Pallbearers were John L. Hooper, Bailey Whitt, Jack C. Allison, C. Howard Allison, V. V. Ensley, Edwin Allison, Moody Hyatt and Charles Ensley, all nephews of the deceased.

Honorary pallbearers were members of the John McLain Bible class of the Sylva Methodist Sunday school.

Mr. Allison, a native of Jackson county, was a member of one of the pioneer families of the county. He lived at Barker's Creek until about 25 years ago when he and his family came to Sylva and have since made their home at Mountain View Farm. He was an active member of the Methodist church until a short time ago when he became ill.
