O'DEAR AND MESSER TRIAL STARTS TODAY

Ross Bennett, pleads guilty to driving drunk, $50 and cost, 90 days suspended, and license to drive revoked for 12 months.
Grady Woodard, pleads guilty to transporting $100 fine and cost, two years suspended road sentence.
Carter McCoy, pleads guilty to simple assault, taxed with the cost of the case.
Haywood Men Go To Roads
B. E. Caldwell and Bobbie Caldwell and Raymond Green, of Haywood county, charged with larceny by entering a store at Tuckasegee last fall and carrying away over $100 worth of goods. Green, under bond of $1000, failed to appear. The two Caldwells pleaded guilty and were sentenced by Judge Bobbit to serve 90 days on public roads of the state.
This completed the work for the regular jury Monday and they were dismissed until 9:30 Tuesday morning.

True Bill Found
The Grand Jury came into court in a body at 2:55 p. m. Monday with a true bill of murder against Robert Messer and Earl O'Dear. Defense attorneys immediately demanded a special jury be drawn for the trial of the two charged with the murder of Jack Hall and his wife, who were found beaten to death at a lonely spot on the old Hillsboro-Sylva road Monday morning, April 21. After hearing the argument the Court decided that the jury for the O'Dear and Messer trial would be drawn from Macon county. The court ordered that 150 men be summoned to appear at the Jackson county court house at 2 o'clock Thursday from which a jury of 12 will be selected to hear the case.

The court continued this session Tuesday morning at 9:30. The court was underway immediately and cleared up a few of the misunderstandings of Monday and then carried on to clear the following cases: Gomer Watkins pleads guilty to carrying a concealed weapon, sentenced to 30 days on roads. Court confiscated the pistol.

Ernest Lyons, charged with driving drunk, pleads guilty and is fined $50 and the cost, 90 days suspended and not to drive a motor vehicle for 12 months.

Cole Burch, Jr., charged with unlawful possession and transportation of liquor, sentenced to serve four months on roads.

Fred Nicholson, Aubrey Cope, Jeff Broom, Jr., charged with larceny of meat from a Mr. Parker and C. G. Middleton on Caney Fork. Fred Nicholson pleads guilty. Cope and Broom plead not guilty. After hearing the evidence Judge Bobbit sentenced Nicholson and Cope to 18 months on the roads, and because of Broom's mental and physical condition the judge gave him only 12 months.

A. C. Moses, charged with driving drunk on two counts, plead guilty through his attorney, John M. Queen, and was fined $100 and cost.

W. H. Bumgarner, violating prohibition laws, fine $100 and cost.

Weekly SERMONET

By REV. A. RUFUS MORGAN

As we sit and watch the graduation exercises we note the attractive dress of the marshals, the premature caps and gowns of the graduating class, the serious concern of parents, teachers, speakers, and children. It is a colorful occasion, long to be remembered. This is the time for which we have worked and it is proper that a display should be made of it.

But some figures take our mind from the beauty of the occasion and cause us to wander. Seventy-odd graduating from high schools when four hundred-odd enter the first grade. What have we done with that other more than seventy five per cent of the first grade? What chance have they in life? What chance did they ever have? Part of the number is made up of the physically unfit. And we are so afraid to spend enough to look after their health. When the government appropriation for lunch rooms failed how many communities determined to keep them open in spite of everything? And the District Health Unit has not enough appropriation to do a creditable job for any five counties.

Then there are the mentally incapable. Some of it is beyond the ability of society to control. But the greater part of it could be eliminated. If we did not put at the top of our list of freedoms the freedom of the unfit to reproduce we could surely go a long way toward the remedy of this weakness.

The mind still wanders. And we remember visits to the country schools, over the wintry roads almost impassable, to buildings and equipment which are not an incentive to any child to continue long after the beginning year. This says nothing as to what is given the child even under normal conditions of school life. As we watch the commencement we wonder how much has been done to open up the possibilities of life, not for these graduates, but for the first graders and on up. In school, at home, at church, the child is the most sacred trust committed to all of us. It is not only in the school. It is every time and every place we do or may come in contact with the child or with the forces which affect his possibilities.

MORGAN SAYS RETONGA IS FAR AHEAD

Regains Several Pounds On Retonga And Eats And Sleeps Like A Different Person

"I never in my life found a medicine as splendid as Retonga," declares Mr. Harley D. Morgan, well-known resident of 247 Riverview Drive, West Asheville, N. C., in adding his name to the thousands praising this famous herbal stomachic and Vitamin B-1 medicine.

"What food I ate seemed to turn to gas in my stomach and often I felt so bloated I could hardly breathe," continued Mr. Morgan. "No matter what I ate I seemed to suffer just the same, and I got so I was afraid to eat anything. I rarely ever could sleep more than a few hours at night. I seemed unable to have a bowel movement unless I took a laxative. I lost 20 pounds and felt so weakened that it seemed like a heavy load just to carry my body around."

"Retonga beats any medicine I ever saw. It relieved me so remarkably I have a fine appetite and eat anything I want. I have already regained several pounds. I sleep like a child, the constipation is relieved, and I feel stronger and better than in years. I hope my statement will help others get the same wonderful relief Retonga gave me."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Sylva Pharmacy.—Adv.
