SANITARIAN SEEKS COOPERATION FOR CLEAN SWIMMING

The Sylva Municipal Swimming Pool is now undergoing repair and being put into first class shape prior to its opening, scheduled for Saturday, May 31. Operators, Jimmy Keener and Hal Wilson are busy cleaning up, painting and scrubbing. The City authorities have engaged a plumber to open drains, repair pumps and restore the chlorinator to proper working order. A test kit is being purchased that will enable the operators to keep a constant check on the disinfectant content of the swimming water. The authorities are making sincere efforts to do their part in operating a safe and sanitary pool for the community. An educational program is being introduced to the boys and girls by the Health Department, through various junior organizations in an attempt to teach the children to appreciate the privilege of being able to use a supervised pool. Mimeographed copies of "Personal Regulations," as recommended by the United States Joint Committee are being distributed to the Boy Scouts, Royal Ambassadors, Camp Fire girls and similar organizations. Leaders and Supervisors of such groups can do much to promote an appreciation for sanitation with the individual and thereby gain the desired cooperation in making our city pool a safe and clean place in which to swim.

A copy of the regulations are printed here. Parents of all children who use the pool can aid by talking these regulations over with their children.

Personal Regulations

1. All persons using a swimming pool must be required to take a cleansing shower bath in the nude, using warm water and soap, and thoroughly rinsing off all soap suds, before entering the pool room or enclosure. A bath after donning a bathing suit should not be permitted.
2. A bather leaving the pool or enclosure for any reason should take a foot bath before returning. A bather leaving pool to use toilet should be required to take a second cleansing bath before returning.
3. All bathers should be instructed to use the toilet and particularly to empty the bladder before taking cleansing bath and entering the pool.
4. Any person having any skin disease, sore or inflamed eyes, cold, communicable disease must be ex-nasal or ear discharges, or any cluded from a public swimming pool.
5. Persons having any considerable area of exposed sub-epidermal tissue, open blisters, cuts, etc., should be warned that these are likely to become infected and advised not to use the pool.
6. Spitting, spouting of water, blowing the nose, etc., in the pool should be strictly prohibited. Bathers should be instructed that the scum gutter is provided for expectoration.
7. All bathers should be instructed that blowing the nose to remove water is likely to force infectious matter into the sinus and inner ear cavities and possibly cause serious consequences.
8. Divers should be advised to wear rubber caps over the ears or to plug the ears with greased cotton to prevent infection of the ear drum and passages by water forced in by concussion.
9. No boisterous or rough play, except supervised water sports should be permitted in the pool, on the runways, diving boards, floats, platforms, or in dressing rooms, shower rooms, etc.
10. Suitable placards embodying the above personal regulations and instructions and those relating to suits and towels should be conspicuously posted in the pool room or enclosure and in the dressing rooms and offices at all swimming pools. At a number of boys' club pools the boys are required to memorize the rules for safety and sanitation as a prerequisite to use of the pool.

STATE COLLEGE HINTS TO FARM HOMEMAKER

By VERA STANTON Assistant State Agent

Flour and feed bags have long been used by thrifty rural housewives for making house dresses, aprons, and children's clothes, bedspreads, draperies, luncheon cloths and towels. The first step in using one of these bags is to remove the black printed letters that labeled it, and textile specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture list the following directions:

1. Scrub bags with hot water and laundry soap. This often removes nearly all the ink. The rest usually disappears if bags are boiled in soapy water for half an hour and rinsed. A chlorine bleach may be used to take out the last traces of black.
2. Wet a bar of laundry soap and rub on the dry bag until it is entirely covered with a thick layer of soap. Roll up the bag and let it stand several hours. Then wash and boil if necessary.
3. Soak the bag in kerosene overnight. Then wash — first in lukewarm water, then in soapy water — and rinse thoroughly.
4. Cover the black print with lard or soft petroleum jelly, rubbing the grease into the fabric thoroughly. Leave overnight to loosen the black, then wash in cently reported by plant scientists
5. Boil bags in water with sodium hydrosulphite or other dye removers, which may be purchased at drug stores. Follow directions given on the package. Rinse well.

A generous serving of fresh strawberries will, on the average, supply the recommended daily quota of Vitamin C, a study reported by the U. S. Department of Agriculture shows.
