Harry Hastings Named Valedictorian At Blue Ridge School

Harry Hastings, son of Mrs. H. R. Hastings, had the honor of being named valedictorian of the senior class at the Blue Ridge School for Boys in Hendersonville. At graduation exercises on Tuesday morning he spoke on "Modern Pioneers."

Harry attended school at Sylva High until two years ago when he entered Blue Ridge school. Here he has been an outstanding student in both his academic work and extra curricular activities.

Mrs. Hastings and Mrs. Oris Holman went over Tuesday for the graduating exercises. Harry accompanied them home and will be with his mother for the summer months.

Mrs. Chester Harris Will Open Kindergarten

Mrs. Chester Harris will open a kindergarten next Monday morning in her apartment in the Sylva Hotel. She will accept children from 3 1-2 years to school age, depending on their emotional readiness.

The children will register Friday and Saturday of this week so regular activities may start Monday.

The school will be located in Apartment 4 and there is a rear entrance, so the children will not have to go through the hotel.

Beginning, Mrs. Harris will have her hours from 9-12 o'clock in the morning, but if conditions warrant, she will also have a class from 2-5 in the afternoon.

Provisions will also be made to care for children of summer visitors for short periods of time, as well as children whose mothers want an afternoon or day away from home.

Mrs. Harris is a graduate of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and has taught kindergarten and first grade in the public schools of North Carolina for 11 years.

Institute For Home Service American Red Cross

An institute for representatives of Chapters of American Red Cross for Cherokee, Swain, Graham, Clay, Andrews, Jackson, Canton, Mitchell, Avery, Transylvania, and Polk will be held in Sylva beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. on Monday, June 9, and close at 4 p. m. June 13.

This is an institute for Home Service work and each chapter is asked to send one or more representatives to take this course.

Headquarters will be at the Carolina Hotel, in Sylva. Institute will be conducted in the assembly hall on second floor of the hotel. Anyone interested in this branch of the Red Cross will be welcome to attend the meeting.

Veterans no longer have to hold their National Service Life Insurance term policies with Veterans Administration one year before converting them to permanent plans; they may convert immediately under present laws.

HAD A LITTLE TOO MUCH PARTY

IT WAS A SWELL PARTY while it lasted, but just a little too much for Georges Edouard Green, three-months-old, of Boston. He was one of a number of children of overseas wives and ex-GI husbands attending an affair held at the International Institute, Boston. (International)

WCTC Students To Attend University In Cuba

Five students of Western Carolina Teachers College will attend the University of Havana, Cuba, for a six weeks summer school session. They are: Paul and Clarence Heaton of Andrews, Lynwood H. Halliburton of Hamlet, Ralph Williams of Monroe, and Sylvester H. Acock, Freemont. All will return to WCTC next fall except Halliburton who will proceed to Washington State College where he has been given a fellowship award. He will teach in the department of Political Science while working on his Master's degree.
