American Legion Drops Double-Header Sunday

The Sylva American Legion ball club suffered defeat in both ends of a double-header at Andrews Sunday afternoon, 14-5, 6-4.

Sylva got off to a bad start in the 1st inning of the first game when pitcher Rector was blasted from the box with 11 runs. Lee led the Sylva team at bat with 2 hits for 3 trips to the plate while Anderson hit 4 for 4 for Andrews.

The second game showed better baseball with Cunningham on the mound. It looked as though Sylva was out to win until the sixth inning when errors put Cunningham in the hole and Andrews came ahead 6-4. Cunningham gave Andrews only 7 hits while his teammates collected 13. Anderson again led Andrews at bat with 2 for 3 while Rector led Sylva with 3 for 4.

Sylva will meet Murphy on the Mark Watson field Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Sylva has two wins over Murphy this season, so a good game is expected.

Members Of Sylva MYF Attend Sub-District Meeting At Cherokee

Six members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from Sylva Methodist Church attended the regular sub-district meeting of the Youth Fellowship in Chapel Oak Church, Cherokee, Monday night. Features of the program were stories about the Cherokees and some illustrations of speaking and singing in the Cherokee language. Groups of young people attended from Bryson City, Cullowhee, and Cherokee, in addition to Sylva.

Miriam Wolf, president of the Chapel Oak MYF, was in charge of the program after a short business session. Three Methodist hymns sung in Cherokee opened the program, followed by seven young people who gave short speeches on Christian attributes in a Ladder of Progress. A story of John G. Burnett, who was one of the Cherokee Indians' best friends in the nineteenth century, was read by Mrs. E. W. Sutor. Priscilla Sneed and Mrs. Jessie Fuller then sang a duet.

Recreation, under the direction of Mrs. Jessie Sniegocki, consisted of a radio quiz program in which Dr. I. Q., Mrs. Sniegocki, gave pennies and candy to contestants in the audience. Later cookies and cold drinks were served.

Others taking part in the program besides those already mentioned were Lavenia Chiltoskie, Frieda Smith, Pauline Cooper, Betty Jane Owl, Watty Jack George, Shan George, Nicky Jack George, Mrs. Addie Hornbuckle, Israel Hornbuckle, and Mrs. Anita Larch. Sylva young people who attended were Rachel Sutton, Mary Bess Henry, Jacqueline Holden, Loquita Holden, Quay Grigg, and John Gibson.
