Mrs. Monteith and Miss Monteith Entertain At Tea

About 150 friends called Saturday afternoon when Mrs. H. E. Monteith and daughter, Miss Mary Kathryn Monteith, entertained with a tea from 3-6 o'clock at their home on College Hill.

The house, decorated with summer flowers, formed a lovely setting for the occasion. Pink and white roses and sweet peas were used in the living room. The guests were greeted at the front entrance by the hostesses. Miss Agnes Wilson invited them into the dining room where blue delphinium, pink larkspur, baby's breath and ferns arranged in a crystal basket, formed the centerpiece on the table, from which punch was served by Mrs. Kermit Bumgarner. Pink and white ice cream and individual cakes iced in white with the words, "Mary-Bill, June 27," written in green, were served by Mrs. Dan Bryson Hooper and Mrs. Leo Cowan. These cakes announced the date of the marriage of Miss Monteith to Bill Hupman of Mebane.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. J. F. Corbin, Mrs. T. O. Wilson, Mrs. W. J. Fisher, Mrs. Claude Campbell, and Mrs. Porter Scroggs. Several pre-nuptial courtesies have been planned for Miss Monteith. On Thursday evening of this week Miss Dorothy Mae McKee will entertain with a miscellaneous shower.

Cope Creek 4-H Club Has Meeting With Mrs. Watson

The Cope Creek 4-H club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Johnny Watson, one of the neighborhood leaders, with Mrs. Bill Wilson as co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Hattelen Frizzell, and after a short business session, she gave a demonstration in the making of yeast rolls by a quick-rise receipt.

The hostesses served refreshments to the group and the demonstration was completed with the serving of the hot rolls.

Twenty members were present as well as the neighborhood leaders and county home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Evelyn Coward Honored At Parties

Mrs. Evelyn Coward, who has just retired after 43 years of active service as a teacher, has been the honored guest at several parties given by friends at Cullowhee.

On Wednesday evening of last week A. C. Hoyle, principal of Cullowhee high school, and Mrs. Hoyle and Miss Cordelia Camp, supervisor of teacher training, were hosts at a buffet supper in the dining room of the Home Economics department of the school. As the guests were served they found their places at small tables, each centered with a vase of roses.

Mrs. Coward was given a gift of sterling from the hosts and fellow teachers. Sharing honors at this party were Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus G. Phillips. They were given a beautiful volume of favorite poems and quotations.

Those attending besides the guests of honor were Miss Annie Knotts, Mrs. Parker B. Rand, Miss Edyth Walker, Miss Fannie Goodman, Mrs. J. D. Morgan, Mrs. Clair Olson, Mrs. Tommy Ellis, Miss Phyllis Cagle, Miss Kathleen Davis, Miss Nelle Bond, Miss Leonora Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Killian, and Paul Murphy.

On Thursday evening Miss Leonora Smith, director of primary education at W.C.T.C., entertained with a dinner party at Sunset Farms as a courtesy for Mrs. Coward. Her guest list included Miss Fannie Goodman, Miss Annie Knotts, Miss Nelle Bond, Miss Kathleen Davis, Mrs. Carl Killian, and Mark Reed, III.

Mrs. Bryson Entertains Halcyon Club Members

The Halcyon Club held its June meeting with Mrs. Aliney Bryson on Wednesday, June 4. Mrs. Claude Campbell presided at the business session, during which the club cancelled a former motion and voted to give a $50 scholarship at W.C.T.C. each year to some Jackson County boy or girl, the recipient to be determined by the dean of the college and a representative of the club, Mrs. Juanita Davis. Two hundred dollars was turned over by the club to the high school band fund.

Miss Helen Sossamon, program chairman for the meeting, introduced Miss Annie Louise Madison, who entertained the members by telling several Uncle Remus stories. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The next meeting of the Halcyon Club will be held July 2 with Mrs. Cicero Bryson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Davis of Shelby are spending this week with Mrs. J. F. Freeze.

WIN HIGH SCHOOL HONORS—Lowaine Mashburn left, was valedictorian of the senior class of Cullowhee high school at the graduation exercises last week. Miss Doris Ensley right, was salutatorian. Miss Mashburn is the daughter of Mrs. Avery Mashburn and Miss Ensley is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ensley, of Cullowhee.
