W. O. W. Members To Spend Day In Smokies

On Sunday, June 15, at 8:30 a. m. members, wives, and children of the local Woodmen of the World Camp No. 560, are asked to meet at the W.O.W. hall to depart shortly after 8:30 a. m. to a designated place in the Great Smoky Mountains National park, where there will be Sunday School and preaching service, followed by a picnic dinner.

Every one is asked to bring sandwiches or whatever they wish for the picnic. Drinks will be furnished by the camp. After the lunch a parade of automobiles well decorated with W.O.W. colors will proceed to other parts of the Smokies.

All the Woodmen are urged to come and make it a big day.

CORRECTION

The veteran farmers' classes, which are under the direction of Mr. John F. Corbin, agriculture instructor at Sylva high school, are held in the agriculture building at Sylva high school, not in Waynesville as the Herald reported last week. The veterans are, however, going to Waynesville this Saturday morning to visit the test farm as one of the weekly field trips which have been planned for the summer.

Cartoon strip titled 'MUGGS AND SKEETER' by Wally Bishop. It shows two boys talking about baseball practice and scouting. One boy says, 'I'll bet anything that he's a baseball scout! Remember? He said he was just "scouting around" here!' The other boy replies, 'But who would he be scouting around here?' The first boy says, 'Effie, of course! He's probably heard about her square curve!' The second boy says, 'Gee, Muggs! Maybe you've got something there!' The first boy says, 'I know it! But we won't have it long if he ever gets a look at her super-sonic pitch!' The second boy says, 'Oh my!!'
