Hazelwood Downs American Legion Team 9-8 Sunday

The Sylva baseball club lost an exhibition game to Hazelwood Sunday 9-8. Sylva dropped a golden opportunity in the eighth inning. With the score standing 9-8 Sylva loaded the bases with no one out and failed to push in the run that would have tied the score. Most of Hazelwood's runs came because of the wildness of Brown, Sylva's pitcher. His wildness kept him in the hole throughout the entire game. Brown gave up only 10 hits to 12 collected by his teammates.

The second half of the Smoky Mountain Baseball league will get underway Sunday when Sylva will meet Franklin on the Franklin field.

Murphy dropped out of the league and was replaced by Marble.

Two new rules were added to the league at a meeting Monday night, (1) each team can play only players residing within its county. (2) games will be played on Saturday and Sunday instead of Wednesday and Sunday as they were the last half.

Attend the big 4th of July game on the Mark Watson field at 3 o'clock p. m. between Sylva and Hayesville-Hiwassee All Stars.

St. John's Girls' Camp Opens Eighth Season

WAYNESVILLE, July 1 (Special)—St. John's camp for girls will open its eighth season this week. Conducted under the auspices of the Sisters of St. Francis, it is open to girls six to fourteen years of age.

St. John's camp combines the active life of a camp with the comforts of a city home. An experienced staff of camp directors, including chaplain, physician and registered nurse, is in charge of the daily program. A graduate dietitian supervises the modern all-electric kitchen. Every effort is made to maintain health through correct diet, exercise and rest.

Dillsboro Lodge Honors Frank Jarrett At Special Joint Meeting

The race went on and on, on; As Bill became more cranky. The rider gave a rebel yell For he was no damyankee.

But Bill at last became quite weak And laid down on the floor; The rider kicked him in the ribs And loudly called for more.

The youth then asked the lodge if this

Was all the goat they had And some of them gave sickly grins And some of them got mad.

High in the East the Master sat A frown was on his brow; For this young man, this beardless youth, Had got his goat and how.

For Bill was done at rising sun, The butcher slashed his throat; And thus they say did R. F. J. Ride Junaluskee goat.

After Mr. Jarrett's poem, President Hunter, John L. Orr, and Clyde Jarrett complimented and congratulated the Eastern Star and Masonic Order on the splendid work which was being done at Greensboro in maintaining a home for aged people.

A quartet composed of Jennings Bryson, Dick Green, Cary Reed Snyder, and Robert L. Higdon sang two of Mr. Jarrett's favorite hymns, "Have Thine Own Way" and "Kneel at the Cross," accompanied by Miss Jeanne Barrett at the piano.

Mr. Jarrett was presented with a lovely and useful gift by Jennings Bryson in behalf of Dillsboro Lodge No. 459.

"Bless Be the Tie That Binds" was sung by the entire audience, and Mrs. Virginia Cox concluded the program with a very inspiring reading.

Bible School Finals Are Conducted At Cullowhee

The Cullowhee Baptist Church vacation Bible school came to a close last Sunday night with a well attended commencement program which got under way at 8 o'clock in the church auditorium. Under the principalship of the pastor, Rev. M. R. Osborne, Jr., the children were taken through the regular opening assembly program of worship, and then each department of the school was recognized for a contribution which included songs, memory verses and stories. The exercises were climaxed with the presentation of certificates of perfect attendance to thirty-six pupils, almost all of whom had braved the unpleasant Sunday evening weather in order to be present. R. D. Phillips, Sunday School superintendent, delivered the certificates.

Mr. Osborne reported to the congregation that out of 70 persons who had registered, sixty had met the requirements for enrollment and that an average attendance of 52.2 had been maintained. Teachers were Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. Charles Stevens, Mrs. Glen Hughes, Mrs. Ray Allison, Miss Carolyn Stillwell, and the minister of the church. Vacation Bible school was conducted for only one week this year, but by popular request plans are already under way for a return to the traditional two weeks' session, next summer.

The campers live in comfortable furnished quarters on St. John's campus. The girls swim, ride, and play tennis daily. The camp has an enrollment capacity of one hundred.

The camp lasts eight weeks from June 23 through August 16.

Special Courses For Renewing Teachers Certificates At WCTC

Special work is being done during the first summer session of Western Carolina Teachers College under Dr. Carl D. Killian and Miss Annie Knotts. The class "Child Growth and Development" has a group of eleven children enrolled in kindergarten who serve as a special laboratory for observation and study. Those taking the course are in-service teachers, and are enthusiastic about the help they are receiving. Thirty teachers are now enrolled in the class from all parts of this and other states.

In connection with this course is the course in abnormal psychology and mental hygiene, as well as a course in materials and methods in an activity curricula.

It has been thought that because of the tremendous interest in this course by the in-service teachers there is a possibility that the course will be repeated with slight variations in the second term.

One reason for this consideration is that the state legislature failed to continue the provision automatically keeping in force the certificates of teachers for the year 1947-48. The board of education ruled therefore that certificates be renewed either in the summer of 1947 or in the summer of 1948 in order to be in renewed force for 1948-49.

Dean Bird, summer school director, stated that if the teachers in the state are sufficiently interested in the continuation or repetition of the course set up for in-service teachers for the renewing of their certificates, the college will make every effort to provide the work during the second term of the summer. However, it is necessary for college officials to know the desire of the teachers in order to make plans. This should not be later than July 10, Dean Bird stated.

A total of 317 is now enrolled for the first summer session at WCTC. This is an increase over the 286 enrolled last year. However, there were about a hundred enrolled for refresher courses.
