Mrs. Fisher Is Hostess For Carrie Rhodes Circle

The Carrie Rhodes circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Gertrude Fisher as hostess on Monday evening. The home was beautifully decorated with summer flowers for the occasion. Mrs. Raymon Stovall, chairman, was in charge of the business session, during which plans were made for a circle picnic in July. Following the business session, the devotional was given by Mrs. O. D. Brookhyser and the program speaker was Rev. W. Q. Grigg, who spoke on "Summertime Recreation For Our Children."

Recreation under the direction of Mrs. Frank Fricks was enjoyed by all the members. The two contest winners were Mrs. O. E. Brookhyser and Dr. Patsy McGuire.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. C. Allison, and Mrs. F. M. Williams, served delicious refreshments of sandwiches, ice cream, cake, and tea to those present during the social hour.

Thirteen members and two guests attended the meeting.

Mr. Henry is a graduate of Waynesville high school and attended W.C.T.C. He is a veteran of World War II, having served three years in the army.

Business Woman's Circle Meets With Mrs. Cogdill

The Business Woman's circle of the Woman's Missionary Union met Monday night in the home of Mrs. Ray Cogdill. During the business session which opened the meeting, the members voted to name the circle the Gay Nell Murray Circle, in honor of Mrs. J. Gray Murray who organized the circle.

The program which followed the business session was under the direction of Mrs. Jesse Buchanan, president of the circle. The program topic was "China."

The hostess, Mrs. Cogdill, served a delicious salad course and cinnamon buns to the seventeen members who were present during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyle Nash of Celina, Tenn. have returned home after spending a few days with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Hooper.

Mr. Neal Crawford of Asheville, former county agent here, spent this week-end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Parris.

The Child and Summertime Recreation.

The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Hicks Wilson, served a salad course.

Anne Buchanan Weds A. R. Treleven

Miss Anne Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ramsey Buchanan, formerly of Sylva, now of Harriman, Tenn., became the bride of Alexander Raymond Treleven, son of Prof. and Mrs. Clifford L. Treleven of Columbia University, New York, at high noon June 14, at Harriman Methodist church. Rev. S. O. Frye, pastor of the bride, read the marriage vows, using the single ring service.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and shasta daisies, garlands of huckleberry and Oregon fern, interspersed with floor standards bearing white tapers. A touch of color was added by pink satin bows tied to the candelabra.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Bennett Stowers, Sr., organist, and Mrs. Ralph Gilliland, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and a full skirt ending in a long train. Her two tiered veil of imported illusion fell from a coronet of Chantilly lace trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore at the sweetheart neckline a circlet brooch of 12 pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried an heirloom handkerchief of Honiton handmade lace, the gift of a friend. Her shower bouquet was made up of starlight roses, stephanotis and white orchids.

Mrs. Charles Goddard, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of pink point de esprit made with a fitted bodice and full, bouffant skirt, caught with bows of fuchsia at each side and with a midriff of fuchsia. Her headpiece was of fuchsia net and her flowers were Better Times roses in a cascade arrangement.

The bridesmaids were Miss Sara Buchanan, cousin of the bride of Hendersonville, N. C.; Miss Jeter Starr of Calhoun, Ga., roommate of the bride at Ward Belmont; Miss Frances Bird of Durham, roommate of the bride at Duke University; Mrs. John Seward (Til Paty) of Elizabethton, Zeta Tau Alpha sorority sister at Duke University. Their dresses were similar to that of the matron of honor and their flowers were cascade bouquets of larkspur, California godetia, and stock with fuchsia predominating. Beth Anna Goddard, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in pink net fashioned similar to those of the bridesmaids. Charles Goddard, Jr., was ring bearer and carried the ring in a calla lily.

Charles Aderholt of Long Island, New York, served as best man. The ushers were Ernest Shipman, of New York, Ramsey Buchanan, brother of the bride, James Waterhouse and Charles Goddard of Harriman.

Shown above are Mr. and Mrs. William Robert Hupman following their marriage at the Baptist church here at 11 o'clock Friday morning, June 27. Mrs. Hupman is the former Miss Mary Kathryn Monteith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Monteith of this city.
