

Civil Service Jobs Are Open, Application Forms At P. O.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission today announced examinations for filling Messenger and Photographer positions in Washington, D. C., and nearby Maryland and Virginia.

Persons appointed from the messenger examination will receive a salary of $1,690 a year. No experience is necessary to qualify, but all competitors must pass a written test. Sample questions are available. Messenger positions are restricted by law to persons entitled to veteran preference so long as such persons are available. Applications for this examination will be accepted until July 29, 1947 from persons not entitled to veteran preference; however, such persons will be considered for appointment only when preference eligibles are not available.

Persons appointed from the new photographer examination will receive salaries ranging from $2,168 to $3,397 a year. No written test is required. In order to qualify, applicants must have had experience, or a combination of experience and training in photographic work. For positions paying $2,644 and above, part of the experience must have been in one of the options (process photography or general photography).

Further information and application forms may be obtained from the Commission's Local Secretary, Mr. Picklesimer, located at Sylva, N. C., from first- and second-class post offices, from the Fourth Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Applications from all applicants for the Photographer ex-

On warm days, rise before the thermometer does, and you'll shine as a cook without getting all hot and bothered! Just serve dishes you can fix early in the morning and heat up at mealtime. Here are a few that will help you keep cool, calm . . . and collect compliments:

BEANS AT THEIR BEST

Add 1 tbsp. prepared mustard to 1 can ANN PAGE BEANS WITH PORK. Sauté 1 medium onion (finely cut) and 1 medium apple (unpeeled and chopped) in 1 tbsp. fat, and mix with beans. Bake in casserole in moderate oven, 375° F., 20 minutes. This recipe makes enough for 4 servings, but ANN PAGE BEANS make you want more . . . they're so tender and tasty. Better buy a few extra cans next time you're shopping at the A&P.

DANDY FOR "DOG DAYS"

It's never too hot for "hot dogs" at my house. I split them, spread the cut side with mustard, and fill with cubed American cheese. Then I wrap a piece of bacon around each one, fasten with a skewer and broil until the bacon is crisp and the cheese melted. Come roll call, I tuck them into toasted MARVEL FRANK FURTER ROLLS from the A&P, which are so fresh and delicious my family tucks them away by the dozen.

APPETITE BAIT

Fish is so light and digestible I serve it often in summer, varying the sauce like this: To 1 cup of medium white sauce I add a tsp. of ANN PAGE PREPARED MUSTARD or 10 to 15 sliced SULTANA OLIVES or a tsp. of ANN PAGE GARDEN RELISH. I always keep these thrifty "pepper-uppers" from the A&P on hand, so I'm never at a loss for a sauce.

ICY AND SPICY

Ice and spice make tea mighty nice . . . especially when it's as invigorating as the famous, Flavor-Tested teas sold only at the A&P: OUR OWN, NECTAR and MAYFAIR. Try serving one of these fine blends over spiced tea cubes made this way: Add 3 cups briskly boiling water to 1½ tbsps. tea, 1 tbsp. whole cloves and 3 lemon slices. Steep 3 to 5 minutes; strain; add ¼ cup orange marmalade. Freeze in ice cube trays, place in 5 glasses and pour freshly made tea over them.

WHAT A SHINE!

The Life Of Your Car . . .
