Miss Clark Becomes Bride of L. W. Nicar, Jr.

Miss Virginia Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clark of Gay, was married to L. W. Nicar, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Nicar, Sr., of Roanoke, Va., on Sunday evening, July 20, at the First Methodist church, Gainesville, Ga. The marriage was solemnized by the pastor, the Rev. L. M. Twiggs.

For her wedding the bride chose a white suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was of red rose buds centered with a white gardenia. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Nicar received her B.S. degree from Western Carolina Teachers College, Cullowhee, and has been employed in the public schools of Oak Ridge, Tenn., for the past two years.

Mr. Nicar is a graduate of the Andrew Lewis high school, Salem, Va., and attended the Ohio State University. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the Pacific theater of operations.

After a wedding trip through North Carolina and Virginia, the couple will make their home in Oak Ridge where Mrs. Nicar will be a member of the Fairview school faculty. Mr. Nicar is employed by Henebery's Jewelers.

Misses Wilson and Osterman Feted At Bridge

On Thursday evening Miss Agnes Wilson entertained at bridge as a courtesy for Miss Matilda Wilson and Miss Gladys Osterman of Melrose, Mass., who are spending a month with the former's father, and Mrs. Robert E. Allison.

The living room and dining room, where four tables were arranged for play, were decorated with bowls of gladioli, cosmos, shasta daisies, and marigolds.

The counting of scores showed that Mrs. Woody R. Hampton had made high score while Miss Matilda Wilson and Mrs. Rudy Hardy had tied for low score. In drawing Miss Wilson won and she and Mrs. Hampton were given prizes, and Miss Lela Moore Hall drew the lucky card for the Bingo prize. Guest prizes were given to the two guests of honor and to Mrs. Dan Townsend and Mrs. Lester Hollister of Haines City, Fla., friends of the hostesses who have been spending a few weeks in Franklin.

The hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Hicks Wilson, served a salad course.

Those playing were, besides the honor guests and prize winners, Miss Nancy J. Allison, Miss Rebecca Sue Cannon, Miss Lucile Wilson, Mrs. Clyde Rector, Mrs. Dan B. Hooper, Mrs. E. E. Tweed, Mrs. E. E. Bain, Jr., Mrs. James Myers of Bryson City, Mrs. F. M. Higdon of Franklin, and Mrs. Rudy Hardy.

Coming in later for refreshments were Misses Hattie Hilda Sutton and Mary Henson, Mrs. C. C. Williams, and Mrs. Frank Masie.

Propst—McLain Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Propst of Gadsden, Ala., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lillian Gladys Propst of Oak Ridge, Tenn., to James Allison McLain, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. McLain of Sylva.

Miss Propst is a graduate of Bowling Green Business University, Bowling Green, Ky. She is employed by the Montegante Chemical Company, Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Mr. McLain graduated from Sylva High school and served five years with the U. S. Navy. He was discharged in April, 1946, with the rank of Chief Petty Officer. He is now employed by the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, Oak Ridge, Tenn. The wedding will take place August 30 at the home of the bride's parents in Gadsden.

Miss Patton Is Wed To Mr. Huggins At Whittier

Miss Martha Patton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Patton of Whittier, was married to Wesley Harrell Franklin Huggins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrell Franklin Huggins of Chattanooga, Tenn., on Sunday, July 13, at 2 p. m. in the Whittier Methodist church.

The service was performed by the Rev. O. E. Thorne, pastor. The church was decorated with greenery forming an arch for the bride pair. Hydrangeas, two sever branched candelabra with lighted tapers, and a large basket of white magnolias, gladioli, and Queen Anne's lace made a lovely setting for the service.

Music was provided by Mrs. Mary Childers, pianist, and Mrs. Ava Lee McLean, vocalist. The traditional wedding marches were used and "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell was played during the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white nylon made with fitted bodice and full skirt and an imported lace collar. Her veil fell to finger-tip length from a small cap of seed pearls. Her bouquet was a purple throated orchid surrounded with white gladioli.

Mrs. J. C. Estes, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a dress of blue starched chiffon made with low neckline and full pleated skirt. She carried a nosegay of pastel gladioli, and her head dress was of tulle.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. M. O. Brockett of Chattanooga, Tenn., sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Margaret Jane Colville, and Mrs. Rena Maye Estes, all of Bryson City. Their dresses and nosegays were similar to that of the matron of honor.

Miss Judy Holl of Canton was flower girl. She wore a pink gown with rosebuds across her hair and carried rose petals in a pink basket. Ray Gibson of Whittier was ringbearer and Jimmie Estes of Bryson City and Pat Caldwell of Asheville were pages. They wore white suits.

The bridegroom had as his best man his father. Ushers were Paul Allen Huggins, Dale Laws Huggins, and Ralph Rogers Ward, uncles of the bridegroom, and Mal Oscar Brockett, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patton, brother and sister-in-law of the bride. The table was centered with a three-tiered cake, and white gladioli and white tapers were used in the decorations. Mrs. T. R. Osborne, sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

The bride's mother wore a sheer gray afternoon dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. The mother of the bridegroom wore a sheer black afternoon dress with a corsage of red roses.

The couple left later for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride changed into a white linen suit, using the orchid from her bride bouquet for her flowers. After a stay at Daytona Beach, Fla., they will reside at Chattanooga, Tenn.

The bride is a graduate of Sylva Central high school. The bridegroom attended Chattanooga high school and the university of Tennessee.

Miss Betty Stallcup of Whittier was maid of honor. She wore a pink, street length dress and a matching flower hat. Her corsage was pink roses. Mrs. James Barnwell, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a light blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

James Barnwell of Sylva was best man. Ushers were Gerald Garner of Sylva, and William Hensley of Black Mountain.

Mrs. Harris, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue sheer dress with white accessories. Mrs. Henry, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue dress with black accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip. On their return they will make their home in Waynesville.

Mrs. Henry is a graduate of Sylva High school and attended Western Carolina Teachers College. She is now employed in the First National bank of Waynesville.
