Vets Problems

Q—Can I go to school under the G. I. Bill while I am taking on-the-job training under the Act?

A—Yes, you can go to school under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (G. I. Bill) while you are taking on-the-job training if the school course is determined to be related to the on-the-job course. The government will pay your tuition.

Q—Will the government pay for tools and other equipment while I am taking on-the-job training under the G. I. Bill?

A—Yes, if the tools and other equipment are necessary for successful pursuit and completion of the course of training and is required by all trainees.

Q—I have been told that my pension will be reduced in 60 days. What can I do to prevent this reduction?

A—You may submit additional evidence to show that the reduc-

Blood Will Tell

FOR the first time in court history, the "RH blood factor" has been used as a basis for deciding a paternity case. After hearing the testimony of a scientist, Justice Jacob Panken (above), of the Brooklyn, N. Y., Family Court determined that blood tests had seemed to prove a husband whose name was veiled was not the father of his wife's child.

tion is not warranted.

Q—Must I show that I have had experience in business to get a guaranty of loan for business purposes?

A—The law provides "that ability and experience of the veteran, and the conditions under which he proposes to pursue such business or occupation are such that there is a reasonable likelihood he will be successful."

A Good Cook Doesn't Follow Every Recipe to the Letter

By BETSY NEWMAN

THERE is one thing that the bride learns gradually, and with great joy, and that is, that she doesn't have to follow a recipe slavishly. In minor matters such as flavoring, she can substitute some other for the one the recipe calls for, if she thinks it will taste better.

This goes for very simple, ordinary recipes to quite complicated ones. In milk pudding, for instance, which I made recently, I used vanilla, but you could have used lemon flavoring or grated lemon rind and fresh lemon juice, or almond, even peppermint, or chocolate or coffee. That is what I mean by a simple change.

As you grow more experienced you will also grow more venturesome and be able to produce individual dishes. So, you see, cooking is an art and an adventure, not just drudgery. Let me tell you some of the variations you can make in a simple baked custard.

Today's Menu Broiled Lamb Chops Boiled Potatoes Broiled on Broiler Buttered Carrots Lettuce, Radish and Green Onion Salad Baked Custard or Rice Pudding

Boiled Potatoes Broiled Cook potatoes until they are almost tender. New potatoes are best. When the lamb chops are nearly done, put the potatoes on the broiler with the chops and brown, turning to brown both sides if necessary. Serve with pan gravy from the chops.

Baked Custard 1/4 c. sugar 3 c. scalded milk 1/2 tsp. salt 3 or 6 eggs 1/4 tsp. nutmeg Beat eggs slightly, add sugar, salt and nutmeg. Scald milk and pour slowly on the egg mixture. Strain into buttered custard cups, set in a pan of hot water, and bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) until firm. Test as usual with a silver knife inserted into the custard. If it comes out clean, the custards are done. Or you can sprinkle nutmeg on top of custards when you pour them into the cups instead of mixing with eggs and sugar.

Limberneck in chickens is usually caused by chickens eating de-

Variations For Chocolate Custard, scald 1 1/2 squares chocolate with the milk. For cocoanut custard add 1/2 c. shredded cocoanut to mixture. Or scald 2 tbs. ground coffee with milk, strain and proceed as in first recipe. Ginger custard is nice, too, and more unusual. Flavor custard mixture with vanilla, and when ready to serve top with thin strips of Canton ginger.

For a Rice Custard, save the egg whites for meringue, add 1 c. cooked rice and grated 1/4 lemon to the custard; bake, then top with the whites of the eggs beaten stiff and slightly sweetened with powdered sugar and bake until brown. Berries or crushed fruit are nice for a topping to a plain custard or rice custard. Serves 6.

Rice Pudding 1/2 c. uncooked rice 2 c. milk 2 eggs, separated 1/2 tsp. salt 1/2 c. raisins Flavoring Cook rice over hot water in double boiler until grains are tender. Beat egg yolks, add sugar and salt to them and pour a small portion of the rice and milk over them; blend, then the rest of the rice and milk, return to double boiler and cook for 5 min. Add raisins and flavoring and fold in stiffly-whipped whites. Pour into pudding dish and serve hot or cold with cream.

layered material, usually of a protein nature.

Wait A Minute—Waste A Minute!

Did you have eggs for breakfast? Lots of people do—eggs taste good, they're good for you, and besides, they're quickly prepared when you're late for work and time is precious.

Lives are precious, too. In three minutes or so while your breakfast eggs were boiling, at least two pedestrians were killed or injured somewhere on the nation's highways—or maybe in your community. While you were eating, another ten or more met with disaster.

Chances are 3 to 1 those victims were in a hurry—they took the short way across the middle of the block, instead of the safe way at the crosswalk. They stepped out suddenly from behind a parked car, instead of looking both ways to see if the road was clear, or waiting until the traffic light turned green.

National Conservation Bureau safety specialists report that impatience is the nation's Number One highway killer. Time is precious—sure! But not enough to pay for it with a life.

Card Of Thanks

I want to thank each and every one for the sympathy and kindness and offerings that they gave us during the sickness and death of our father, Lewis Pressley. I want especially to thank the Zion Hill Baptist church, Farmers federation, and the W.O.W. camp of Sylva for the beautiful flowers. Monroe L. Wilson, Adopted son

Local Men Attend C. Of C. Meeting In Asheville

Speakers on the program were L. P. Dickie, of Atlanta, of the Southeast division of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce; W. Conant, of Washington, national affairs adviser to the S. Chamber of Commerce; and Brandon Hodges, Asheville attorney.

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well 24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

DOAN'S PILLS

There you have it in black and white—the way to avoid many a fatal accident. And this is equally true—it's not "safe to be a smart driver!"

The young driver who slouches over the wheel and goes twisting and roaring through traffic for his own self-satisfaction and the adulation of others is as out of date as a 1910 flivver.

More and more, new drivers-to-be are enrolling in driver instruction courses, to learn how to be safe and intelligent drivers. They are taught how to operate and control a car. They become familiar with traffic rules and regulations—and the penalties for violating these established rules of the road. They learn that it is really smart to be considerate and courteous to others.

Many communities are making these courses available through their schools today. If your son or daughter is coming of driving age, see to it that they take a driver instruction course. If there is not one available in your town, ask the school or police authorities how you can obtain instruction material.

Make young drivers safe drivers—right from the start.
