All Day Trip To Start At 9:30 A. M.; Will Visit Farm Projects in County

A Jackson county farm tour will be held on Wednesday, August 13, M. L. Snipes, county agent, announced this week. The tour will start from Emory McCoy's store in Glenville at 9:30 a.m. and go to Big Ridge where there will be a chance to inspect the farm of David Pruitt, including his farm water system, farm, house, hay crops, and beef cattle. Other stops on Big Ridge will include the Irish potato field of John D. Davis and the farm water system of Deitz Fowler.

Mr. Snipes suggests that everyone planning to make the tour bring a sandwich lunch to be eaten picnic style at Cullowhee. Stops in the Cullowhee-Speedwell area include the Frank Brown farm to inspect hybrid corn, the J. Steadman Mitchell farm to study pasture improvement, and the Henry L. Taylor farm to inspect a modern can house, beef cattle, sheep, and pasture improvement. There will also be a chance during the day to inspect strip cropping, forage crops, dairy cattle, and dairy equipment as well as to make other farm obestvations.

It is hoped that as many people operations.

Anyone desiring transportation for this tour should meet at the courthouse at 8:30 a.m. on the day of the trip, Wednesday, August 13 by ryone driving a car on the and having extra room is askedto please come by the courthouse so that those not having transportation may have a way to go.
