Wilson-Davis Wedding Party Feted After Rehearsal

Following the wedding rehearsal on Thursday evening, the aunts and cousins of the bride-elect, Miss Rebecca Ann Wilson, entertained at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Hooper with a buffet supper as a courtesy for the Wilson-Davis wedding party and out-of-town guests.

The entire lower floor, thrown together for the occasion, was decorated with a profusion of cut summer flowers.

In the dining room a color scheme of green and white was carried out. The table had for a centerpiece a large crystal swan, holding an arrangement of white gladioli, shasta daisies, Queen's Anne lace and dahlias. At either end were candelabra holding lighted white tapers.

Following the buffet supper, the table was arranged for the dessert course. Mrs. T. O. Wilson, mother of the bride-elect, poured coffee and Mrs. Thomas Davis, mother of the bridegroom-elect, served individual cakes, decorated in white and green.

Later in the evening the younger members of the group had a song-fest of love songs, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Grover Wilkes.

About 60 persons, including besides the wedding party and out-of-town guests, the members of the families of both the bride and bridegroom elects, attended the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morris of Newport, Washington, are spending a few weeks with his mother, Mrs. M. H. Morris, and brother, John H. Morris, and family.

Wesleyan Guild Met With Miss Barnett

On Monday evening the Wesleyan Service Guild met with Miss Martha Barnett at her home in the J. R. Long apartment. The president, Mrs. Gudger Fortner, presided and Mrs. T. C. Wilson opened the meeting with the devotional.

A buffet supper was served to the members, after which an important business session was held. The society voted to make a substantial donation to the new home economics room at Sylva High school. This money will be used to buy needed equipment.

Mrs. George Conrad was in charge of the program and was assisted by Miss Lucile Wilson and Mrs. J. H. Wilson. The subject discussed was various homes for children in different parts of the country that are maintained by the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist church.

Twelve members were present.

Mrs. Painter Hostess To Gay Nell Murray Circle

Mrs. George Painter was hostess for the August meeting of the Gay Nell Murray circle of the Baptist church at her home on Monday evening. The vice-president, Mrs. Carl Buchanan, presided over the business hour.

Mrs. Howard Ball was in charge of the program. She presented Mrs. W. T. Brown, guest from the Ruby Daniel circle, who gave an interesting program on China.

Mrs. Painter served a sweet course to the fourteen members present.
