Cabe-Pannell Nuptial Rites In Chapel Hill

Miss Joyce Cabe, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Cabe of Sylva and niece of Mrs. D. H. Clark of Gay, with whom she has made her home for several years, was married to Rufus Pannell of Chapel Hill and Franklin on Tuesday afternoon, July 22, in the Presbyterian church in Chapel Hill.

The Rev. J. Robert Nelson, assistant minister of the Chapel Hill Methodist church, performed the ceremony before an altar entwined with ivy, before which stood seven-branched candelabra with white tapers and baskets of white gladioli and white asters.

The wedding music was presented by David Brandt, organist, of Spencer, and John Von Cannon, soloist, of Concord. Before the ceremony Mr. Von Cannon sang "Because" by d'Hardelot, and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte was given as a benediction. The traditional wedding marches by Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride wore a white gabardine suit with blue and white accessories. Her hat, which was white with an illusion veil, was made with a halo effect about her head and blue flowers on the side. She wore a blouse of baby blue and had a corsage of gardenias attached to her white Bible.

Miss Dixie Mull, of Morganton, was maid of honor. She wore a blue gabardine dress with white accessories. Her flowers were yellow roses.

The bridegroom had as best man Ben Lilly Jamestown. Ushers were Harry H. Straus and Bill Livingston, both of Asheville.

The bride received her education at Webster high school and Pfeiffer Junior college at Misen-heimer and graduated from the University of North Carolina in June of this year. She will teach this year in Bells school near Chapel Hill.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pannell of Franklin, graduated from Franklin high school and Brevard Junior college. He is now a senior in the School of Commerce at the University of North Carolina.

Sylva people attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Coward, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hall and Bobby Hall, and from Franklin were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roper and Perry Hinson.

Mrs. Carter Honored At Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. S. R. Roane was hostess on Thursday at 1 o'clock at a bridge luncheon at her home in Whittier, as a courtesy to Mrs. A. H. Carter, who will leave shortly for a visit to Ireland and Germany. The house was beautifully decorated with roses and other summer flowers from the Carter gardens.

The luncheon was served from small tables which were later arranged for the bridge games. Mrs. Dan Allison was given the award for high score, Miss Frances Carter won the low score prize and the slam prize went to Mrs. Dan Moore. Others playing were Mrs. Carter, the honoree, Miss Hicks Wilson, Mrs. D. D. Hooper, Jr., Mrs. E. E. Tweed, Miss Evelyn Sherrill, all of Sylva, Mrs. R. L. Overstreet, Bedford, Va., Mrs. L. W. Eckstein, Noxen, Pa., Mrs. J. A. Parris, Jr., New York, and Mrs. Odell Bankhead, Chester, S. C.

Luncheon guests besides those playing were Mrs. F. L. Smith, of Whittier, and Miss Mildred Carter and Mrs. Frank Carter of Walthala, S. C.

Rebecca Ann Wilson Weds Thomas C. Davis

Miss Rebecca Ann Wilson, daughter of Mrs. T. O. Wilson and the late Mr. T. O. Wilson of Sylva, became the bride of Thomas C. Davis, son of Mrs. Thomas J. Davis and the late Thos. J. Davis of Waynesville, in a ceremony at the Sylva Baptist church on Friday evening, August 1, at 5 o'clock. Rev. C. M. Warren, pastor of the church, officiated.

The church was decorated with baskets of summer flowers in pastel shades and two seven-branched candelabra with lighted cathedral tapers. The choir rail was entwined with ivy and in each window was a lighted candle set in an arrangement of ivy.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Grover Wilkes, pianist, and Miss Barbara Bess and Dick Wilson, soloists. It included "Prelude" by Hueter, "O, Promise Me" sung by Miss Bess, and "Because" by d'Hardelot, by Mr. Wilson. The traditional wedding marches were used and "Clair de Lune" by Debussy was played during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Thomas C. Wilson, had chosen for her wedding dress a light blue crepe with which she wore white accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with a corsage of white orchids. Miss Lucile Wilson was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. Her dress was of cream crepe and with this she wore pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Fred E. Martin, Jr., of Waynesville, served as best man. Ushers were Joseph F. Wilson and Lewis C. Wilson of Sylva and William O. Wilson of Bryson City, brothers of the bride, and Joseph N. Tate, Jr., of Waynesville.

Mrs. Wilson, mother of the bride, wore a gown of light blue with white accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

Mrs. Davis, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a navy blue dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of talisman roses.

Mrs. Davis received her education at Sylva High school and is now employed with the Western Carolina Telephone Company.

Mr. Davis graduated from Waynesville high school in 1941. He served as radioman with the Naval Air Corps for three years, spending 18 months of this time in the South Atlantic. He is now employed with Davis Jewelers in Canton.

After a short wedding trip the couple are making their home in Sylva.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the wedding were Mrs. Davis, mother of the bridegroom, Miss Adelaide Davis, sister of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tate, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tate, Jr., Mrs. Fred Martin, Sr., Fred Martin, Jr., and Earl Rudasal, all of Waynesville; Miss Margaret Wilson, sister of the bride, Oak Ridge, Tenn.; W. O. Wilson, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Myers, and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Marsh, of Bryson City; Mrs. R. L. Overstreet, Bob, Ned and Mary Jane Overstreet of Bedford, Va.; Mrs. Lewis Eckstein, Lewis, Bill and Margaret Ann Eckstein of Noxen, Pa.; Mrs. O. O. Williams, Harriman, Tenn.; Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Hooper, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. Loyle Nash, Celina, Tenn.; Misses Matilda Wilson and Gladys Osterman, Melrose, Mass.; and Miss Chris Rucker, Shelby.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of gladioli and other summer flowers. The dining room table, covered with an imported cut-work cloth was decorated with ivy streamers with pink sweet-peas and roses dotted in among the greenery. Crystal candelabra with white tapers were placed in the center with the punch bowl at one end and at the other end was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

After the gride had cut the first slice, her sister, Miss Margaret Wilson cut the cake and another sister, Mrs. C. C. Williams, served the punch. Assisting in serving were Misses Nancy Owens, Nancy Ruth Allison, Arbara Sue Ensley, and Virginia Madison and Mrs. Kermit Bumgarner and Mrs. Kit Zachary.

Miss Barbara Jo Cook presided over the guest register and Mrs. D. D. Hooper, Jr., was in charge in the gift room. Others assisting in entertaining were the bride's aunts, Mrs. J. W. Keener, Mrs. D. D. Hooper, Mrs. E. L. Wilson, Sr., and Mrs. J. H. Wilson.

F. L. Smiths Entertain At Out-Door Supper

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Smith, who have recently purchased a home in Whittier and have just finished a number of improvements on the house and grounds, were hosts on Saturday evening to about 30 of their Whittier and Sylva friends. The supper was cooked on the open furnace and served out of doors, the cool evening breezes adding to the delightfulness of the occasion.

Following the bounteous supper, which was one of those good meals for which Mrs. Smith is so well known, the group enjoyed conversation and reminiscences by many old friends and visitors.

Tuckaseegee Association Will Hold Annual Session

On Thursday and Friday, Aug. 14 and 15, the Wilkesdale and East Sylva Baptist churches will be hosts for the 118th annual meeting of the Tuckaseegee Baptist association. On Thursday the meeting will be held at the Wilkesdale church and on Friday the session will be held at East Sylva, beginning at 10 o'clock each morning. The meetings will last all day with dinner on the ground each day.

A number of prominent visitors will be present. These will include representatives of all the aims and objectives of the denomination, including the schools, periodicals, orphanages, hospital, state, home and foreign missions.

Tuckaseegee association is made up of all the Baptist churches in Jackson county, 46 in number with 7,000 members. Rev. T. F. Deitz of Sylva is moderator and Rev. W. N. Cook of Webster is clerk.

T. E. L. Class Has Picnic

On Thursday, August 7, the T. E. L. class of the Scott's Creek Sunday school enjoyed an all-day meet at the church with a picnic lunch served on the church lawn. Ten members and two visitors were present.

In the afternoon a business session was held. Mrs. Sallie Freeman of Washington, D. C., opened the meeting with the devotional, followed by a prayer by Mrs. D. G. Bryson. Rev. G. C. Snyder made an interesting talk. The meeting was dismissed by Mrs. B. S. Hensley. Mrs. George Snyder is the teacher of the class.

Mrs. Hooper Hostess For Bridge Club

Mrs. Dan Bryson Hooper was hostess last week for the regular meeting of the Thursday Evening bridge club. Two tables were made up for play. At the conclusion of the games Miss Mary Henson held high score and Miss Nancy Allison had scored low. Both were given awards.

Mrs. Hooper served a sweet course to the following guests: Misses Agnes Wilson, Nancy Allison, Dorothy Mae McKee, Mary Henson, and Rebecca Sue Cannon, and Mrs. O. E. Brookhouser. Mrs. Rudy Hardy and Mrs. Charles Poteet.

Mrs. Davis Honoree At Shower

On Thursday evening Mrs. Kit Zachary and Miss Barbara Jo Cook entertained with a shower, honoring Mrs. Thomas C. Davis, recent bride. The party was at the home of the former. The living room with its decorations of mixed summer flowers, formed a pretty setting for the occasion.

Bingo and other games were played, after which the hostesses served a salad course. The gifts were then brought in and presented.

Wilson-Henson Engagement Announced

Mrs. T. O. Wilson has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Margaret Elizabeth Wilson, of Sylva and Oak Ridge, Tenn., to John Edwin Henson, son of Mrs. Beulah Norton Henson, and the late W. L. Henson, of Sylva.

Miss Wilson graduated from Sylva High school and attended Western Carolina Teachers College. For sometime she has been employed at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Mr. Henson received his education at Sylva High school and the University of North Carolina. He has been employed by the Mead Corporation for a number of years, but is now Clerk of Court for Jackson county.

Those present for the shower were Mrs. T. O. Wilson, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Kermit Bumgarner, Mrs. Tommy Clayton, Miss Betty Zachary, Miss Barbara Bess, and Miss Arbara Sue Ensley.

Camp Fire Girls Have Meeting

On Tuesday evening the Camp Fire girls had their first meeting since the two groups returned from their respective camp trips. Plans are already under way for a larger number to go to Camp Toccoa next summer and plans were discussed for raising money.

The girls enjoyed singing a number of songs they had learned at camp. This meeting was held with Janice Holden with ten members and two counsellors, Mrs. J. E. Buckner and Mrs. W. H. Crawford, present. Audrey Jane Jones, vice-president, presided. Janice served cookies and lemonade.

Mr. Dewey Crawford of Fort Pierce, Fla., and son, John, who has been studying at Mars Hill College during the summer, were guests the latter part of last week of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Allison and of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Penland of Webster.
