The Owl Grill, located in the Cole building on Mill street, began operating last Thursday, and since Monday has been open 24 hours a day, which is the plan for future operation. The grill features waffles and also serves short orders, ice cream, and milk shakes.

The manager and owner, M. D. Brown, plans to have a formal opening when alterations on the building are completed and all the equipment has been received.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown came to Sylva from Georgia. They were founders of the Sport Center, which business they operated until they sold it last November.

The grill is electrically equipped and all cooking vessels, dishes, silver, etc., are new.

Halcyon Club Has Annual Picnic

An evening of fun was had by the members of the Halcyon club and their guests when they met at the Community house Wednesday evening, August 6, for their annual picnic. Due to threatening weather, the picnic was held in the community building instead of in the park as was previously planned.

Sandwiches, fried chicken, potato salad, slaw, deviled eggs, tomatoes, pickles, olives, cookies, coca-colas, and watermelons were served buffet style from a long table placed in the center of the room. Card tables had been arranged around the room, from which the guests ate.

The menu and entertainment for the evening had been planned by the clubs social committee which consists of Mrs. Grayson Cope, chairman, Mrs. Cicero Bryson, Mrs. Alden Bryson, and Miss Hattie Hilda Sutton. The committee was assisted by Nancy Allison, Rebecca Sue Cannon and Lou Elsie Parker.

The highlight of entertainment was a womanless wedding. The wedding regalia worn by the men and the words of the ceremony, and the occasional pistol shot drew much applause from those looking on.

Group singing of old familiar love songs was enjoyed by all. Some of the members took part in an old fashioned square dance, called by Charles McMahan. Others played bridge or rummy.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Alliney Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Barkeley, Mr. and Mrs. George Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Cope, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gudger Fortner, Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMahan, Mrs. Ed Baldrige, Mrs. Alden Bryson, Miss Martha Barnett, Miss Dair Swanson, Mrs. Juanita Davis, Charles McDaris, Miss Helen Sossamon, Elmer Neal, Miss Hattie

Cullowhee FFA Boys Begin Pig Club Chain

Four registered OIC pigs have been bought by Cullowhee FFA boys as a beginning of the pig club chain sponsored by the Vocational Agriculture Department of the school. The agreement through which the boys obtained the pigs states that a pig from the first litter will be returned to the school. The school in turn will give this pig to another agriculture student who has facilities for growing hogs and shows the proper interest in such an undertaking.

The following boys received this first group of pigs: Winfred Ashe, Kenneth Pressley, Charles Smith, and Grady Ward.

These girls will be bred to a purebred OIC boar previously bought through the department and owned by Harold Seago on Pressley Creek.

The purpose of the pig club chain
