PRECISE RX SERVICE ESSENTIAL TO YOU

When you receive a prescription from your physician or dentist, you receive in effect a passport to better health. The nature of your lapse from physical well-being has been determined by means of a careful diagnosis, and the prescription written shows the correct combination of ingredients necessary to eliminate or reduce the factors responsible for your discomfort.

The correct interpretation of the prescription by a licensed, experienced Pharmacist is now the final factor in achieving the results desired by your doctor. A very slight error in the measurement of a potent drug during the compounding of a prescription could easily cause complications capable of delaying, rather than speeding, recovery.

The Rexall Pharmacist takes no chances with your doctor's prescription. The order is carefully studied, then filled from fresh, full-strength ingredients exactly as written by the doctor. Finally, step by step the prescription is checked by the Rexall Pharmacist to assure every drug, every chemical has been included in the exact measurement your doctor believes correct for your individual needs. Your Rexall Pharmacist believes his responsibility in the proper handling of your doctor's prescription is the keystone of "Good Health to All From Rexall."

We are pleased to announce that we have been appointed Sylva representative to handle the famous Yardley of London COSMETICS for both men and women.
