Gay Nell Murray Circle Meets With Mrs. Ferguson

The Gay Nell Murray circle had its September meeting on Monday evening with Mrs. Harry Ferguson with 12 members present. Mrs. Crawford Smith, president of the Woman's Missionary Society and Mrs. C. M. Warren were guests. The business session was in charge of Mrs. Jesse Buchanan, the president. Plans were made for a study course to be held the latter part of the month. The circle will have a picnic on September 18 at the Community House and will have their husbands and friends as guests at this time.

Miss Docia Garrett, as program chairman for the month, gave the devotional and then presented Mrs. C. M. Warren, who gave a splendid program on American Indians. She was assisted by Miss Hattie Hilda Sutton and Mrs. Jesse Buchanan.

Mrs. Ferguson served a delicious salad course.

Mrs. Dillard Has Halcyon Club Meet

Mrs. Roger Dillard entertained the Halcyon Woman's club at her home last Wednesday evening with 14 members present for the September meeting.

Mrs. Claude Campbell, the president, presided over the business hour. The club voted to change their student loan at Western Carolina Teachers College to a scholarship and pay the tuition of one Jackson county boy or girl each year. The scholarship has been awarded to Annie Belle Cole for this year.

It was also decided to give $50.00 to the Home economics department of the Sylva High school. Plans were made for several members to attend the district meeting in Bryson City on Saturday, September 20.

Mrs. Dan Tompkins was guest speaker for the occasion. She gave a review of the book, "Aeneas Africanus". She told in a most interesting manner of this old slave who was separated from his master and of his struggle and experiences in finding him again.

Mrs. Dillard served a sweet course to her guests.

Dr. D. McGuire Hostess For Annie Cowan Circle

Dr. Daisy McGuire was hostess for the monthly meeting of the Annie Cowan circle at her home on Wednesday afternoon. There was an unusually large attendance of 21 members and two visitors present.

Mrs. Dan Moore, chairman, was in charge of the business part of the meeting. It was reported that the circle had by a benefit supper raised $31.00 to pay on the Cherokee parsonage debt.

Rev. Ralph Taylor of Canton, who is bringing the messages each evening this week in a series of services at the Methodist church, was the guest speaker. He chose for his subject, "Where Does Christ Work?", and brought a very timely message on this topic.

Dr. McGuire, assisted by her daughter, Dr. Noracella Wilson, served an ice course.

Wesleyan Guild Has Monthly Meet

Mrs. Venoy Reed was hostess for the September meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild on Monday evening at her home. The meeting convened at 7 o'clock and the program was omitted so that the members could go to the service at the church.

The president, Mrs. Gudger Fortner, presided over a short business session, during which several matters of vital importance to the Guild were discussed.

During the social hour Mrs. Reed served sandwiches, cake and punch.

Mrs. Jeter Hall and son, Nathan, of Bristol, Va., spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barrett of Dillsboro.

Margaret E. Wilson Weds John E. Henson

The marriage of Miss Margaret Elizabeth Wilson, daughter of Mrs. T. O. Wilson, and John Edwin Henson, son of Mrs. W. L. Henson, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Sylva Baptist church. The pastor, Rev. C. M. Warren, conducted the service, using the double ring ceremony.

Floor baskets and vases of dahlias in pastel shades and seven-branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers were used in decorating the church.

Miss Lucile Reed, pianist, and Miss Barbara Bess, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music, including, "Romance", by Rubenstein, "Poem", by Fibish, and "Always", by Irving Berlin, sung by Miss Bess. The wedding marches by Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used. Schumann's "Traumerel" was played during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Joseph F. Wilson, had chosen for her wedding a brown crepe dress trimmed in sequins. With this she wore a small feather hat matching her dress and trimmed in pompons in a lighter shade. Her shoes, bag, and gloves were of brown lizard and suede. Her corsage was of tulle and roses.

Mrs. C. C. Williams, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a black skirt with a dressy plaid blouse with accessories in black and a corsage of gardenias.

Ben Henson of Asheville served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Claude Henson of Asheville, brother of the bridegroom, and W. O. Wilson of Bryson City, and Thomas C. and Lewis Wilson of Sylva, brothers of the bride.

An informal reception followed at the home of the bride. The receiving line, consisting of the wedding party and the mothers of the bride and bridegroom stood in the front living room. Mrs. D. D. Hooper, Jr., invited the guests into the dining room. The table, covered with a lace cloth, was decorated with streamers of English ivy dotted with aster blooms in pastel colors. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom was placed at one end of the table and the punch bowl at the other. A crystal bowl of mixed summer flowers on the buffet and white tapers in crystal holders completed the decorative scheme. Miss Lucile Wilson, sister of the bride, cut the cake and Miss Mary Henson, sister of the bridegroom, served the punch. Assisting were Mrs. W. O. Wilson, Mrs. T. C. Wilson, Mrs. Leonard Huff, and Mrs. J. E. Buckner.

The bride's mother wore a black dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a gown of navy blue

Home-Made Class Has Picnic

The Home-Made class of the Sunday School of Scotts Creek Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. B. S. Hensley and enjoyed a picnic supper on the lawn.

Following the supper Mrs. B. S. Hensley had the program. She had chosen as her subject "The Book of Joshua". In a most interesting and instructive talk she told the story of this book of the Bible.

Rev. B. S. Hensley was a visitor at the meeting.

The October meeting will be with Mrs. Don Fisher.

W. M. U. Met With Mrs. Campbell

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. E. Campbell was hostess for the business meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Sylva Baptist church. Mrs. Crawford Smith presided. Plans were made for a busy month for the society. On Wednesday, Sept. 17, the members will meet at the church and have prayer services in observance of Week of Prayer.

The following Wednesday, the 24th, they will have an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. W. E. Campbell and study course. Mrs. C. M. Warren will teach the book. A pot luck lunch will be served.

On Tuesday, Sept. 30, the program meeting of the month will be held at the church. Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Johnson, of the Baptist Mission work of the Cherokee reservation, will be present and give the program, assisted by a small group of the native Indians who will come with them.

Mrs. Campbell served a sweet course to the 13 members present.
