

Society and Personal

Miss Helen Sossamon Given Prenuptial Party

Miss Helen Sossamon, bride-elect of Elmer Neill, was honored at a miscellaneous shower on the evening of October 2nd at the home of Dr. Patsy McGuire with Mrs. Pearl Bryson and Dr. Noracella Wilson as joint hostesses.

Bingo was played and as each person binged she presented Miss Sossamon with the gift she had brought for the shower; for the person who binged a second time there were extra gifts from the hostesses. Each guest present binged at some time during the evening.

Following the games the hostesses served an ice cream course. The honor guest's ice was frozen in the form of a bride and groom. The other ices were molded in the shapes of lovebirds, wedding bells, and wedding slippers. The cakes had the initials of the bride and bride-groom iced on them, carrying out the color scheme of yellow and blue.

Miss Sossamon was also given gifts at several of the home demonstration club meetings. The Balsam club had special refreshments and gave her a gift. The Beta club, the Cope Creek club, the county Council of Home Demonstration clubs, and the Wesleyan Service Guild presented her with pieces of silver in her chosen pattern at their last meetings.

Carrie Rhodes Circle Meets With Mrs. Jones

On Monday evening the Carrie

Rhodes circle of the Methodist church met for the October meeting with Mrs. W. L. Jones, the president, Mrs. Raymond Stovall, conducting the business session.

Mrs. Frank P. Crawford brought the devotional and Mrs. Dick Wilson, program chairman, presented N. R. Beacham, who spoke on "The Gospel for Our Generation."

Mrs. Dennis Barkley was in charge of the recreation period. Mrs. W. H. Crawford and Dr. Patsy McGuire won the prizes in the two contests.

Mrs. Jones served a sweet course.

Twentieth Century Club Meets With Mrs. Tompkins

On Thursday afternoon of last week Mrs. Dan Tompkins was hostess for the October meeting of the Twentieth Century club. The president, Mrs. R. U. Sutton, conducted the business session.

Mrs. Tompkins then presented N. R. Beacham, band director at Sylva High school, who spoke on the band. He told of how a child is developed educationally, culturally, and physically through the band activities. He also explained each instrument, its construction, its tone, and its place in the band.

Four boys belonging to the band then played several numbers including America, the Beautiful, Whispering Hope, and others.

Mrs. Tompkins served delicious refreshments during the social hour.

Charlotte Terrell Has Birthday Party

On Wednesday, October 1, Charlotte Anne Terrell celebrated her third birthday anniversary by inviting a group of friends to a party at her home in Addie. The guests arrived at 3:30 o'clock and played games for an hour before Mr. Terrell served birthday cake, ice cream and mints. Then Charlotte opened the many gifts she had received.

The guests were Joel and Mary Paige Newton, Billy and Peggy Jones, Larry McDuffie, Wanda Jones, Doyle Bryson, Forrest Bryson, Susan Mull, Judy Murrillo, Carl Jones, Joe McClure, Nancy Bryson, Brenda Henson, Rebecca Blanton, Lydia Belle and Dewey Bryson, Ginger Springer, Nancy Bryson, Lawrence, Sarah Belle and Jimmy Fisher, Della Mae and Kenneth Lowe, Maxine and Clara Belle Greene, Carrol Henson, and Becky Crawford.

Gaynelle Murray Circle Has Regular Meet

The Gaynelle Murray Circle met for its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening with Mrs. Roscoe Poteet with 18 members present. Mrs. Jesse Buchanan presided during which the business was transacted. Mrs. Roy Reed of the Scott's Creek Woman's Missionary Society was guest speaker for the meeting. She spoke on Youth in Connection with the Church.

Mrs. Mike Strong was present and presented some very urgent needs of the local hospital and the members voted to make a donation of $10.00 to help with the expenses of buying these things.

Mrs. Poteet served a sweet course to her guests.

Maureen Cope Celebrates Fourth Birthday

Mrs. Grayson Cope entertained at her home Saturday afternoon, honoring her daughter, Maureen, on her fourth birthday anniversary. Several games were played on the lawn. Two contests were held with Kenneth Cope winning both prizes.

Mrs. Cope then invited the little guests into the diningroom. They formed a line and marched into the diningroom singing "Happy Birthday to Maureen". The table, covered with a lace cloth, had the birthday cake for a centerpiece. The children were served icecream, cup cakes, lemonade and peanuts.

The young folks then went into the livingroom to see Maureen open her gifts.

The children invited for the occasion were Elizabeth Pettit, Catherine Hair, Donna Hennessee, Linda Padgett, Jane Hicks Rector, Eddie Baldrige, Kenneth Cope, Donna Gail Bass, Rhonda Jane Watson, Verna Kaye Popplewell, Judy Campbell, Tina Lou Cogdill, Sammy Cogdill, Forrest Bryson, Dianna Brown, Tommy Wise, Tommy Jones, Jessica Buchanan, Roddy Dillard, Billy DeHart, Mac Bryson, Peggy Case, Jerry Cox, Ann Potts, Herbert Schulman, Susan Lessing, Ann Davis, Betty Cope, Joanne Wilson, John David Stovall, Mike Owens, Judy Thomas, Keith Campbell, Jennie McGuire, Henry Lee Walker, Mary Jo Green, Michael Nicholson, Joanne Bradley, and Sandra Cowan.

Baptist Training Unions To Have Mass Meeting

A mass meeting of the Baptist Training Unions of the Tuckaseegee Baptist association will be held at the Scott's Creek Baptist church on Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

After a short business session Rev. Lamb, pastor of the Bryson City Baptist church, will address the group. It is urged that each church in the association send representatives from their local unions to this meeting.

Sylva Library To Be Open On Saturday

Mrs. Mae Stallcup, librarian, states that for a few weeks the library will be open on Saturday afternoon from 12.30 to 4.30 instead of on Monday as has been in the past. This is being tried to see if more people will be served by this arrangement. If it proves not, the old schedule will be resumed at a later date.

Camp Fire Girls Meet With Sheila Kirchberg

The regular meeting of the Camp Fire girls was held Tuesday evening with Sheila Ann Kirchberg, 19 members and two guardians, Mrs. J. E. Buckner and Mrs. W. H. Crawford, present.

After a short business session, Leah Sutton, Patsy Buckner, and Gail Webber had the program. They told of different phases of the life at Camp Toccoa, summer camp for Camp Fire girls.

The meeting will be held on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays, the next meeting to be with Lipda Moody. Mrs. Kirchberg served the group cookies and Coca-Colas.

Kin of Hitler's Foe

DAUGHTER of former Mayor Karl Goerdeler of Leipzig, Germany, Benigna Goerdeler (above), 18, is shown on her arrival at LaGuardia Field, N. Y. She will study at Briarcliff Junior College, Briarcliff, N. Y., where she had won a two-year scholarship with a thesis based on her life history. Benigna's father was put to death after an unsuccessful plot to kill Adolf Hitler in July, 1944. (International)

Mr. A. C. Reynolds has returned from Charlotte where they at Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Buchanan of Hendersonville spent Monday night

PERSONALS

Miss Helen Sossamon, who has served as home demonstration agent for Jackson county for the last year, left last Thursday for her home at Midland, N. C. where she will be married to Elmer Neill on October 24.

Misses Stella Mae and Mary Sue Revis of Whittier Rt. 2 have enrolled in Blanton's Business College, Asheville.

Mrs. Fred Edwards of Bluefield, Va. spent the week-end with her brothers, Walter and Garland Jones, in Sylva and her sister, Mrs. G. T. Hampton, at Cullowhee.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kirk were in Atlanta Saturday to attend the wedding of Dr. J. E. Smith of Fitzgerald, Ga. and Miss Anne Roberts of Dalton, Ga. They also attended the wedding breakfast at the Atlanta-Biltmore Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. David Flinton and a friend, Mrs. Williams of Charleston, S. C. spent the week-end with Mrs. Flinton's brothers, Dean W. E. Bird and family at Cullowhee, J. M. Bird and Mrs. Bird in Sylva, and H. G. Bird and Mrs. Bird of Whittier. They left Sunday for Asheville to visit her sister, Mrs. Woodfin McLaughlin and family.

Mrs. C. C. Garrison, and two children, Marvin and Hazel Ann, will leave about December 1st for California to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cooke, of Spencer, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cunningham over the week-end.

Mrs. Ray Cogdill and daughter, Jean, and Mrs. R. U. Sutton and daughters, Rachael and Leah, were guests over the week-end of Mrs. Sutton's sisters, Mrs. W. C. Whittier in Atlanta and Mrs. J. B. Payne in Decatur, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Stallcup spent a few days last week in Charlotte with Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Blanton. They went down to attend annual conference of the Western North Carolina conference. Mrs. Stallcup was delegate from the Whittier church.

Mrs. Ruth Newton and Miss Dorothy Mull have returned from Charleston and Myrtle Beach, S. C., where they attended the demonstration of the Supersonic Permanent-Wave machine.

Mrs. Dave Bumgarner and Miss Levia Taylor returned to their home in Dillsboro Wednesday after visiting Mrs. Bumgarner's daughter at Wilmington. They also visited Carolina Beach while away.

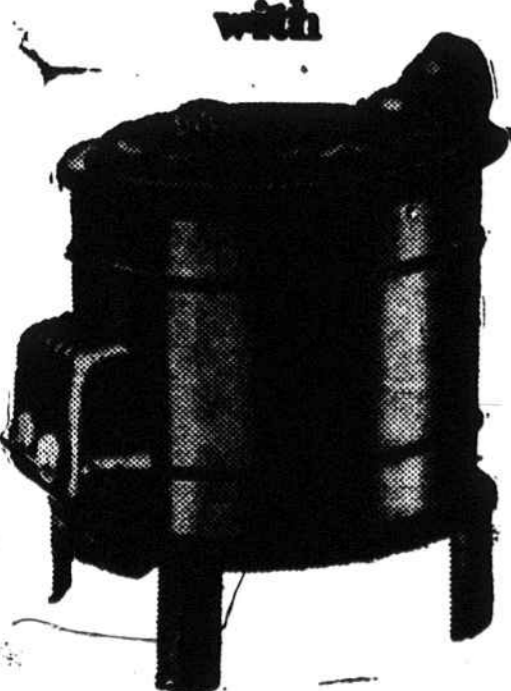

Mrs. Elizabeth Davis and daughter, Ann, spent the week-end in Whittier with her sister, Mrs. S. R. Roane.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Overholser and two children of Charlottesville, Va. were guests the first of the week of Rev. and Mrs. W. Q. Grigg.

RAYMOND GLENN
EXPERT WATCH
REPAIRING
At Home Sylva, N. C.

EYES EXAMINED
Glasses Fitted
DR. ALDEN C. DOWNS
will examine eyes and fit glasses in Sylva at the Carolina Hotel, Friday, Oct. 24, from 9 o'clock to 4 o'clock.
If you have eye trouble or don't see well you should consult Dr. Downs on above date.

MAGIC HEATING RESULTS

the famous Majik Automatic

(Thermostatic Draft Wood Heater)

Terms easily arranged

- Auxiliary manual draft register for heat in a hurry.
- Holds fire overnight.
- Ashes easily removed through bottom door.
- Positive fuel savings.
- 18 gauge inner steel lining will last for years.

We will welcome an opportunity to show you this wonderful value.

Sossamon Furniture Co.
Sylva, N. C.
Phone 57

Better Feeders Feed
CHESTERFIELD
Because it Means

SEE YOUR CHESTERFIELD DEALER TODAY
And listen to these programs over WLOS - Dial 1380 every morning, Monday thru FRIDAY, "Skyline Jamboree"—6:30 A.M. "THANKS TO YOU"—11:15 A.M.

Start now to supplement your winter fuel supply. At BELK'S you'll find blankets in all weights, colors and prices to suit everyone.

Jacquard Blankets. All cotton blankets in dark and light color combinations, and variety of designs. Size 64 by 76 inches.

$1.98

Lovely Blankets in blue, pink, rose, and white with wide satin binding. These blankets have a seam in them but are real buys in 100% wool—regular large size.

only $6.95

Double Blankets . . . blue and brown, and green and rose color combinations on white ground. 5% wool . . . 95% cotton . . . imperfections.

only $2.98

Single Blankets—(70 x 80) in lovely design borders on plaid body . . . all cotton . . . imperfections.

$2.95

Cotton Blankets, single size, in light color plaids, only $1.00

Belk's Department Store

"The Home of Better Values"

PHONE 287

SYLVA, N. C.