FARMERS WARNED OF HOG CHOLERA

One of the greatest financial losses in recent history may occur this fall unless North Carolina farmers take every precaution to protect their fall pigs from hog cholera, says Dr. C. D. Grinnells, professor of Veterinary Science at State College.

Pointing to the present record prices and relative scarcity of pork, Dr. Grinnells agrees with the American Foundation for Animal Health, that the Nation's swine raisers have a tremendous stake in this fall's battle against cholera, the Nation's No. 1 swine killer.

Because the danger of fall cholera flareups is especially great in the next few weeks, farmers are urged to keep a close watch on their swine and have fall pigs vaccinated early. Vaccination, plus good sanitation and proper feeding, is the best safeguard against cholera losses, Dr. Grinnells said.

Five steps to ward off possible outbreaks are recommended: Have all pigs vaccinated — preferably around weaning time — first making sure, by veterinary examination, that they are in condition to receive the immunization.

Watch the herd closely for signs of fever, loss of appetite, or weakness. A hog just coming down with cholera can spread the virus, even before pronounced symptoms occur.

WESTERN CAROLINA PLAYERS TO GIVE FIRST PLAY NOV. 7

The Western Carolina Players will present "Death Takes a Holiday," by Alberto Cassella, as rewritten for the American stage by Walter Ferris, November 7 in Hoey auditorium, Miss Mabel Tyree, director of the Players, said Friday. Bob Pittillo, Charleston, president of the club, is production manager for the play.

For the first time in several years Western Carolina Teachers college is offering a class in dramatics as a credit course, and an unusually large number of students have applied for membership in the club. Try-outs have been held, and the cast has been chosen from among them, Miss Tyree said.

In the leading roles will be Don Cabe, Franklin, as Prince Sirki, and Miss Louise Beck, Hendersonville, as Grazia. Other members of the cast, and the parts they will play, are Miss Loe Alley, Norfolk, Cora; Jack Barnett, Murphy, Fedele; Doug Davis, Mars Hill, Duke Lambert; Miss Maxie Wright, Highlands, Alda; Miss Betty S. Allen, Hiawagee, Duchess Stephanie; Miss Betty Jean Anderson, Hayesville, Princess of San Luca; Dick McAuley, Black Mountain, Baron Cesarea; Miss Clara Padgett, Hayesville, Rhoda Fenton; Forest Lindsay, Lowell, Eric Fenton; John Moore, Hayesville, Corrado; and Jim Wood, Andrews, Major Whitread.

If signs of illness are noticed, suspect cholera first.

If an outbreak threatens, and pigs have not yet been vaccinated, have this done immediately.

If there is cholera in the neighborhood, quarantine for at least two weeks any livestock brought to the farm. Warn your neighbors if you suspect cholera on your own farm.

Be careful about visiting hog lots. Disease may be spread in this way.

"You'll be fresh when you arrive . . ."

"thanks to Hydra-Matic Drive!"

These words from Oldsmobile's new "radio song" have never been so aptly illustrated as in a typical ride to a football game. There's often a long distance to be covered. There's always traffic to contend with. Yet, if you're the driver of an Oldsmobile with Hydra-Matic Drive, you can . . . "Just forget the clutch and gear. All you do is sit and steer!" That's true in football traffic, or any other traffic. True on the highway, too. Hydra-Matic Drive takes care of all gear shifting—automatically—through four forward speeds. And the clutch pedal is eliminated completely! What makes it even more impressive . . . this will be the ninth football season in which Hydra-Matic Drive has enabled Oldsmobile-owning fans to go to the games the easy way. GM Hydra-Matic Drive is a fully perfected, fully proved feature—and there's still nothing else on the market to compare with it.

Oldsmobile introduced Hydra-Matic Drive* 8 years ago. Today, Oldsmobile is still the lowest-priced car to offer it. Add to this Oldsmobile's traditional style-leadership—plus Oldsmobile's all-round, fine-car quality—and you'll see why so many football fans are Oldsmobile fans as well. You'll agree that . . .
