

ODAS BROOM DIES IN WASHINGTON, BURIED AT ARGURA CHURCH

Funeral services were held Friday, October 17 at 2 p. m. at the Oak Ridge Baptist church at Argura for Odas Dewey Broom, who had passed away at his home in Darrington, Wash., on Friday, October 10. Rev. W. M. Breedlove, pastor of the First Baptist church in Darrington, accompanied the body home and had charge of the funeral service.

Mr. Broom was born on December 29, 1912, and was 34 years of age at the time of his death. He was married on December 6, 1936, to Miss Irene Mathis of Argura. She survives with four sons, Carlos, David, Kay W. and Nath M.; and two daughters, Rosemary and Gladis, of Darrington, Wash.; two brothers, Fred of Darrington and Ralph of Argura; four sisters and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cushman Broom of Argura.

Mr. Broom and his family left Argura about four years ago and went to Washington where he was engaged in logging. An accident suffered about four months ago led to his death.

Fred Broom, brother of the deceased, and Mrs. Broom and Rev. W. M. Breedlove, who came here with the body left Wednesday to return to their homes in Darrington.

Ringling Brothers, Barnum Circus To Show In Asheville

Circus fans of Western North Carolina are looking forward to attending their favorite show Friday, October 31, when Ringling Brothers-Barnum Circus comes to Asheville for two performances—at 2:30 p. m. and 8:00 p. m. The show, still the world's largest, travels on 100 railroad cars, pulled in sections of four trains, with over 1500 on its payroll and a daily operation cost of over $16,000, has been reorganized since the war and will bring fans some of the greatest thrills ever experienced at a circus.
