Betty Zachary Weds Raymond Nicholson

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Zachary of East LaPorte have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Betty Zachary, to Raymond Nicholson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Nicholson of Sylva, on October 6 in Clayton, Georgia.

The bride was dressed in a suit of beige gaberdine with brown accessories.

Mrs. Nicholson is a graduate of Cullowhee High school and now holds a position as secretary for the town clerk of Sylva.

Mr. Nicholson is a graduate of Sylva High school and attended Western Carolina Teachers College. During the World War II he served with the U. S. Navy for about three years. He is now employed with the Sylva Division of the Mead Corporation.

The couple will reside in Sylva.

Nancy Helen Whitt Has Birthday Party

Mrs. Bailey Whitt of Asheville invited a number of small friends and their mothers and a few older friends to come to the home of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Allison, on Saturday afternoon, October 18, at 4 o'clock and join with her young daughter, Nancy Helen, in celebrating her first birthday.

The young guests, wearing their paper hats given them as favors, were seated around the dining room table, which was centered with a large bowl of colorful balloons, that were later given to the children.

At one end of the table in front of the young honor guest was the large white birthday cake, decorated pink and bordered by animal crackers. Individual cakes similar to the birthday cake had been made for each child and served with ice cream, the older people being served from the big cake.

Following this Nancy Helen, assisted by her mother, opened the many gifts that had been brought to her.

Mothers and babies attending the party were Mrs. E. E. Tweed and Nancy, Mrs. Ed Baldridge and Kitty, Mrs. W. T. Wise and Mickey, Mrs. Charles Deteet and Tinker, Mrs. Roger Dillard and Roddy, Mrs. Felix Potts and Anne, Mrs. C. C. Williams and Bob, Mrs. T. C. Wilson and Wayne, Mrs. T. D.

Mrs. R. R. Nicholson, Jr. Honored at Shower

On Thursday evening Mrs. R. R. Nicholson, Sr. entertained with a miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. Raymond Nicholson, Jr., a recent bride. About forty-five friends gathered at the Nicholson home for the affair.

The livingrooms and dining room used for the occasion were decorated with bowls of mixed fall flowers. In one livingroom tables were arranged for bridge; in the other livingroom three contests were given, and in the dining room Bingo was played. Those winning prizes presented them to the honoree.

The hostess, assisted by her daughters, Jean and Joyce, served individual cakes decorated with the names of the bride and bridegroom, Betty and Raymond, coffee, mints and nuts.

The honoree then opened her many gifts, which were both lovely and useful.

Homemakers Class Has Monthly Meet

Mrs. Don Fisher was hostess for the October meeting of the Homemakers class of the Scott's Creek Sunday School Tuesday evening, October 14, at her home at Maple Springs.

Yvonne Everrett Has Party At Kindergarten

Mrs. W. H. Crawford entertained at kindergarten at the home of Mrs. Louis Hair on Friday with a party honoring little Yvonne Everrett on her fifth birthday. Games were played under the supervision of Mrs. Hair. In the contest Katherine Hair was the winner. About 20 children were at the party and the little honoree received a number of gifts.

Mrs. Crawford served chariots made from oranges filled with salad and drawn by animal crackers, punch, cookies and candy.

W. S. C. S. Has Monthly Meet

The circles making up the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild met for the regular monthly joint meeting in Allison building on Friday evening. Mrs. Harry Hastings, president, was in charge of the business part of the meeting.

The Zone meeting to be held with the Sylva church Saturday, October 25, was discussed and plans made for the afternoon circle to serve the lunch.

The following nominating committee was named to present a slate of officers for the coming year: Mrs. Dan Moore, Mrs. R. U. Sutton, and Mrs. Raymond Stovall.

The matter of sending Christmas packages overseas was discussed.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. C. Z. Candler, Spiritual Life chairman, who had arranged a program in observance of the Week of Prayer. Those taking part on the program were Mrs. W. Q. Grigg, who had the prayer, Dr. Noracella McGuire, Mrs. Raymond Stovall, Mrs. Dan Moore, and Mrs. Dan Tompkins. The theme for the meeting was "Prayer" and all the talks dealt with some phase of this subject. Mrs. Candler concluded the meeting with prayer.

Woman's Club Met With Mrs. Kirk
