

NEW YORK PAYS HOMAGE TO NATION'S WAR DEAD

AS THE CASKET OF A CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR WINNER, representative of all his fallen mates, is carried to the ceremonial platform in New York's Central Park, men, women and children weep unselfishly. About 400,000 New Yorkers watched a caisson, bearing the body of a symbolic soldier, move through the city's streets to muffled drum beats and slow marches. At the main entrance to Central Park, a band of 150,000 persons, chaplains of three faiths prayed for the G.I. soldier war dead brought from the European Theater in the hall of the Army transport Joseph V. Connally. (Inter-News)

Cherokee Information Booth Proves Popular With Tourists

Cherokee, N. C.—Of the slightly over a half-million cars touring the Great Smokies to October 1 this year, 7,445 stopped at the information booth recently established by the Cherokee Council and the State News Bureau in the Administration Building of the Indian School.

Every state in the Union with the exceptions of Utah, Vermont, and Wyoming was represented in the registration, with Ohians, Tar Heels, Tennesseans, Indianians, Illinoisians, Georgians, and Floridians leading the parade.

Citizens of ten foreign countries stopped by to ask guidance of the Cherokee school maidens who manned the Information Service booth under the supervision of Qualla Boundary Reservation authorities and whose salaries were paid by the N. C. Advertising News Division of the Department of Conservation and Development. Canada and, believe it or not, India led the list with 11 registrations each, followed by England, 7; Switzerland, 4; Mexico and Denmark, 2 each; and Greece, Turkey, Holland, and China, 1 each.

Western Carolina B Team Drops Game To Newberry B Team 13-7

Coach Jim Gudger's Western Carolina Junior Varsity dropped a 13-7 decision to the Newberry B string at Newberry Saturday night.

The Catamounts started off with a bang. Frank Hardin kicked off to the 5 and Newberry ran the ball to the 20 where they bogged down and booted out with a bad 10 yard punt. The Cats over, drove to the 20 on one play and Tommy Seltzer passed to Pinball Allison in the end zone for a touchdown on the next. Hardin kicked a perfect extra point for a 7-0 lead.

Newberry then retaliated, drove to the 2 and scored on a cutback. A long 50 yard pass produced their winning tally in the second quarter.

The Cats rolled up twenty-five first downs to their opponents' 6 by driving 50 and 60 yards several times only to bog down inside the 10.

200-TON FLYING BOAT TAKEN INTO AIR BY BUILDER

Howard Hughes, millionaire plane builder, took his huge 200-ton, $23,500,000 plywood flying-boat into the air Saturday at Long Beach, Calif.

Hughes had taken the huge boat out on a taxi run Saturday to determine if its leaked with no intention of trying to take it into the air. But, when on the taxi run, before 1,000 or more on-lookers, the builder of the big plane suddenly took it into the air and flew at 70 feet for over a mile, making a perfect landing on the water.

In shirt sleeves during the flight, Hughes was jubilant over the success. Many people had said of his 700 passenger "Hercules": "a monstrosity which never will fly."

It was the first time a 32 propeller blades had beat the air at the same time.

As Hughes ran the big ship down the first 10-mile course he got the speed up only to 45 miles per hour and the mighty boat took a terrific beating from choppy white-caps, blown by a 16-knot wind. On the second run he picked up speed to 60 miles then 90 and at 100 miles he decided that it felt so good he just lifted it into the air for the mile flight at 70 feet up, then gently set her down on the water.

Hughes made the flight just three days before he was due in Washington to go before a congressional committee in hearings on his huge war contracts.

J. R. Thagard and son, J. R., Jr., Cumberland county farmers of Fayetteville, Route 5, recently received the first 100 bushel corn club certificate that has been awarded in North Carolina.

SPORTS Here and There

Franklin Takes Sylva in Football Tussel 26-0

Sparked by halfback Larry Cabe who scored two touchdowns in the initial period, the Franklin high Panthers routed the Sylva Hurricanes 26-0 last Friday night on Mark Watson Field. The TD's were Cabe's 9th and 10th of the year.

In the opening minutes of the first period Cabe romped 20 yards for his first marker and a few minutes later went 30 yards for the other. In the second quarter Mason, halfback, cut off tackle from the 30 and scored Franklin's third tally.

The third quarter found Sylva on the comeback trail as they battled it out even with the Panthers. But the last period saw Franklin again scoring on a pass from Flanagan to Ed Angel in the end zone.

Joe Pressley's kicking proved a considerable help to the Sylva boys and smothered several Franklin drives.

Veterans Asked To Enlist For Special Duty At Home

World War II veterans serving in the enlisted reserve corps may enter active duty on a purely voluntary basis to participate in paying homage to the war dead being returned from overseas, according to Capt. Rex G. Combs, instructor, Asheville sub-district U. S. army reserve corps.

In order to provide fitting escorts and ceremonials for the returning dead, enlisted reservists may return to active duty for six months or one year periods, at the option of the applicants, Capt. Combs explained.

He said that there are more than 2,000 enlisted reservists in Western North Carolina, out of which 341 are currently qualified for this duty.

Men selected for these duties will be on a selective basis, and action is being taken solely for the purpose to furnish veterans for escorts and ceremonial duties. Their services will be used only in connection with the return and burial in the United States of fallen comrades-in-arms.

Further information may be obtained by either calling Capt. Combs or visiting the office of the reserve corps, seventh floor of the city hall, in Asheville.

SHOOT THE MOON

By BOBBY TERRELL

This Saturday the Catamounts of Western Carolina will face another tough North State Conference for the Appalachian State Teachers at Boone. The Cats will go into the game with a two weeks rest under their belts and should prove stiff competition for the rough and rugged Mountaineers. Appalachian is favored by several points but what does favor mean in this season of upsets? The Mountaineers may have a slight edge in the backfield but it takes quite a team to break that Cata-mount line.

We're looking forward to a good game—a different game than the 42-6 affair that all but disgraced the Cats on their home-coming last year.

As for prediction we would sentimentally take the Cats over the Mountaineers but logically we'll take Appalachian over Western Carolina and say no more. Also we like:
