The rank of Life Scout was presented to Dick Barkley of Sylva and Winfred Ashe of Cullowhee by Rev. W. Q. Grigg.

The rank of Eagle Scout, the highest rank in Scouting, was presented to Frank M. Crawford, Jr. and Charles Cope of Troop 1 Sylva by Hugh Monteith. These Scouts received the Eagle Scout medal, Eagle certificate and a letter of congratulation from the National Scout Executive.

Mrs. Frank Crawford and Mrs. O. L. Cope, mothers of the scouts, were presented with miniature Eagle pins. Scout Mack Monteith, on behalf of members of Troop 1 Sylva, presented Frank Crawford and Charles Cope with Eagle Scout rings.

In a special ceremony the Local

Camp, Woodmen of the World, honored the Scoutmasters of Jackson county. Jeff Hedden introduced Britton Moore who gave a short talk on "The Forgotten Man", paying tribute to the work the Scoutmasters are doing. Mr. Moore presented a gift to the following Scoutmasters in recognition of the service they have rendered to their community: Dennis Barkley of Troop 1 Sylva, Jake Bales leader of Senior Unit No. 1, Sylva and Charles Bird of Troop 14 Cullowhee.

This was the largest Court of Honor ever held in Sylva with more than 300 people present. Scout Troops from Franklin, Cherokee, Highlands, Cullowhee, Alarka, and Sylva were present. The next Court of Honor will be held at Cherokee, Thursday, December 11.

Haywood Librarian Is WCTC Speaker On Childhood Education

Miss Margaret Johnston, Haywood county librarian, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Western Carolina Teachers college branch of the Association for Childhood Education, held in the parlor of Moore dormitory Thursday afternoon.

Miss Johnston told the group of her work with children in her county, and gave an especially vivid account of her vacation reading clubs. She stressed the impression made upon the children by visiting specialists in various fields. Circulation of books among the children of her county, she said, has increased four-fold within the past three years. She displayed for the group some recent books for children.

Miss Johnston was accompanied

Annual Dinner For Presidents, Faculty Sponsors Given

Seventy persons, including guest speaker, attended the annual dinner for presidents and faculty sponsors of Western Carolina Teachers college student clubs, given in the Cullowhee Methodist church Wednesday night.

Dr. Carl D. Killian, head of the school's education department, was guest speaker. He told the group by Mrs. Ruth Beatty, Waynesville. Miss Kathleen Moss, Hayesville, chairman of the program committee, introduced the speaker.

Miss Mabel Morgan, Marion, president of the club, presided. On the social committee for the evening were Miss Barbara Dillard, Sylva, Harest King, Marble, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rickman, Waynesville.

of the importance of extra-curricular activities in the lives of students. He said, "help to develop good citizenship and personality, and enable the student to more intelligently choose a vocation and an avocation."
