Sylva Church Will Be Host To MYF District Meet

The district meeting of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Waynesville district will be held in the Sylva Methodist church on next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. John Gibson will have charge of the worship service.

The Sylva High School Glee club will sing three special numbers under the direction of Nickels R. Beacham. The principal part of the program will be presented by Miss Nell Webb, conference director of Youth Fellowship, of Salisbury. She will relate the experiences of the group with whom she visited in parts of Europe last summer. Her discussion will deal principally on the conditions in Poland, where she spent much of her time.

Election of officers for the coming year will be a part of the business session, over which Mrs. George Culbreth, district counselor, will preside.

It is especially urged that all members of the Jackson-Swain sub-district be present.

Mrs. Nicholson Hostess For Bridge Club

On Thursday evening of last week Mrs. C. H. Nicholson was hostess for the meeting of the Eight and One Bridge club. This is a new club which was recently organized at the home of Mrs. W. L. Jones with nine members and it was named the Eight and One club.

Two tables were arranged for play. When scores were added, Mrs. F. L. Webber had scored high, Mrs. W. I. Jones, second high, and Mrs. Woody Hampton had made low score and each received their respective prize.

Mrs. Nicholson served a salad course.

Those playing, besides the prize winners, were Mrs. W. T. Wise, Mrs. John Henson, Mrs. E. E. Tweed, and Misses Hicks and Lucile Wilson.

Christening Service For Robert Albert Patton

Preceding the church service on Sunday morning, November 16, Robert Albert Patton, seven months

All Is Well Now

ARMY SERGEANT Roger Irwin of Nampa, Idaho, is reunited with his English fiancée, Joan Burchell, in New York, after having almost missed her when the Maryne Marlin docked a day ahead of schedule. Irwin, on a sixty-day furlough, arrived in New York after driving from Fort Ord, Calif., only to find the ship had already docked and his bride-to-be had come ashore. With the aid of police and Travelers' Aid officials, the sergeant located his fiancée. (International) old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patton, was christened at the Shoal Creek Methodist church with the pastor, Rev. Thorne, officiating. Mrs. A. H. Carter is godmother of the young son.

For the christening the baby was dressed in a white jersey suit with white kid shoes.

Following the church service, Mr. and Mrs. Patton had for their dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Patton and Mr. Charles Edwards, grandparents, and the Rev. Mr. Thorne.

As a christening gift Mrs. Carter gave the baby a silver cup with both his name and her's engraved on it.

Said B. O. Plenty to flaxen-haired Gravel Gertie,

"I wonder what Sparkle is doing while we are here at 'dorothie's' Friendly Mountain Shop?" Tillie the Toiler heard it, and laughed, and remarked, "Ah! how glad I am that I am single! If only I could go on vacations like this every year and enjoy such a multitude of unusual handmade things. I bought some, but I'll have to work a lot harder next year so I can have more of the beauty to take home with me. Sylva is certainly a snappy town!

And Dr. Candler's Office makes the loveliest gift shop I've ever seen, too."
