The associational Baptist Training Union meeting will be held at the East Sylva Baptist church on Monday evening, December 8 at 7:30 p. m. All Baptist churches in the Association who have or are planning to have B. T. U. organizations are urged to be present for this meeting.

Miss Cosette Blake Entertains Friends

A group of young people of the Cullowhee community were delightfully entertained by Miss Cosette Blake at her home in Cullowhee on Saturday night, November 29.

The young people enjoyed an evening of games after which Miss Blake served punch and cookies. Those enjoying the social affair were:

June Parker, Betty Jean Tolbert, Ola Belle Smith, Sue Churchwell, Ruth Moses, Jean Crawford, Clara Joe Phillips, Dennis Norton, Buddie Cole, Cecil Ward and Darell Tilley.

John Robert Womack Weds Yadkinville Lady

Miss Margie Alice Beard, of Yadkinville, became the bride of John R. Womack, of Winston-Salem and Sylva in a ceremony at high noon on Friday, November 28, at the First Baptist church in Winston-Salem. The vows were spoken in the chapel of the church before members of the family and a few close friends, with Dr. Ralph Her-ring, pastor, officiating.

The bride was attired in a light gray gabardine suit with black accessories. She wore a necklace of white gold, set with seed pearls, which was 23 years old. It was a gift of the bridegroom's mother. Her corsage was of red roses. She was unattended. Hal H. Brown, of Asheville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom served as best man.

Following the ceremony an informal wedding luncheon was given

Doris Long Weds John Allen Moore

Miss Doris Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berder Long of Cullowhee, and John Allen Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Moore of Warne, were married in a ceremony performed at the home of the Rev. W. A. Taliaferro in Blue Ridge, Ga., on Wednesday evening, November 26, at 8 o'clock. A wedding supper was held at Lake View Inn at Blue Ridge.

For her wedding the bride was dressed in a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Attending the wedding were Paul Hill, Robert Chambers, Jack Barnett, Miss Phoebe Smith, Eugene Hooper, Robert Anderson and Max Waldroup, students at Western Carolina Teachers College.

Mrs. Moore received her education at Cullowhee High school and graduated from WCTC and is now a member of the Sylva High school faculty.

Mr. Moore, who served in the European theater during the war, is now a student at Western Carolina Teachers college. The couple will reside at Cullowhee.

Deans Of Men And Women To Entertain Student Senate

After the luncheon the couple left for a wedding trip to points in the South. After December 15, Mr. and Mrs. Womack will be at home

R. C. Allison Observes Birthday

Mrs. R. C. Allison entertained at a family dinner party at her home at the noon hour on Sunday, November 30, honoring her husband on his birthday anniversary. Guests were his two brothers, A. O. Allison, and Mrs. Allison of Sylva, Glenn Allison of Hayesville; his two sisters, Mrs. Ernest Penland, and Mr. Penland of Webster, and Miss Dessie Allison of Webster; and his two great-nieces, Margaret Lane Allison of Franklin and Audrey Jane Jones of Sylva.

Mr. Allison's nieces and nephews were invited to call during the afternoon and were served cake and ice cream. Those calling were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Penland, Jr., of Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cowan, Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Allison and sons, Frank and Mike, of Franklin and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones and son, Edward Lee, of Sylva.

to their many friends at 503 Holly Avenue, Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Womack, daughter of Mrs. Clarence Beard, of Yadkinville, attended the Kinston city schools and later completed a business course. She holds a position with the Anchor Department store in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Womack, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Geo. Womack, of Sylva, is a graduate of Sylva high school, Skyland Radio school, of Winston-Salem, and attended N. C. State College at Raleigh. He entered active service with the Army Signal Corps and served three years, twenty-one months of which was spent overseas. He was discharged in January 1946. He now holds a position with the Veterans Administration, with headquarters in Winston-Salem.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Womack, of Sylva, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Hal H. Brown of Asheville, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Miss Higdon Is Married To Cecil Wood In Church Ceremony November 29

The Rev. J. C. and Mrs. Millsaps of Tuckasee, announce the marriage of their daughter, Pearl Higdon to Mr. Cecil Wood, of Brevard, in a single ring ceremony at the Tuckasee Baptist church on Saturday afternoon, November 30 at 2:00 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Edgar Willix, performed the ceremony. The vows were spoken in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

Miss Betty Jean Smith was maid of honor and Mr. Earl Denton was best man.

The church was beautifully decorated in native greenery.

Jennie McGuire Celebrates Birthday

Jennie McGuire, young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold McGuire, celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary on Monday morning, November 24, with a party at Mrs. Hair's kindergarten, with the twenty or more children who attend kindergarten, as guests.

Games and contests were played, directed by Mrs. Hair. Those winning prizes were Amos Gillespie, Anne Potts and John David Stovall.

Candy Christmas trees were given to the children as favors.

The cake with its birthday decorations and candles was placed on a table covered with a cloth with birthday designs. Mrs. Hair, assisted by the mother of the young hostess, served cake, ice cream, and candy.

Large Number Attend Youth Fellowship Meeting

Many of the churches in the Waynesville district were well represented when more than 300 of the young people of the district met Monday evening at the Sylva Methodist church for the annual district meeting with the Swain-Jackson sub-district as host for the occasion.

John Gibson of Sylva had charge of the worship program. Members of the Sylva High School Glee Club sang three numbers and for the offertory a clarinet trio was played by Pat Montague, Edith Moore, and Leah Sutton.

The principal talk of the evening was made by Miss Nell Webb, conference director of youth work. Miss Webb told of her experience in Oslo, Norway and Warsaw, Poland, when she went there last summer with a group of church workers.

Mrs. George Culbreth, district counselor of Canton, presided over the business session. New officers for the ensuing year were elected. Jimmy Bales of Sylva was elected second vice-president of the district. John Gibson is president of the Jackson-Swain sub-district.
