Marriage Of Miss Cagle And Clifford Moses Announced

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Cagle of Cullowhee have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Gwendolyn Cagle, to Clifford Moses, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Moses, of Cullowhee. The wedding took place on November 22 at the home of the bride. The Rev. R. T. Houts, Jr., officiated using the double ring ceremony.

The bride was unattended. For her wedding she wore a suit of white gabardine with black accessories. Her corsage was of red rose buds.

Tommy Moses was his brother's best man.

Preceding the ceremony a small reception for members of the families and a few close friends was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bridal table was covered with a hand made lace cloth and centered with the wedding cake.

Mrs. Moses, graduate of Webster high school, completed her studies at Western Carolina Teachers college November 26. She will receive her diploma in June, 1948.

Mr. Moses is a graduate of Cullowhee High school and is now a student at United Television Lab-

Wesleyan Service Guild Has Christmas Party

The living room of the Methodist parsonage, with a gaily decorated Christmas tree and lighted by red tapers in crystal holders, formed a lovely setting for the annual dinner meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild with Mrs. W. Q. Grigg as hostess.

Dinner was served at the dining table and at two small tables, each with its white cover and centered with a red candle. Mr. Grigg gave the devotional and the president, Mrs. Gudger Fortner, presided over a short business session, during which plans were completed for the Christmas activities of the guild.

Gifts were exchanged followed by a social hour of conversation and games. Fourteen members were present and Mrs. N. R. Bacham, Mrs. Harry Hastings and Rev. Mr. Grigg were guests.

To conclude the meeting, Mrs. J. M. Bird gave a portrayal of the hymn, "Nearer, My God, To Thee", in the sign language as used by the deaf.

Andrews and Miss Thelma Moody of Whittier visited their aunt and sister, Mrs. Cary Allison, Sunday.
