The Herald is dedicated to

$2.00 A Year—5c Copy

EAST LAPORTE GIRL DIES IN BREVARD AUTO COLLISION

Miss Louise Middleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Middleton of East La Porte and an employee of Brevard hosiery mill, was instantly killed at 6:30 Sunday when the car in which she was a passenger collided with another on the Little River road at an intersection at Little River church. in Transylvania County.

Five persons were injured, four of them other occupants of the death car and the fifth being the driver of the other automobile, according to State Highway Patrolman H. M. Morrow. Miss Francis Middleton, sister of Louise, was lacerated about the face and was taken to the Transylvania Community hospital.

The accident occurred on a road stretch which is undergoing construction work at present. Both cars were badly damaged.

Misses Elizabeth and Joy Stillwell arrived from Meredith College Thursday to spend the Christmas vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stillwell.

Miss Dorothy Hennessee, s student at the University of Tennessee, came Friday to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hennessee, during the Christmas holidays.

E. E. Bain and son, Edward, are spending a few days in Greensboro, having been called there by the illness of Mr. " in's fother.

Rev. and Mrs. R. T. Houts and daughter left Monday for Knoxville where they will spend Christmas with Rev. Mr. Houts' grand-

Miss Ethel Reed has arrived from Furman University, Greenville, S. C., to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Reed during the Christmas vacation.

Joe T. Evans has arrived from State College, Raleigh, and will spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans. Miss Lucile Reed arrived Monday from Kinston to be with her parens, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Reed, for the Christmas holidays.

Local Union UMWA Donates Large Sum To Community Fund

The Local Union No. 12866 of the United Mine Workers of America donated $100 in dimes Saturday well Methodist church at the morning to the local dime board church on Christmas eve at 7:30 being sponsored jointly by the American Lefion and Local Union of invited to attend. the Mead Corporation. The UMWA officials stated that they were going to give more than the $100 to the fund which will be used for Christmas cheer baskets in this community and for hospitalized veterans as well as for other local union were in charge of the board welfare work. Members of the all day Saturday.

Thriving Weaving Industry Much has been said and written | main in their homes and do the about the advantages of develop- work assigned them, carrying their ing small community industries in finished products to Mrs. Norton's the Night and you sleeping village, Western North Carolina, and quite shop for sale. Mrs. Norton told a number have sprung up in va- a Herald representative this week rious sections which are proving that over four thousand dollars of great economic value to the had been paid these women help-

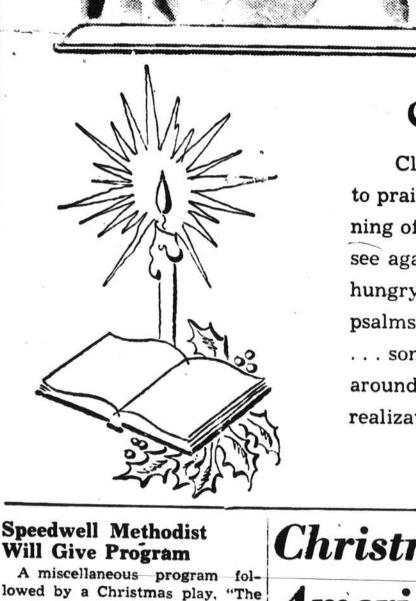

Mrs. Lewis Norton Develops

community and the section as a ers this year. whole. Jackson county has one such industry of which little has ern Highlanders Handicraft Guild children recited their pieces and been heard. Mrs. Lewis Norton through which she has become sang songs about the birth of the of the Norton community of the nationally known and through Christ Child. Santa would hand spelled death. county now operates a thriving which she attributes much success, out mosquito-bar sacks of candy, business, "The Cabin Weavers", of her enterprise. She states that a golden orange or an apple to a bobsled ride or perhaps a square ly after a lengthy illness. The body eggs by the Farmers Federation, women who assist her. Mrs. Nor- various parts of the United States would make that meager offering dinner costing 25 cents. ton began her business only as a and anticipates a much larger truly a gift of gold and frankin-

Empy Room", will be presented by offsets any advantage.

hobby. After seeing the great business for the coming year. demand for her hand woven arly linen table mat and napkin sets, However, this had to be given up "Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells". towels, rugs and other hand wovduring the war, and it was then

G, Come vet Es Adore Him

Clear, sweet and strong the many voices of the choir rise as one to praise Him. For it is His birth date . . . anniversary of the begins ning of a new concept of love and brotherhood for all mankind. We see again how He brought light into the darkness; how He fed the hungry, slaked the parched and healed the suffering. We sing again, psalms of joy in His coming . . . hymns of faith in His undying spirit ... songs of love which are veritable paeans of glory reverberating around the world to guide all His children toward an everlasting realization of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men.

The Sylva Herald

Christmas With Our Forefathers Of ${m America\, Held\, Deep\, Religious\, Meaning}$

the Sunday school of the Speednew brands of pioneers pushed custom of their forefathers. o'clock. The public is cordially ever westward to carve an empire It was a lucky boy who awoke There is little or no advantage in the present holiday.

grinding corn for beef calves as the added cost usually more than new world and its humble people diaper. made one feel that time had stood still. Christmas in those days somefirst Christmas.

> Those bleak plains could be the favorites of Santa. ones the Wise Men crossed, this Bethlehem. The faith of the trail breakers was that of the Wise

On Christmas Eve the pioneer folks would gather in a crude lit-She is a member of the South- tle church or schoolhouse where bors to celebrate. There were wolwas interested in the making of skimmed over the snowy country- the women there might be a piece of Seattle, Wash.; Roy Moseman, other interested women of her vegetable dyes of which she built side with sleigh bells jingling ac- of intricate handiwork to which Waynesville; Edgar Moseman, community in the weaving of love- up quite a profitable business. companiment to the caroling of some enterprising friend had de- Stonaga, Va.; Douglas and How-

Except in the forest regions, few out of virgin plains and wilder- Christmas morning to find a new nesses, was in marked contrast to jack-knife in his stocking; a lucky great grandsons and daughter who There was more meaning then or a calico doll from Santa Claus. exchanging elaborate gifts, dancin the words of The Book con- But that doll, made from spare ing to name bands, feasting with cerning shepherds in a certain strips of bright cloth, probably no worries that tomorrow there country watching their flocks by was more treasured than any monight. The solitudes, the closeness dern doll that can say "Mama," go of the stars, the virginity of the to sleep and perhaps require a

Children who received a slate pencil or a shell-box, a little afhow seemed much closer to that fair covered with shells and containing a mirror, were the special

so easy to gather with one's neighves in the timber and being caught in a sudden storm on pioneer trails for herself and the twenty odd she ships her products to shops to each one, and childhood rapture dance, often followed by a turkey

Gifts, if any, generally were in Surviving are the widow, Mrs. the form of utilitarian mittens, Mae Layman Moseman; five sons Prior to the war Mrs. Norton Home-made sleds and sleighs mufflers or home-made boots. For and one daughter, M. L. Moseman

Christmas on the frontier, as hung up their stockings, an old to shelter - the Star of Bethle-

But withall these hardy folks had as much fun as their greatgirl who received a string of beads again this year will celebrate by may be nothing in the electric refridgerator.

Firemen Del Good Job On Christmas Street Lights

Credit goes to the Sylva Fire Department for doing one of the best jobs in the history of our town in decorating the streets with Scouts held their Winter Camp at For goodies, no Christmas was Christmas lights. For the past few complete without its pans of pop- years the Fire Department has county on Friday, Saturday and corn and ropes of molasses taffy. been in charge of this end of the In rare cases there might be a bag Yuletide decorations and have won for Sylva the name of being one made possible by such contribu-In the isolated cabins it wasn't of the best decorated towns in Western North Carolina.

Edward M. Moseman Dies In Marion

Edward M. Moseman, 71, formerly of East LaPorte, this county, was taken to Ironton, Ohio, for Inc., of Asheville; 48 large cans of

Fire Dept. Extinguishes

Blaze At Hartman Home The Sylva Fire Department successfully extinguished a fire in the Walter Hartman home on Cope Creek yesterday. The Hartman's oil-water heater burst into flame but the fire was put out before any damage was done.

HERALD PUBLISHED EARLY THIS WEEK, CLOSE THROUGH 28

Due to the fact that our regular publication day falls on Christmas Day this year your Herald is being published two days earlier this week. This is being done for several reasons: to present our reggular Christmas greeting edition before Christmas and to give the office staff and shop force a few days' rest during the holidays. Many hours have been put in by the force during the past year. especially the last few weeks in order to bring you your paper, full of local news, editorials, features and advertisements, regularly each week. A little rest and recreation will help each one connected with the paper before we start the New

The office and shop will be closed from Wednesday eve thru Sunday, opding again on Monday, the 29th as usual.

Saturday Was Sunshine Day For Sylva Merchants

The Christmas rush was plainly evident in Sylva last Saturday as shoppers flooded the streets and stores doing their Christmas shopping. The store clerks were kept "busy as the bees" all day as a consistant flow of customers streamed in and out of every store

One could easily tell that Santa Claus was on his way by looking at the many toys and gifts being bought. Christmas was in the sir and one could also tell that there will be many, many pleased children and grown-ups alike on this Christmas morning.

Mrs. Will B. Dillard Buried Sunday, Dec. 21

Mrs. Will B. Dillard, 50, passed away at her home at 6:30 Thursday morning after a short illness Funera services were held Sunday at the Lovedale Baptist church and burial was in the Diflard cem-

She is survived by her husband; four daughters, Mrs. Harold Stephens and Mrs. Jake Phillips of Cullowhee, Mrs. Harold Hooper and Miss Willa Mae Dillard of Sylva; one son, Kenneth of Sylva; one sister, Mrs. Charlie Monroe of Gastonia; and one brother, Candler Nations of Marble,

Service Men's Books Ready For Delivery

The Herald is glad to announce to those who have purchased the Jackson County Service Men's books that their books will be ready for delivery Wednesday. Dec. 24. We will have extra copies of these books available for anyone wishing to buy them. We will appreciate it if thes who have ordered and paid fo their books will bring their receipts when they call for them.

82 Boy Scouts Enjoy Three Day Outing At Daniel Boone Camp In Pisgah Forest Area

Firms Of District Make Large Donations Of Food, For Success Of Camp

The Daniel Boone Council of the Smoky Mountain District of Boy the district camp in Haywood

The winter camp this year was tions as 250 quarts of sweet milk by the Pet Dairy of Waynesville, on the parade ground, and gathered which provided plenty of milk for each of the 80 boys enjoying the for competitive games between outing. Also 200 loaves of Hol- the different troops, which attendsome bread given by the Asheville ed from Highlands, Franklin, Baking Company, of Asheville; 360 mixed soups from Sylva Supply Co. Sylva; 2 bushels of Irish potatoes Gilliam, of Cherokee, and Avery from Jimmy Houser, Franklin, Means, Executive secretary of along with a number of other donations given by Franklin men. food the 80 boys were able to have voted her spare time for months. and D. Moseman, Black Mountain; this three day outing for only $1.00 Throughout the holiday season and Mrs. E. W. Harvey of Van each. The scouts and their lead- ber of scouts from Sylva attended this food, thus making the came

The boys and their leaders entered camp Friday afternoon and completed work of getting established before dark. They had their camp fire with games in the large mess hall that night. Saturday morning the entire group of boys and a number of men hiked to Shining Rock and returned to camp in time for lunch. In the afternoon they played games again that night in the mess hall Sylva, Alarka, Cherokee, and Cul-

Sunday school and church was held Sunday morning with Sam Daniel Boone Council, of Asheville. After more games and clearing of With these large donations of the camp the scouts and their leaders left for their respective homes. en articles. These women helpers that she renewed her interest and chidren enjoyed the sight of a candle burned in the attic win- Wert, Ohio, and one brother, C. A. ers wish to express their appress the camp which they said was an other family and other family and other family and one brother, C. A. ers wish to express their appress the camp which they said was an other family and other family ciation to everyone who donated of the most successful ever held

The Middleton girls have been employed by the Wheeler Hosiery mill at Brevard. The others involved in the accident are residents of the Little River section. Funeral arrangements are incomplete. PERSONALS