

WCTC Radio Club Recruiting Talent

With the motto, "You needn't be talent—just interested," the Radio club of Western Carolina Teachers college has launched a campaign to recruit new members. The club now has about 25 members.

A campus radio station, to be operated by the student body of the college through the medium of the Radio club, is scheduled to go on the air by the end of this month. It is to operate an hour a day, five days a week, on 550 cycles in the broadcast band.

Club members will broadcast, record, and write scripts for the programs.

Funeral Rites For Mrs. Jane Sellers

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Bethel Methodist church at Riceville for Mrs. Jane Sellers, 91, who died Saturday at the home of a son, Joe Sellers, of Asheville, R. F. D. No. 2. Rev. Guy F. Funderburk officiated.

The body of Mrs. Sellers was taken to the home of a daughter, Mrs. H. B. Cordell of Asheville, where it remained until time for the funeral.

Mrs. Sellers was the widow of Merritt Sellers, who passed away 2 years ago and who was also 91 at the time of his passing. They were both natives of the Shoal Creek section of Jackson county and lived here until a few years ago when they moved to Buncombe county.

DARRINGTON, W. NEWS

Well, here I come again to give you folks the news from our good little town. We have some snow now, about two inches. It has cleared off and is real cold at night, but the days are pretty.

It won't be long before we will be going back to logging and that is what we want, we soon get tired of doing nothing. I guess we will be seeing some new Tarheels coming out this way this spring. They always do as there are so many good jobs when all the camps start up in the spring. And from the way it looks now it will be a good year.

In spite of the winter weather, there is lots of building being done. Burline Ashe will soon have a nice home here in town finished. Alvin Clayton is also building a nice home, where he and Mrs. Clayton will live when it is finished.

Alvin Clayton and Miss Geraldine Wilbert were married Saturday, January 10 at the Darrington Baptist church with Rev. William Breedlove officiating.

Mrs. Delia Larson of Seattle, Wash. was maid of honor and Robert Clayton served as his brother's best man.

They left for a wedding trip to Bellingham, Wash., Spokane, Wash. and Vancouver, British Columbia.

This is the last one of the G. W. Clayton's children to be married—five daughters and two sons.

I have just heard that Charley Walker lost his home and everything he had by fire.

All the old friends are getting along fine and I will be writing again soon.

She was a member of the Shoal Creek Methodist church.

Pallbearers were Harley, Homer, Roy, Frank, Henry and Willie Sellers.

Surviving are three sons, Joe and W. T. of Asheville, R. F. D. No. 2, and Coley of Sylva; four daughters, Mrs. H. B. Cordell, Asheville, R. F. D. No. 2; Mrs. Delia Wickle of Dillsboro, Mrs. Ida Shelton, Cullowhee, and Mrs. Mattie Oxner of Webster; one brother, Andrew Ward of Whittier; 35 grandchildren and 47 great grandchildren.

COWARTS NEWS

C. P. C. and Mrs. R. A. Miller and two daughters, Grace and Helen, were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swanngim. Mrs. Miller is the sister of Mrs. Swanngim. The Millers are originally from near Springfield, Mo. but for the past three and one-half years have been making their home in Gaaanbanno Bay, Cuba. They have been recently transferred and were enroute to Jacksonville, Florida, where he will be stationed. He has served with the Navy for the past 16 years.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Brown of Pisgah Forest, visited Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stephens last week.

Mrs. Howell Stephens and grandson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nicholson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cary Cope of Waynesville visited his father and mother Sunday.

We were very sorry to hear of the sudden death of Mr. W. R. Cotter. His wife was well known here, having spent sometime here before going to Cullowhee to live. We extend our deepest sympathy to her.

Those of our community on the sick list last week were Mr. Hute Moffitt, Odell Lovedohl, Larry

Cork Oak Seedlings Available For Jackson Farmers

The Ninth District Office of the North Carolina Division of Forestry and Parks announces that their are 6,000 cork oak seedlings available at The Clayton forest nursery. These cork oak seedlings are being grown for experimental purposes and will be shipped free of charge, except for express charges, in lots of not less than 25 and more than 100 to any one person requesting them.

Fred Claridge, management head of the Division, points out that the Commercial possibilities of planting and growing cork oak in North Carolina are being studied throughout the State. The Division believes it will find the best site for growing these trees on a commercial basis. Any person interested in obtaining cork trees may receive additional information from Charles C. Pettit, Jr., District Forester, Box 936, Sylva.

Coward, Mrs. Lonnie Brendle, and Lila Coward. They are improving.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mes. J. B. Paeker back home. He has been employed in the eastern part of the state for the past several months. They are now making their home on Parker Farm.

Homer And Jethro Will Appear In Program

On Friday evening, January 23, in the Sylva Elementary School auditorium, Lowell Blanchard, will present the Mid-Day Merry-Go-Round, featuring HOMER and JETHRO, King recording artists, and CHET ATKINS and His Colorado Mountain Boys.
