Eyes Win Prize

THIS PHOTO of film actress Hazel Brooks won first prize at the International Society of Photographic Arts exhibition in Los Angeles. The judges said it was the expression in Hazel's eyes that won her the award. The picture and 119 other prize-winning photographs will be shown abroad. (International)

Meeting Of Jackson County Council For Home Demonstration

A meeting of the Jackson county Council of the Home Demonstration clubs was held in the office of the Home agent in the courthouse on Saturday morning, January 17, with the president, Mrs. Dennis Higdon, presiding. The outstanding business transacted was the election of officers for the new year, namely: president, Mrs. F. H. Brown, Cullowhee; vice-president, Mrs. Ras Barrett, Dillsboro; secretary, Mrs. Harry Shelton, Qualla; and treasurer, Mrs. Edd Reed of Sylva. In accepting the office as president Mrs. Brown asked the same loyal support and cooperation from the members as was given Mrs. Higdon during her several years as president. Mrs. Brown also called a meeting for Wednesday of last week of all the incoming officers together with the outgoing officers that the work may be organized and ready to function effectively upon the arrival of the recently appointed home agent, Mrs. Francis Dillingham, of Buncombe county, for Jackson county. Miss Dillingham is expected to begin her work here

February 1.

The treasurer's report showed $114.14 in the treasury. She also mentioned some of the financial obligations of the Home Demonstration club: Jane S. McKimmon fund of $1.00 from each club; club dues of 50 cents per club; "Friendship" dues of one cent per member.

Available at this meeting were the names of the officers of the following clubs: Beta—Mrs. Cole Ridley, president; Mrs. Joe Davis, vice-president; Mrs. F. M. Williams, secretary-treasurer; Cullowhee—Mrs. Ruth Wilen, president; Mrs. Cole, vice-president; Mrs. Joe Wallin, secretary-treasurer; Glenville—Mrs. Charles Russell, president; Mrs. Jim Bryson, vice-president; Mrs. R. Lee Moss, secretary-treasurer; Qualla—Mrs. June Shelton, president; Mrs. Thelma Cathey, vice-president; Mrs. Ruth Bradley, secretary-treasurer; Love Field—Mrs. Dennis Higdon, president; Mrs. Lewis Bumgarner, vice-president; Mrs. Dillard Cope, secretary-treasurer.

The retiring officers of the council with Mrs. Higdon as president are Mrs. M. K. Hinds, secretary, and Mrs. F. M. Williams, treasurer.

Well finished, harmonious furniture is an essential of a pleasing, home-like room.
