Junior Woman's Club Has Meeting

The Juniors Woman's club met Wednesday evening with Miss Dorothy Sue Tallent for the January meeting with the president, Miss Virginia Madison in charge. Their new sponsor, Miss Mary Henson, member of the Halcyon club, the sponsoring organization, met with them for the first time.

An unusually large amount of business was transacted. The club voted to make a donation of $100 to the fund for the Sylva band. Plans were inaugurated for a benefit party and for a dance in the early spring.

The club also decided to sponsor the program for the teen-age group, which has been so well carried on for the past year under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bales, who feel that they can not do it any longer.

Each Saturday evening some of the club members will be present to act as chaperones and supervisors of the recreation.

A musical program was presented by Miss Alice Weaver, vocalist, and Miss Virginia Madison, pianist. Miss Weaver sang several numbers and the club joined with her in singing one group of songs. Miss Madison rendered some musical selections and acted as accompanist for Miss Weaver.

Miss Tallent served a salad course.

The person having the program was unable to attend so tables were arranged for cards and several progressions played.

The valentine motif was further carried out in decorating the other parts of the house.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. W. J. Fisher and greeting them in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Montieith and their son, Hugh, Jr. Mrs. Cyrus Nicholson invited them into the dining room where Mrs. Charles Smith, of Canton, sister of the hostess, served cake from one end of the beautifully appointed table. From a silver service placed at the other end Mrs. Claude Campbell, sister of the host, poured coffee. The table, covered with an embroidered linen cloth, had for a centerpiece a silver bowl filled with white carnations. This was flanked on either side by three silver holders with white tapers. Mrs. Porter Scroggs served mints and nuts.

Household Hint

To remove ink stains from wall-paper, apply full-strength chlorine bleach sparingly by moistening a cloth and patting the spot gently. Do not rub it. Blot it immediately and wash with water. If it is a non-washable wallpaper the colors may bleed or run, so try it first on an inconspicuous part of the paper.
