

For The Women

Society News and Club Activities

Phone 110

Young Adult Class Has Party

The Young Adult class of the Methodist Sunday School had their monthly meeting in Allison building on Monday evening, with a large number of the members attending.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wilson and Miss Lucile Wilson were hosts for the occasion. Games pertaining to Easter had been arranged and were played by the group. A short business session was held and the monthly collection taken for the boys supported by the class at the Methodist orphanage.

The hosts served sandwiches, cookies, potato chips, and coca-colas.

Legion Auxiliary Has Children's Parties

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Dan Tompkins and Mrs. Posey Cathey, assisted by other members of the Legion Auxiliary, had the first of two parties they are sponsoring for children. This one was attended by children in the first, second and third grades. Games and other forms of amusement were provided for the children.

On Tuesday afternoon of next week the second party will be given for girls and boys in the fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh grades. A charge of 25 cents for each child is being made and the proceeds will be used to carry on the local work of the auxiliary.

Miss Cannon Entertains Miss Wilson, Bride-Elect

Miss Matilda Jane Wilson, bride-elect of April, was complimented at a pretty bridge shower Thursday evening when Miss Rebecca Sue Cannon entertained in her honor at her home in Dillsboro. Upon arrival the honoree was given a corsage of white carnations.

The living room where four tables were set up for bridge, was decorated with bowls of jonquils. At the conclusion of the games Mrs. Rudy Hardy won the high score award and Miss Nancy Allison received the low score prize. Both, in turn, presented them to the honor guest.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. M. B. Cannon, served a salad course with cake and coffee.

The guests were then invited into the dining room where the table held a number of lovely packages which had been brought by the guests for the honoree, who opened them and found each to hold a piece of lingerie.

Those attending the party were Mrs. Jackson Allison, Mrs. E. E. Tweed, Mrs. C. C. Williams, Mrs. Rudy Hardy, Mrs. Roger Dillard, Mrs. Clyde Rector, Mrs. Charles Poteet, Mrs. Jerry Ledford, Mrs. Dan B. Hooper, Mrs. Henry Brady, Mrs. Jim Myers, Mrs. J. H. Wilson, and Misses Nancy Allison, Mary Henson, Dorothy May McKee, Dorothy Sue Tallent, Anne Enloe, Hicks Wilson and Agnes Wilson.

Halcyon Club Will Have Easter Bazaar

Beginning Thursday and lasting through Saturday the Halcyon Woman's club will hold an Easter bazaar at the Professional Drug store. They will sell dyed eggs, filled Easter baskets, aprons, homemade candy and other items. The proceeds will go toward financing the local activities of the club.

Miss Juanita Morris Weds Warren Moody

The marriage of Miss Juanita Morris to W. Warren Moody has been announced by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Morris of Marion. The ceremony was performed in the First Presbyterian church of Arlington, Va., on March 14.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gorda Moody, of Erastus. He served with the armed forces for four years, and was overseas three years of this time. He is now employed by Eastern Air Lines, located at the National Air Port in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Moody has been employed in a government position in Washington.

Following a wedding trip to New York the couple will reside in Arlington.

Lovefield H. D. Club Meets With Mrs. Higdon

The Lovefield Home Demonstration club held its regular monthly meeting, Thursday, March 18, with the president, Mrs. D. C. Higdon. Eleven members and Miss Mary Johnston, Home Demonstration agent, were present. This being our first meeting with the new agent, the year's work was planned and committees were selected.

Curb marketing was discussed and it was agreed by every member that they were interested in getting one started.

Miss Johnston gave a very interesting discussion on Health and Nutrition.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Whittington-Snyder Wedding Solemnized

On Sunday, March 14, Mrs. E. Whittington of Shirley, South Hampton, England, and Charles A. Snyder of Dillsboro were married in Clayton, Ga.

The bride wore a wine suit with gray accessories and a corsage of white carnations. On Monday evening the couple held a small informal reception at their home in Dillsboro.

Mrs. Snyder came to the United States in August, 1947, and has since made her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Dillard. Mr. Snyder is a merchant and civic leader of Dillsboro.

Junior Woman's Club Has Monthly Meet

On last Wednesday evening Mrs. Charles Poteet was hostess for the March meeting of the Junior Woman's club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Poteet. The president, Miss Virginia Madison, conducted the business session. Plans were completed for the dance to be sponsored by the club on Saturday evening. Mrs. Clyde Rector, chairman, Miss Elizabeth McKee and Miss Elizabeth Warren were named as a nominating committee to name officers to be elected for next year.

Mrs. C. C. Buchanan, librarian at Western Carolina Teachers College, was the guest speaker for the occasion, speaking on the United Nations. Mrs. Buchanan told of her visit to a session of the UN and showed pictures taken at that time. She also reviewed the president's speech which he had made that day.

Mrs. Poteet carried out the St. Patrick's Day color and motif in her refreshments, serving ribbon sandwiches, green and white ice cream, and individual cakes decorated with shamrocks.

Mrs. Lucy Shelton Hostess For Qualla H. D. Club

The Qualla Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. Lucy Shelton on Tuesday, March 16, for the regular monthly meeting. There were 22 members present.

The president, Mrs. June Shelton, presided. During the business session Mrs. Hilda Battle was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. Ruth Bradley, who moving out of the community. Year books were distributed and project leaders appointed. The club voted favorably for the curb market in Sylva.

The meeting was then turned over to Miss Mary Johnston, new Home Demonstration agent, who gave a very interesting talk on Mainnutrition and Ways to Prevent it.

During the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Mary Kinsland on April 20.

Kathryn Hair Observes Fourth Birthday

On Wednesday of last week Mrs. J. L. Hair entertained the children who attend kindergarten at her home each morning, the occasion being the fourth birthday anniversary of her young daughter, Kathryn. Twenty-two little folk were present that morning.

The children were entertained with games and contests, in which Yvonne Crawford and Jennie McGuire were the winners and were given prizes. The birthday cake with its four lighted candles was brought in and served with ice cream and fruit punch. Baskets filled with nuts and mints were given as favors.

Junior Woman's Club Sponsors Dance

The second of series of dances to be sponsored by the Junior Woman's club during the year, was held Saturday evening at the Community House, with Teddy Martin and his orchestra furnishing the music. Several Sylva people are members of this orchestra.

The dance was a splendid success from every angle—a large crowd and good music to dance by, and the young women made enough money to be able to make a nice payment on their pledge to the high school band, for which the proceeds are to go.

The third dance is scheduled to be the latter part of May or early in June.

Singing Convention To Meet

The Central Jackson singing convention will meet at the Scott's Creek Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, April 1, at 2 o'clock. Three outstanding quartets will be present to participate in the singing. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Use Herald want ads for results—

W.S.C.S. And W.S.G. Guild Have Joint Meeting

On Friday evening the monthly joint meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Sylva Methodist church was held in Allison building with 22 members present. Mrs. Harry Hastings, president was in charge of the business session.

Mrs. A. D. Parker was elected delegate to represent the society at the annual meeting to be held in Asheville in April. Plans were discussed for getting new draperies for Allison building and Mrs. E. L. McKee, Mrs. F. M. Williams, Mrs. Dan Moore and Dr. Noracella Wilson were named a committee to see about this.

Mrs. Dan Tompkins read the Easter story from the Bible for the devotional and gave an interesting program on the subject, "Christian Highways in Japan", this being the accepted course of study for this month.

PERSONALS

Mrs. C. C. Pettit and daughter, Elizabeth, who spent last week in Asheville, arrived home Monday and stayed until Wednesday when they with Mr. Pettit returned to Asheville to be with Mr. Pettit's father who is ill at his home in Asheville. Mr. Pettit, Sr., is improving.

Mrs. J. J. Dillard of Fremont, N. C., arrived Wednesday for a visit with her son, M. C. Cunningham, and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul P. Thrower of Charlotte came Tuesday to attend the ceremony in connection with the breaking of ground for the Sylva Presbyterian church. They were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray and returned to Charlotte Wednesday.

Mrs. Z. L. Cooke has returned to her home in Asheville after spending last week in Sylva. Miss Barbara Jo Cook, who also spent last

Juanita Norton Honored With Surprise Party

On Saturday evening, March 20, the Misses Ethel Haskett and Claudia Sanford honored Miss Juanita Norton with a surprise birthday party at the latter's home. Several new and interesting games were played after which the honoree opened her many nice gifts. A beautiful birthday cake was cut by Miss Norton and served with coca-colas to the fifteen guests attending.

week here, remained for a few days longer visit as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Corbin.

Harry Hastings will arrive Friday from the University of Richmond to spend the spring vacation with his mother, Mrs. H. R. Hastings.

Mrs. H. E. Montieth has gone to Mebane to spend several days with her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Hupman, and Mr. Hupman.

Mrs. C. B. Allison has returned to her home in Webster after spending the winter months with her brother, James Keener, in Chattanooga, Tenn., and with a sister in West Virginia.

Rev. R. E. McClure, secretary of the Asheville Presbytery, and Mrs. McClure attended the breaking of ground for the Sylva Presbyterian church Tuesday. Rev. Mr. McClure delivered the principal message for the occasion.

Mrs. Eva McHan and Mrs. John Ashe, mother and sister of Vernon McHan, one of the charter members of the Sylva Presbyterian church, were Sylva visitors Tuesday, coming to attend the breaking of ground for the church which construction will be begun in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bain will go to Atlanta Saturday where Mrs. Bain will be admitted to Emory University hospital for treatment.

Misses Edith Sims and Helen Guffey were Franklin visitors last Sunday.

Cashiers Electric Shop

Electrical Work Is Our Business
WE STUDY TO HELP YOU HAVE SAFER HOMES

and use the best materials money can buy

ROMEX, per foot 5c
OUTLET BOXES, each 18c
Porcelain Lamp Holders, each 25c
T. Rated Toggle Switches, each 32c

WESTINGHOUSE WATER PUMPS and UNIVERSAL APPLIANCES. FULLY AUTOMATIC UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC RANGE

List Price $309.00 — Our Price $269.00

See Us For Your Electrical Wiring, Fixtures and Appliances
Sherley Franks, Mgr. Cashiers, N. C.

Announcing . . .

THE OPENING OF

The Men's Store

ON

Thursday, March 25

IN THE REMODELED BUILDING FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY STOVALL'S CAFE

We will carry a complete line of fine quality ready-to-wear for MEN and BOYS . . . Including clothes for every occasion and for every use from the finest for Dress and Business wear to Heavy Work Clothes and Sports wear.

We are now stocking our spring and summer suits and sport clothes . . . You will want to see them before you buy.

We extend a cordial invitation to everyone in Jackson County and vicinity to visit us whether you wish to buy at this time or not . . .

We Will Also Carry A Complete Line Of Sporting Goods

★

The Men's Store

Phil Stovall and Frank Fricks,
Owners and Managers

Sylva North Carolina

Easter Gift FLOWERS

The very loviest way to say "Happy Easter" is with a bouquet, corsage or plant of beautiful flowers. See our fine selection of fresh and lovely.

EASTER LILIES	BEGONIAS	CINNARIES
MIXED POTS	ORCHIDS	GARDENIAS
ROSES	CARNATIONS	CAMELLIAS
SWEET PEAS	GLADIOLUS	FRESIA

Corsages $1.50 and up Plants 60c and up

★ ★

Sylva Flower and Gift Shop

Phone 280 Main Street Sylva, N. C.