Jones-Queen Wedding Announced At Tea

The marriage of Mrs. Mary Janes to Carey Queen, which took place in Clayton, Georgia on Saturday, March 20, was announced by her sister, Mrs. Clifton Fisher, at a small tea given at her home on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Roy Reed and Mrs. Joe W. Davis presided at the tea table, which was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of forsythia and bridal wreath and flanked on either side by crystal candelabra holding yellow tapers.

The house was decorated throughout with mixed spring flowers.

About twenty-five of the bride's close friends called.

Matilda Wilson Honored At Bridal Shower

Mrs. John Henson and Mrs. C. Williams were joint hostesses on Friday evening when they entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Matilda Wilson, who will be married on April 7th to Eugene Lavange of Scituate, Mass. The party was held at Mrs. Henson's home. Its decorations of pink, yellow and white spring flowers, formed a pretty setting for the affair.

Several contests were played. The winners were Mrs. T. C. Wilson, Mrs. T. O. Wilson, Miss Jane Wilson and Mrs. J. H. Wilson, who gave each of the prizes to the honoree.

The hostess served individual cakes, ice cream, punch and mints in small baskets with bridal designs.

The honoree then opened her shower of gifts.

The guest list was made up of relatives of the honoree which included her mother, Mrs. J. H. Wilson, her sister, Mrs. E. E. Tweed, Misses Hicks and Agnes Wilson, her aunts, Mrs. D. D. Hooper, Mrs. J. E. Buckner, Mrs. W. L. Jones, and Misses Mary Henson, Rebecca Sue Cannon and Lucile Wilson.

Cashiers H. D. Club Has March Meeting

The Cashiers Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. L. L. Allen on Tuesday, March 23. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Sam Bryson.

The club had continued to carry on while the county had no agent, each member displaying handwork and other things interesting to the club.

With Miss Mary Johnston, our new Home Demonstration leader, the members are getting into action again and hope to have a full and interesting program this year.

The club project leaders were appointed as follows: Mrs. L. L. Allen, Homecraft; Mrs. T. S. Lance, Home Gardening and Poultry; Mrs. Roy Bunn, Home Furnishings; Mrs. Minnie Cole, Home Management; Mrs. E. H. Loisel, Family Life; Mrs. Howard Zachary, Clothing; Mrs. Charlie Passmore, 4-H Club leader.

Miss Johnston brought before the club the idea of a club curb market in Sylva. The members agreed that it was a good thing and voted that it be made a reality.

Ideas for curing hams were given by members of the club.

A committee was asked to visit the clinic and report on the condition of the building and the repairs to be made on the plumbing. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Allen.

McClure-Brown Wedding Solemnized In Asheville

Miss Barbara McClure and Frank Farnum Brown, both of Asheville, were united in marriage on Sunday afternoon, March 27, at 4:30 o'clock in the Episcopal Chapel at Christ School. The Chapel was beautifully decorated with white gladioli, Easter lilies and altar candles. The ceremony was performed by Father Dahl.

A musical program was presented on the pipe organ by the church organist and Mrs. Rachel Leonard Smith sang "Because" by d'Hardelot.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, J. C. Cannon of Dillsboro, wore a Dressmaker suit of aqua wool with matching hat and other accessories in gray. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Miss Mary Joe McClure, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. She was dressed in a dusty pink suit with hat in the same color. Her bouquet was a nosegay of mixed spring flowers.

Bobby Hoffman of Asheville served as best man.

The bride's mother wore a navy suit with navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a black dress with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias tinted pink.

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Mrs. Rachel McClure of Asheville. She graduated from Lee-Edwards high school, Asheville, and is now attending the Asheville Technicians school.

Mr. Brown, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Montgomery, Ala. graduated from Christ school. After serving in the armed forces for five years, he returned to Asheville and is now manager of the Commercial Credit company.

On Monday evening preceding the wedding, Mrs. J. C. Cannon and Mrs. Wayne Terrell, aunt and cousin of the bride, entertained with a buffet supper for the two immediate families.

Later in the evening a few intimate friends of the bride, who formerly made her home in Dillsboro, were invited in for a cake-cutting. Out-of-town guests besides the two families were Mrs. E. E. Fryar and Mrs. Walter Fleenor of Knoxville and Mrs. George Brown, Jr., of Chester, S. C.
