Miss Weaver Entertains For Miss Wilson

Miss Matilda Wilson, Bride-elect of this week, was again honored on Monday evening when Miss Alice Weaver entertained at a dinner party at the Lodge in Waynesville.

A long table arranged in the main room was centered with a two-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. On either side were candelabra holding pink and yellow candles interspersed with vases of jonquil and narcissus. At either corner were bride's slippers filled with apple blossoms and tied with white-ribbon.

At the conclusion of the dinner the cake was set before the honoree who cut and served it to the guests.

Covers were laid for the bride-elect, Mrs. J. H. Wilson, mother of the honoree, Eugene B. LaVange, bridegroom-elect, Miss Agnes Wilson, Miss Hicks Wilson, Frank Westerhoff, Howard Allison, Hal Wilson, Mrs. Grover Wilkes, Mrs. E. L. McKee, and Miss Weaver.

Miss Wilson, E. B. LaVange Wed

In a ceremony beautiful in its simplicity Miss Matilda Jane Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson of Sylva, became the bride of Eugene B. LaVange, son of B. H. LaVange of Scituate, Mass., Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Allison Chapel. The Rev. W. Q. Grigg, pastor of the bride,

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar formed in front of the fireplace of pine trees, ferns, cherry blossoms and seven branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Floor baskets of white gladioli were placed at either side.

Mrs. Grover Wilkes and Miss Alice Weaver presented a program of wedding music. Mrs. Wilkes played "Andante With Variations" by Haydn. Miss Weaver sang "I Love Thee" by Grieg and "Because" by d'Hardelot. "To The Evening Star" by Wagner was played during the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, John H. Wilson, Jr., wore a gown of white slipper satin made on princess lines, with the skirt ending in a circular train. The round net yoke was trimmed in satin appliques and seed pearls. The long sleeves ended in calla lily points and covered buttons extended the full length of the waist in the back. Her two-tiered, finger-tip veil was fastened to a coronet of old lace. She carried a white prayer book, topped with a white orchid and showered with white streamers.

For going away the bride wore an aqua gabardine suit with black accessories and the orchid detached from her prayer book.

Miss Agnes Wilson, sister of the bride and her only attendant, wore a dress of spring green marquisette and tulle. The yoke of marquisette was outlined with double folds of the tulle. Similar folds were arranged below the waist line and ended in a bustle bow in the back. With this she wore a headpiece of yellow net and flowers and an arm bouquet of mixed yellow flowers.

Frank Westerhoff of Scituate, Mass., served as best man. Ushers were Wade Wilson and Hal Wilson, brothers of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a silk print dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink camellias.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. In the receiving line were the bride's parents and members of the wedding party.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. E. E. Tweed, Mrs. John H. Wilson, Jr., invited them into the dining room, where Miss Hicks Wilson presided. The table, covered with an imported cut work cloth, was centered with double crystal candelabra holding ivory tapers tied with green bows and apple blossoms. At one end of the table was set the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Streamers of ferns dotted with apple blossoms, completed the decorations. Miss Lucile Wilson served punch and after the bride had cut the first slice, Miss Hicks Wilson cut and served the cake. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Roger Dillard, Mrs. Clyde Rector, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, Mrs. James Myers and Miss Mary Alice Hollifield.

Miss Rebecca Sue Cannon was in charge of the gifts and Mrs. C. C. Williams of the guest register.

Mrs. LaVange received her education at Sylva High school and Western Carolina Teachers college and graduated from the School of Nursing of the University of Virginia.

Mr. LaVange graduated from Scituate High school and attended Boston University. He served in the U. S. Army for three years, fifteen months in overseas service.

Following the reception the couple left for Chicago where they will make their home.

Out-of-town guests included Frank Westerhoff of Scituate, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wilson, Jr., of Swannanoa, Mrs. J. H. Hollifield, and Miss Mary Alice Hollifield of Brevard, Mr. and Mrs. James Myers and Mrs. Barney

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer aching backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pain, swelling up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.
