QUALLA P. T. A. HAS MEETING

The PTA met Friday, April 2, at 2 o'clock in Miss Jennie Cathey's room at the Qualla school, with Mrs. Lillian Goss, president, in charge.

The outstanding business discussed was the requirements for standardizing the school. The purchasing of a new 16mm sound motion picture projector was brought out.

Mrs. Mary Kinsland was elected chairman of all the grade mothers.

Mrs. Albert Patton, Mrs. Grace Johnson and Mrs. Lillian Goss were selected as grade mothers for the third grade, Miss Lucy Hall's room.

The pre-school clinic will be at the Qualla school April 20. All children to be of school age next year are compelled to have all vaccinations before entering next term.

The next meeting is scheduled for May 3, when Mrs. Ben Cathey, the music teacher, will have a musical program with the music students. All parents are urged to be present. This will be the last meeting before school closes.

The prize for having the most parents present was won by Mrs. Betty Harris' room, the 5th and 6th grades.

Barkers Creek News

Rockdale Baptist church of Barkers Creek held an all day meeting Sunday, April 18, with an estimated attendance of five to six hundred people. Singing services began at 10 a. m. and the pastor preached at 11 a. m.

Dinner was spread on the ground at the noon hour. An offering was taken for the building of the new church which amounted to $573.

All visiting preachers and singers were given an opportunity to talk and sing during the afternoon.

The church wishes to thank everyone for the good attendance and offering.
