BRIEFS -- IN DETAIL

By Bob Terrell

Although the Brookshire Mills club is leading the Knoxville City Baseball league, they proved to be the least competition Sylva has met so far this season. The Sylva boys had little trouble in pounding out those base knocks and Knoxville's intiled looked more fragile than a window pane.

However, things are going to be different next Sunday at Mark Watson Field when Sam Patton brings his Enka boys against the Legionaires. At the present Enka is roosting on the top rung of the WNC Industrial league ladder with only one league defeat on their record. They'll prove sufficient competition for the Sylva club to make the game interesting.

What about those red hot Asheville Tourists!!! Of all the lambasting, ballbusting baseball clubs we've ever seen, they take the cake. It's been years since Asheville fans have seen the like, and its boys like those that make major league stars. We don't know how true it is, but they say that

A total of 10,368,000 hired and family workers were engaged in farm work on May 1. This was 1 per cent more than a year ago. The increase over last year was almost entirely in hired workers.

McConnell Holds Spring Basketball At Cullowhee

Western Carolina basketball coach E. R. (Tuck) McConnell polished off his spring basketball training program at WCTC last Tuesday night with an intra-squad game.

All the veterans of last year's team with the exception of Howard Barnhorst who graduates this week and Veo Rhodes who is playing pro baseball at Hendersonville, worked through the drills.

Several high school prospects for next year's squad turned out and went through the paces with the varsity boys.

McConnell made no predictions as to the Catamounts' chances in the North State Conference next winter, however it is known that his squad will be at full strength with only Barnhorst missing from the lineup and plenty of new boys coming in with hopes of playing ball for the Cats.

L. BROWN SIGNS WITH CARDINALS, OPTIONED TO MARION

Lawson Brown, righthanded fireball pitcher who worked for the Sylva American Legion last year and the Western Carolina Catamounts this spring, has signed the dotted line on a contract with the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League.

Brown was optioned to Marion

SUMNER AND DEYERMOND EACH HURL FIVE - HIT VICTORY FOR SYLVA

Cunningham And Dillard Blast 1st Sylva Homers

The high-rolling Sylva Legionaires literally slaughtered a badly outclassed Brookshire Mills team from Knoxville, Tenn. Saturday and Sunday, by scores of 19-1 and 10-4. Rush Sumner and Warren

Deyermund each turned in a five-hit pitching job for Sylva and were in trouble at no time in either game.

Sylva fans saw their first Legion home runs in the two game series with Jack (Lard) Cunningham hitting for the circuit with two runners on in the first game and Ben Dillard duplicating the feat in Sunday's game with no one on. Triples were turned in by George Lee, Bob Phillips and Harry Duke, and doubles by J. C. Price, Luther Norton and Lee. So the fans who have seen the lack of extra base hits by the Sylva club in previous games, got their fill this week-end.

SYLVA, ENKA WILL CLASH NEXT SUNDAY MARK WATSON FIELD

The Enka Rayonites, present leaders of the WNC Industrial league, will invade Sylva next Sunday to meet the Legionaires on Mark Watson Field at 3:30 p.m.

The high flying Legionaires who have won 6 out of 10 games played thus far will probably find Sam Patton's bunch to be one of the toughest teams they have faced this season.

Skipper George Lee is uncertain as to who will be on the hill for Sylva while Enka's pitcher is also indefinite.

In the newly organized Western Carolina Class D league and will pitch for that club until he is further notified. He has worked two games for Marion so far, winning one and losing one.

Brown will be remembered by Sylva fans as one of the fastest hurlers ever to don a Sylva uniform and for his clutch hurling. He seemed to be better when the chips were down and runners aboard. Also, his strikeout record was one of the best ever compiled by a Sylva pitcher.

SYLVA BATTING AVERAGES

Ben Dillard continued to lead the Sylva Legionaires hitting parade through the games with Brookshire Mills although his average slumped from .500 to a neat .426. George Lee moved into second place with .394 as Ike Olson fell to third with .375 and Luther Norton to fourth with .364.

Dillard was also the big gun in all other departments leading in total hits with 20, runs scored—13, runs batted in—12, and two base hits—4.

Price's ground ball, and to third on Ben Dillard's outfield fly, then stole home as Price stole second. Price scored on Lee's single.

In the fifth and sixth innings Sylva's hitters went wild both at the plate and on the bases as nine hits, six errors and eight stolen bases spelled 17 runs and a crushing defeat for the Knoxville club.

Pitcher Rush Sumner had the Brookshire boys eating out of his hands throughout the game and in the last three innings he threw only 15 pitches, just dropping the ball over and making them hit. And they hit — little pop-ups.

In Sunday's game Warren Deyermund was master of the mound all the way as he elbowed a five-hit game and had perfect backing as Sylva played their first errorless game of the season. Tucker and Taylor collected homers for Knoxville and Dillard for Sylva.

Sylva jumped to a 3-0 lead in the first inning when Skipper George Lee doubled with Olson on third and Dillard on second. Then Sylva added five more in the third, one in the fifth on Harry Duke's triple and Deyermund's single, and one in the eighth on Dillard's homer.

Deyermund struck out nine men and walked only three. Duke and Dillard led Sylva in Sunday's game with two hits each, while Bob Phillips and Lee had three each Saturday including a triple apiece.
