Woman's Society Of Christian Service Has Study Course

"Great Prayers of the Bible" was the mission study book presented by Mrs. E. L. McKee to the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service when it met at her home on Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The book, written by Charles M. Laymon, professor of literature and religious education at Searritt College, Nashville, Tenn., deals with great prayers of characters in both the old and new testaments. One interesting fact pointed out was that these special prayers were not always answered.

Prior to the study course Mrs. McKee served a buffet supper to the 20 members attending the study, and following this a brief business session was held under the direction of Mrs. Harry Hastings, the president.

Cullowhee Woman's Club Has Monthly Meeting

Miss Anne Albright, Mrs. Wade Hampton and Miss Cordelia Camp were joint hostesses for the May meeting of the Cullowhee Woman's club which met in the classroom building on last Tuesday evening. Miss Mabel Tyree, the president, conducted a business session.

Mrs. D. M. Hall and Mrs. Charlotte Watson were in charge of the program. Miss Watson taught the ladies to do a stencil and each member made a stencil for herself, choosing the pattern she desired. Some were made for blouses, for curtains, scarfs and other designs.

The hostess served strawberry shortcake and coffee.
