SENIORS AT WCTC

had delivered a commencement address at W.CTC once before. That was 45 years ago, when he was serving in the Senate of North Carolina, a rellow-senator of Jackson county's tamed Walter F. Moore

"We cannot," observed the senator, who is also a termer governor of North Carolina, "let the pursuit of material things alone dominate our lives. Thrift, industry, striving for success are fine. But we must not lose sight of the non-material things, the human values, the investment of part of our energy in community betterment; we must not let material concerns cloud our vision of greater things. Cultural life must not be neglected.

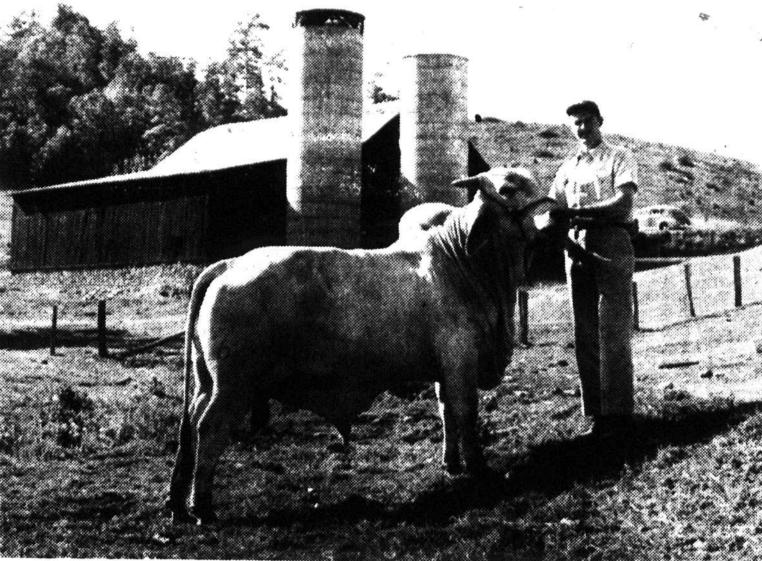

"America's geographical frontiers are admittedly gone. But the frontiers of service are still here: service to our country, service to the world, service to humanity.

"There is no more isolation. The world beckons, demanding faith demanding legalty, demanding integrity, demanding character in those who answer its summons. The foad to success and greatness is not blocked; obstacles can be over-

Speaking of today's economic opobserved that there is virtually no unemployment now, as compared with depression years. He also contrasted present national income with that of depression years.

Touching briefly on his Senate experiences, Senator Hoey praised the G. I. Education laws and the ready for service this fall. Federal Aid to Education bill, and told of soil conservation measures and of the steps being taken to combat Communism and other

BRAHMAN HERD BULL OF W. H. CLARK AT CULLOWHEE

Shown above is one of the herd bulls used in the Brahman herd of W. H. Clark at portunities, the former governor Cullowhee. This bull is only two years old and weighs 1500 pounds. At 5 years old he will weigh 2500 pounds. This young bull heads a herd of 53 purebred Brahmans from the best Brahman blood lines in the United States. Stedman Mitchell, shown holding the bull, is herd manager and one of the men of the Cullowhee community who help purchase and bring in these cattle. Three other bulls are used in this herd.

Mr. Clark has ten bull yearlings of this same breeding for sale which will be Introducing the Senator to the 76 graduates and the audience of about 500 persons, WCTC President W. E. Bird called him "one of our great politicians, in the best sense of the word; one of the great men of America." Senator Hoey acknowledged the introduction by saying that it was worth making the trip just to hear so many nice things said about him.
