

Sylva Lions Active With Work Among The Blind

Under the leadership of President T. Walter Ashe the Sylva Lions Club has been especially active in the work among the blind. The committee for the blind work in the club reports the following activities since January 1.

1. "Working with the State Blind Commission we have set up O'Dell Bryson, colored, in the laundry business. He was sent to the Greenville training center with the club paying part of his expenses. We also paid for the installation of his equipment.
2. "We now have another blind person at the Center, Geneva Allen, of Webster, who is taking training. We are paying part of this expense.
3. "We have sent the following to the Asheville eye clinic where they were fitted for glasses, the club paying part of this expense: Elizabeth McClure, Caroline Bryson, Barbara Brown, Pricilla Brown, Ruth Hamilton, Leroy Mathis and Larry Cabe.

5. "We are contributing $5.00 per month to the case worker for the blind for Guide Service."

The Sylva Lions Club also paid half of the cost of the equipment for the playground at the community center in Sylva.

Vets Problems

Q—I am a World War II veteran and have been totally disabled for a few months. At the end of my sixth month of total disability, will I have to continue paying my National Service Life Insurance premiums or is a waiver granted automatically?

Q—Who is entitled to the compensation or pension check received prior to the death of a veteran?

Shoal Creek Missionary Has Meeting May 14

Mrs. Albert Patton entertained the Shoal Creek missionary group at her home on Friday night, May 14. Mrs. Alton Edwards was assisted in presenting the devotional by Rev. Mr. Thorne. Following the business session, the president, Mrs. Patton, introduced the speaker, Mrs. E. L. McKee. Jesus and His Life was the subject upon which Mrs. McKee gave a most informative and interesting talk. At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Patton served a salad, strawberry shortcake, and a beverage to her guests.

For the June meeting Mrs. Gray Martin will serve as hostess.

JACKSON FARM BRIEFS

By J. C. McDarris

Discovered a new town in Jackson County the other day; "Blue Town" above Balsam. Not much farming being done there but a wonderful example of using native shrubs in home beautification and for shade. In talking with one of the citizens, I asked him how often he got to Sylva. His answer was, "Well, I don't get that way very often. Road is too bad." The George Cowards below Balsam are not only making a small farm make them a living but they are making it a good place to live. Motor oil stain prevents the eye from seeing any weather beaten boards; grass in the yard, native shrubs and clean surroundings gives a good impression. Frank Saunders and wife above Willets are two young people become farm owners with a desire for improvement. Better housing, soil improvement, scientific alfalfa production and working toward purebred cattle are their goals. A good combination.

All pioneering is not finished. The veterans taking agricultural training are learning, seeing, trying and succeeding with new things in farming. A veteran told me the other day, "When I got on this program I threw away my rocking chair." Veteran Kenneth Moore and wife on the head of Cedar Creek have made the following progress: Bought 120 acres of land, new house with seeded yard and landscaping, concrete bank house, new fenced pasture of 50 acres, 25 acres of land brought back into cultivation, live-at-home program and two fine boys. A card of congratulations to a program which helps people to help themselves and to the veteran trainees who are doing that very thing. J. C. Franks of Bee Creek could have set down with his pension after those Jap machine gun slugs ripped his stomach and arm apart but no, he carries a normal farm load. Challenges any one with two good arms to lay off a straighter row that he did with one. Courage knows no obstacles; faith, no defeat.

Mrs. Joe Deitz of Moody Branch, brags that her capon chickens will reach 20 pounds by Christmas. Have a few caponized for Thanksgiving and Christmas tables. They will also raise baby chicks between time. Agriculture teachers John Corbin, W. T. Brown or L. A. Ammons can be had to do the work.

Prepare for Jackson County Fair

High Point has been selected as one of 70 cities in the nation in which a survey will be conducted to determine what city families are eating in 1948.

To date, 14 Forsyth County 4-H Club boys have purchased registered dairy calves this spring for their projects.

Crops in countries besides the United States are forecast to be larger than at any time since the end of the war.
