

CRAFTSMAN'S FAIR TO BE HELD JULY 26 THROUGH 28 IN GATLINBURG, TENN.

THE CRAFTSMAN'S FAIR OF THE SOUTHERN HIGHLANDS sponsored by the Southern Highland Handicraft Guild and Southern Highlands, to be held in Gatlinburg, Tennessee, July 26 thru 28, 1948, is an "all-out" effort on the part of the membership of the sponsoring groups to bring to the public the very best in Southern Highland Handicrafts. Not only will an attempt be made to show as many examples of good crafts as possible, but there will be outstanding craftsmen in every field to show how as well as to explain how good craft articles come into being.

The work of these Craftsmen is done both for personal pleasure and economic help. In most cases it is difficult to tell the differences—such is the joy of the craftsman in his work.

Those desiring more definite information concerning the CRAFTSMAN'S FAIR OF THE SOUTHERN HIGHLANDS contact: General Chairman, J. E. Davis, The Craft Education Program, 8 1-2 Wall Street, Asheville; Chairman of Information: Miss Margaret Decker, Biltmore; For Reservations, The Gatlinburg Tourist Bureau, well in advance.

Several Jackson County people are members of the Handicraft Guild and will attend the Fair in Gatlinburg. Mrs. Lewis Norton, of the Norton community, who has been in the craft business for many years, and Mrs. N. B. Ashe, of the Webster community, who operates a craft shop on the highway in Lovefield, are the most active in the work of the Guild in Jackson county.

Bishop Serving On Destroyer USS Rich

Eulais M. Bishop, seaman apprentice, USN, of Gay, N. C., is serving aboard the destroyer USS Rich, which has visited the fabulous river city of New Orleans, La., for a four-day break in operational training. His ship was part of the largest force of combatant ships to enter this port since Admiral Farragut stormed it during the War between the States.

The warships, under the command of Rear Admiral R. P. Briscoe, USN, include one carrier, five destroyers, two destroyer-escorts, and two submarines. They had been undergoing intricate task force operations when they paused at New Orleans for logistic support and shore liberty for their sea-weary crews.

Daily sight-seeing tours in the Mardi Gras' home town exposed Jean Lafitte's hideaway deep in the Latin section of the balconied French Quarters.

The Rich, second warship named after a Navy flyer in the Battle of Midway, was commissioned on Independence Day, 1946.
