

For The Women

Society News and Club Activities

Phone 110

Gladys Cabe, Lyle Clark Wed In Sylva Church

Miss Gladys Cabe, daughter of Mrs. Annie Cabe of Sylva, and the late Thornton Cabe, and Lyle Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clark of Gay, were married in a single ring ceremony at the Sylva Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon, June 9, at 4:30 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. C. M. Warren, officiated.

With a background of pines, the church was decorated with seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers and floor baskets of white gladioli and Oregon fern. On the choir rail were placed 3 candelabra, each holding 7 candles and in each window was a lighted candle banked with greenery and white larkspur.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Grover Wilkes at the organ and Miss Alice Weaver, vocalist. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Wilkes played "At Evening" by Kinder, and during the taking of the vows "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell was played softly. The traditional wedding marches were used. Miss Weaver sang "Because" by d'Hardelot and "The Lord's Prayer" by Mallote.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Nelson Tatham, had chosen for her wedding a two-piece dress of Waffle pique trimmed in lace medallions, and wore a hat of the same material with a short veil. She carried a white Bible, topped with a white orchid and showered with white satin streamers and stephanotis.

Mrs. Walter Bradley of Dillsboro, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink dress trimmed in white and had white accessories. She carried an old fashioned nosegay.

Ray Clark, brother of the bridegroom, of Cullowhee, was best man. Ushers were Hugh Battle and Howard Buchanan.

The bride's mother's dress was of silk print with navy background. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of navy blue with white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony for a trip to the beach. She detached the orchid from her Bible and wore it with her going away costume.

Upon their return they will live at Gay, where Mr. Clark is manager of Clark's Place.

Mrs. Clark graduated from Webster High school and from Cecil's Business College in Asheville and has been employed by Sossamon's Furniture Co. in Sylva for some time.

Mr. Clark attended Sylva High school and served with the air force for three years during World War II.

One farmer in Surry County is growing Turkish tobacco this year.

The number of farm tractors in operation increased 16 per cent from 1945 to 1947.

FOR SALE

STRUCTURAL STEEL-ANGLES, BEAMS, CHANNELS.

We also carry in stock a complete line of other structural shapes. We will fabricate steel to your specifications.

GLAZER STEEL CORP
2100 Ailor Avenue
Knoxville, Tenn.
Phone 4-8601

KEEP COOL

SAVE FUEL

JOHNS-MANVILLE INSULATION

Our Crew Working in Sylva This Week

For Information And Free Survey of Your Home

Call Mrs. Nicholson

SYLVA DAY 92-J — NIGHT 153

CITIZENS TRANSFER & COAL CO.

Dial 2-2461

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Miss Bryson Honored At Dinner Party

Miss Mary Cecil Bryson, bride-elect, has been honored at several pre-nuptial parties. While she was visiting in Chattanooga, Tenn., last week, Mrs. A. C. Carson entertained with a miscellaneous shower. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in both the refreshments and the decorations. The house was decorated with pink and white roses. Twenty-eight of Miss Bryson's friends made up the guest list.

On Tuesday evening Miss Dotsy Bryson, cousin of the bride-elect, entertained in her honor at a dinner party at her home on Charlotte street.

The tables where a four-course dinner was served were centered with wedding rings made from summer flowers, carrying out a color scheme of pink, blue and white.

The serving table, covered with an imported lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of Shasta daisies and other summer flowers and flanked on either side by candles in crystal holders.

Covers were laid for Miss Bryson, her mother, Mrs. T. C. Bryson, Jr., Mrs. Jennings Bryson, Miss Jeannene Bryson of Sylva, and Miss Pauline Freeman of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Andrew Queen of Portsmouth, Va., and Mrs. Stanley Henry of Waynesville.

Tables were arranged and bridge was played following the dinner. Miss Bryson was presented a piece of her crystal.

Mrs. Leon Sutton Entertains Sylva Club

Mrs. Leon Sutton, who recently moved to Asheville to make her home, entertained the members of her Sylva bridge club at a luncheon bridge at her new home on Tuesday of this week.

Following the luncheon two tables were made up for play. Mrs. W. T. Wise won the high score award and Mrs. Dan Moore won second high award. Mrs. Wise and Mrs. Moore also captured the traveling slam prizes.

The club presented Mrs. Sutton with two pieces of silver in her pattern as a parting gift from the club. Mrs. Woody Hampton has been selected to fill Mrs. Sutton's vacancy.

Those going over for the party were: Mrs. Wise, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Ralph Sutton, Mrs. Keith Hinds, Mrs. T. N. Massie, Mrs. Philip Stovall, Mrs. Grover Wilkes, and Mrs. E. L. McKee.

Miss Wilson Entertains Bridge Club Thursday

Miss Agnes Wilson was hostess for the regular meeting last week of the Thursday Nite bridge club at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Tweed. When the guests arrived two tables were arranged for play.

Adding of scores showed that Miss Nancy Allison had made high score and Mrs. Dan B. Hooper had made low score. Both were given awards.

Others playing were Mrs. Rudy Hardy, Mrs. Henry Brady, Miss Lou Elsie Parker, Miss Lela Moore Hall, Miss Dorothy Sue Tallent, and Miss Mary Henson.

The hostess served sandwiches, potato chips, and coca-colas.

Mrs. Beck Honored On Her 81st Birthday

Open house was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert McClure of Addie Sunday afternoon, June 6, in honor of Mrs. McClure's mother, Mrs. Cynthia Beck, who celebrated her 81st birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Beck remains very active despite her advanced age. She received many lovely gifts from approximately 50 persons who called during the afternoon.

Mrs. McClure served cake and lemonade as refreshments.

PERSONALS

Mrs. M. C. Cunningham and daughter, Carol, returned home Tuesday from Fort Mill, S. C. where they had spent two weeks with her father, Mr. T. A. Mills. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. K. F. Mills, and two children, Marjorie and K. F. Jr. accompanied them home for a visit.

Mrs. Dan Tompkins went to Augusta, Ga. Wednesday to attend the funeral of her cousin, Miss Bertha Nix, who was killed in an automobile accident near Covington, Ga. Monday afternoon.

Miss Betty Paxton has returned from visiting Mr. and Mrs. Don Ashe in Morganton. While there she spent sometime at Clear Water Beach. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Ashe and Dick Williams of Morganton, who returned home the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hawkins of Asheville have returned to their home after visiting her brother, Andrew Queen, and family. Little Joan Smith accompanied them home for a visit.

Morris "Moss" Chester, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Andrew Queen, and his brother, Lawrence "Pug" Chester have gone to Detroit where both will be employed.

Miss Mary Lou Rutledge of Florence, S. C. was the week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Slagle. Miss Rutledge, who worked here last summer with Dr. Slagle, is enroute to Philadelphia to receive her M.D. degree from Temple University Medical School.

Miss Bobbie Nell Ensey has returned from Asheville where she spent two weeks in Aston Park hospital and one week in the orthopedic home. After undergoing an operation on her arm, she is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reynolds of Durham were guests the first of the week of his sister, Mrs. Mary R. Cowan.

Miss Edith Alley has come from Alexandria to spend the summer months with her sister, Mrs. E. A. Bumgarner, and Mr. Bumgarner at Sunset Farm.

Miss Mary Cecil Bryson has returned from a several days' visit to friends in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Armstrong and two children, Patsy and Jimmie, of Gray Court, S. C., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cordell at Qualla.

Mrs. Andrew Queen of Portsmouth, Va., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Haskett. While here she will serve as maid of honor in the Bryson-Patterson wedding Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Shelton and son, Randall Lee, spent Sunday in Asheville, visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Shelton and family.

Miss Ida Smith and Mrs. Clara Wendt, and two children, Nancy and Freddy, have returned to Commerce, Ga., after visiting Mrs. Wendt's mother, Mrs. Nannie McGuire, and other relatives at Cullowhee.

Mr. J. L. Hair was here from Chattanooga last week, spending a few days with his family.

Mr. Bob Tallon of Charleston, S. C., and Mr. Mike Turner of Franklin, Va., arrived Wednesday and will be here the remainder of the week. They came to attend the Bryson-Patterson wedding Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Poteet were guests this week of his brother, Mr. Roscoe Poteet, and family. They had spent their honeymoon in Florida and were enroute to their home in Dayton, Ohio.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garrett of Sylva and Louisville, Ky., announce the birth of a daughter, on Tuesday, June 15, at the Harris Community hospital. Mrs. Garrett was before her marriage, the former Miss Joyce Chester, daughter of Mrs. Andy Queen and the late M. D. Chester of Sylva. Mr. Garrett is the son of the late Ruban Garrett of Sylva and Mrs. Rosie Garrett of Waynesboro, Ga.

Miss Pauline Ward of Washington, D. C., is spending this week visiting relatives and friends in Sylva. She came to be here for the Bryson-Patterson wedding on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Crawford and daughter, Betsy Jane, have returned from Foley, Ala., where they visited Mrs. Crawford's sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Hampton attended the funeral of Mr. Hamp-

Webster W. S. C. S. Group Has Meeting

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Webster Methodist church met last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. S. G. Monteith with 12 members present. The president, Mrs. D. D. Davis, presided.

Mrs. Banister Madison gave the devotional and was also in charge of the program, which dealt with the work of the Methodists in Poland.

The Study Course leader, Mrs. Joe Rhinehart, gave a report on the study on the United Nations which has been presented to the group the week before by Mrs. C. C. Buchanan, librarian at Western Carolina Teachers College.

The society, which always adopts one major project in connection with the church or parsonage as its work for the year, has decided to install a gas furnace in the church this year and plans for this were discussed.

A committee was named to make arrangements for the annual potluck dinner to be held in July. Mrs. Ernest Penland and Mrs. Alney Bryson will be hostesses at this time.

The hostess served a sweet course.

Mrs. George Lee Hostess For R. D. Circle Meeting

On Thursday evening Mrs. George Lee was hostess for the June meeting of the Ruby Daniel circle of the Sylva Baptist church. The president, Mrs. Lee Walker, presided over a routine business session.

Mrs. Lawrence Monteith gave the devotional and Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Charlie Campbell were in charge of the Heck Jones memorial program. The regular program was presented by Mrs. W. T. Brown and Mrs. Cicero Bryson.

The hostess served a sweet course.

Mrs. F. M. William Entertains Legion Auxiliary Officers

Mrs. Floyd Chadwick, department president of the American Legion auxiliary and her son, Floyd Chadwick, Jr., of Morehead City, and Mrs. Dewey Clymer of Reidsville, department national defense chairman, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Williams while in Sylva to attend the district meeting of the 19th and 20th districts held at the Methodist church Monday.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Williams entertained with a supper in the rear garden of the Williams home. Other guests were Mrs. O. E. Monteith and her houseguest, Miss Hinson of Stanley county, and Mrs. Dan Tompkins.

Friends enjoying the occasion were Jerry Karp, Pete Dills and Douglas Campbell. Later the boys went to the Ritz Theatre to see the current show.

CITIZENS TRANSFER AND COAL CO.

DEALERS WANTED for IRON FIREMAN Automatic Heating Equipment

Exceptional business and profit opportunities are now open in this area for Iron Fireman dealers.

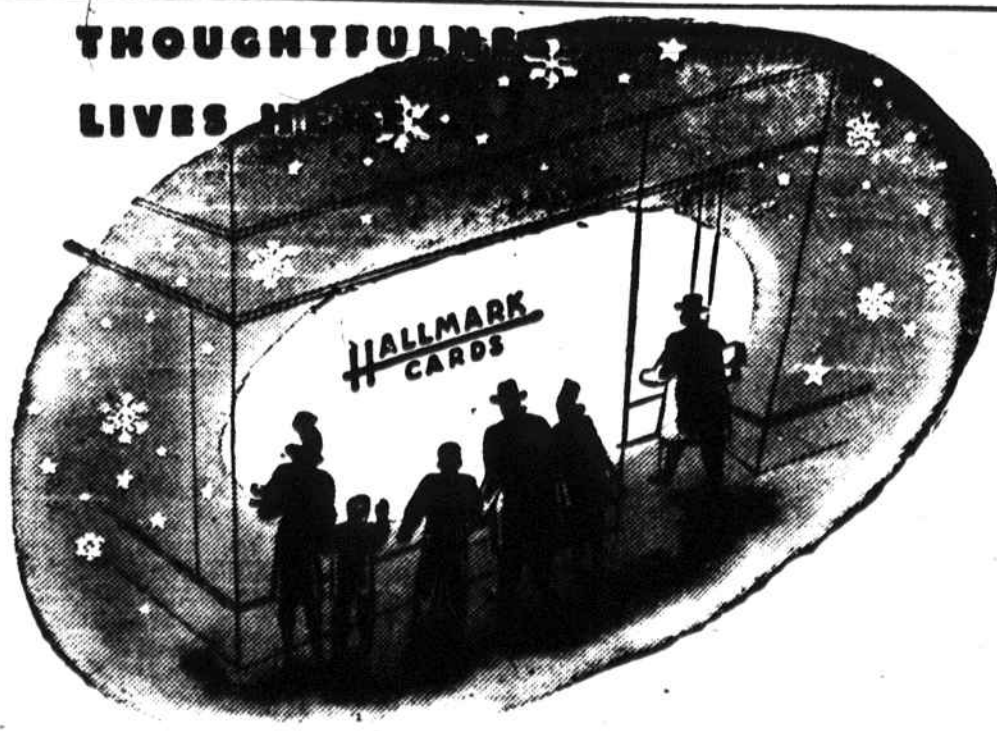

Iron Fireman automatic heating equipment is well known for its high quality and excellent performance. There are hundreds of thousands of satisfied users throughout the nation. Equipment is highly salable. Nationally advertised for 23 years, IRON FIREMAN is an outstanding name in the heating field.

Dealers selected will receive strong local backing, with merchandising and engineering assistance. Thorough sales training course available to dealers and their salesmen.

For full information, write, telephone, or come in to see us.

CITIZENS TRANSFER AND COAL CO.

18 Flat Iron Bldg. Asheville, N. C. Dial 2-2461

Someone you know will think more of you—if you remember him with an appropriate card. See our complete selection of Hallmark Cards for every occasion.

The Book Store

In The Herald Building

A Hallmark Card will best express your perfect taste—your thoughtfulness.

Calendar of Events

Thursday, June 17—The Dillsboro Masonic Lodge will meet in the Masonic hall, Dillsboro, at 7:30 p. m. Claude J. Cowan, W.M.

Thursday, June 17—The Scotts Creek Missionary will meet with Mrs. B. S. Hensley at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Joe Sutton, president.

Friday, June 18—The Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service will have their joint monthly meeting in Allison building at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Harry Hastings, president.

Monday, June 21—The Woodmen of the World will meet in the W.O.W. hall at 7:30 p. m. Jeff Hedden, council commander.

Monday, June 21—The Sylva Firemen will meet at the city fire department at 6:45 p. m. Bart Cope, Chief.

Tuesday, June 22—The Rotary club will have a dinner meeting at 7 p. m. Dr. D. D. Hooper, pres.

Tuesday, June 22—The Camp Fire girls will meet in the Scout hall in the Methodist church at 7:30 p. m. Patsy Buckner, president.

Wednesday, June 23—Oce Chap-

Gilbert Bess Observes His Ninth Birthday

Gilbert Bess, son of Mrs. G. K. Bess, celebrated his ninth birthday by inviting some of his young friends to come to the Sylva Pharmacy to eat birthday cake and ice cream with him on Friday evening, June 11.

Friends enjoying the occasion were Jerry Karp, Pete Dills and Douglas Campbell. Later the boys went to the Ritz Theatre to see the current show.

at the Methodist church Monday.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Williams entertained with a supper in the rear garden of the Williams home. Other guests were Mrs. O. E. Monteith and her houseguest, Miss Hinson of Stanley county, and Mrs. Dan Tompkins.

ter, No. 139, Order of the East—The Kinston Fat Stock Show this year was quite successful with good exhibits of both beef cattle and swine.

PROFESSIONAL DRUG STORE

Your Father's Day Headquarters

"Remember DAD"

Do you love Father or is he just the Family Cash Register? Express your love for him with a nice gift on June 20th.

GIFTS FATHER WILL LIKE

(If He Smokes)

RONSON

Cigarette Lighters: $6.00 to $12.50

SCHICK, SUNBEAM, REMINGTON

Electric Razors: $15.00 to $23.50

ELGIN & LONVILLE

WATCHES: $24.50 to $55.00

If HE is a Camera Fan: CAMERAS, Still or Movie $3.49 to $98.00

HE will enjoy a box of CANDY from our refrigerated Candy case.

PROFESSIONAL DRUG STORE

Your Walgreen Store

Phone 49

Sylva, N. C.