FARMERS FEDERATION "Granny Hatcher", 98, To Visit Grandchildren SETS JULY 24 FOR ANNUAL PICNIC

The annual Farmers Federation picnic for Jackson county, an all-day event of string music, quar_ tet and choir singing, and many special and varied acts, will be held in the high school building at Cullowhee on Saturday, July 24, beginning at 10 a.m., it was announced by James G. K. Mc-Clure, president of the federation.

The annual picnic, which is becoming traditional for this area, has drawn larger crowds each year to participate in the games and contests. Musicians, singers and other performers are extended a special invitation to attend and take part in the program. Prizes will be given for the best choir and quartet, as well as for athletic games and contests on the school grounds during the lunch

The day's festivities will begin with string music and singing by many groups, each attempting to out-perform the others. Special acts, such as the federation hen lays an egg on the stage at a predetermined time each day and Panhandle Pete, the one man band of Western North Carolina fame, will add to the life of the program. Alec Houston, young ventriloquist of Hendersonville, will attend the picnics again this year.

At the lunch hour the federation will furnish plenty of watermelon and lemonade for all. Races, tugs of war and other contests will be held at this time on the school grounds, and prizes will be given

18-YEAR MYSTERY CLEARED IN FINDING

A mystery that has baffled the people of Jackson county for 18 years was cleared up last Friday when the remains of a man found in a laurel thicket of the Whiteside Cove section was identified that of her father.

Ernest White and his brother were logging in this area when he found a skull. Not knowing whether it was that of a human, he took it to Cashiers to let Dr. John Painter decide. After learning that it was that of a man, they went back leaves away and found the remains of the skeleton, with the Indentification was easily made as his knife, pocketbook, watch and false teeth were all there. No inquest was held as Coroner Lum Dills did not think it necessary.
