

ARCHIBALD RUTLEDGE WILL BE GUEST SPEAKER AT WCTC FRIDAY AT 8 P. M.

Some changes have been made in the list of speakers at the Western Carolina English Institute, to be held at Western Carolina Teachers college Friday and Saturday, it has been announced by Miss Mabel Tyree, head of the WCTC English department, who is in charge of arrangements for the Institute.

Archibald Rutledge, the South Carolina poet and writer, will be a special guest, as was formerly announced. In addition to participating in the Institute, he will speak, under sponsorship of the school's Lyceum committee, at the college auditorium Friday night at 8 o'clock. This address will be open to the public.

Mr. Rutledge, who was made Poet Laureate of South Carolina by the state legislature, has written many books and poems and magazine articles, mostly about the South. Two of his better-known books are "Home by the River" and "It Will Be Daybreak Soon." He is also a noted lecturer.

The purpose of the Institute is to strengthen the progress of English teaching in the public schools of the state. Emphasis will be placed on the discussion of actual problems faced by English teachers. Such phases of English teaching as composition and grammar, literature in the high school, remedial reading, and spelling will be discussed.

The revised list of speakers includes, besides Mr. Rutledge, Dean W. B. Harrill, director of the WCTC summer session, who will welcome those who attend; E. H. Hartsell, Executive Secretary, N. C. English Teachers' Association; Mrs. Lillian B. Buchanan, WCTC librarian; Miss Leonora Smith, of the WCTC education department; Miss Jess Byrd, Salem College, Winston-Salem; and Miss Kathleen Pike, Albemarle.

The institute will last from 10 a.m. Friday, when registration begins, till noon Saturday.

At 4:30 Friday afternoon there will be a tea and social hour in the parlor of Moore dormitory, with the school's English majors and minors as hosts. At 6 o'clock Friday afternoon there will be a banquet, with Mr. Rutledge as a special guest.

Greatest Safety Device

Safety on our highways cannot be governed so much by legislation as by the inner convictions and attitudes of the drivers.

We should pause and think of the 11,069 persons who were killed in traffic accidents during the past 12 years and think seriously of the 69,492 persons who were injured.

GELTCH WILL GIVE VIOLIN CONCERT AT WCTC TONIGHT

Waldemar Geltch, violinist, will present a concert of classical music in Hoey auditorium, Western Carolina Teachers college, Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Mr. Geltch, who has performed in 45 of the 48 states and who has had a distinguished concert career in Europe, is, with his family, spending the summer in Asheville, at 44 Sunset Parkway.

Mr. Geltch's concert will be the college's first Lyceum number during the current summer session, said Mrs. Lillian Buchanan, chairman of the Lyceum committee. She added that the public would be admitted without charge.

Mr. Geltch will be accompanied by Miss May Jo Perky. It is said that Mr. Geltch has played in public practically the entire literature for the violin, including 38 concertos for the violin.

He has traveled more than 250,000 miles to play more than 1300 concerts. More than 130 of these concerts were in American colleges, universities, and academies. He has appeared in 14 state universities.

He has studied with a number of prominent violinists, including Leopold Auer, who was also a teacher of Jascha Heifetz. He has taught the violin extensively, having been head of the violin department of three state universities—South Dakota, Wisconsin, and Kansas, where he is now. He was at one time supervisor of all violin teaching in the public schools of greater New York City.

The program of the violinist's concert Thursday night will include the suite "Much Ado About Nothing," Korngold; "Concerto No. 2, D Major," Mozart; "Reverie," Vieuxtemps; "By the Fireside," Valle-Heifetz; "From San Domingo," Benjamin; "Clair de Lune," Debussy-Roelens; and "Scherzo Tarentalle," Wieniawski.

—many of them left crippled and maimed for life. THEN THINK in terms of preservation of those who will travel upon our highways.

The greatest safety appliance ever devised is the human mind of drivers. It calls for alertness and clear thinking to cope with the complex stream of modern traffic on our highway of today. So, why not strive together to make a safer state!
